on the premises,

Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and M'Clary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 36 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 49 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settees; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do.; 36 Looking Glasses; 26 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattrasses; Palm Leaf and Husk do; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Time Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Penciled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves;

A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware;

Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a sale investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

Morning Chronicle.

LAWRENCE ANE METHUEN.—The Lawrence Courier says:

David Nevens, the purchaser of the Pemberton Mills, is a native of Methuen village. He has attained his present pecuniary eminence by his own unaided exertions. It is related of him that when a boy he was employed by Mr. John Graves, then a soap-boiler and farmer, on the place now occupied by Mr. William C. Chapin, agent of the Pacific Mills. An acquaintance of Mr. Graves, a merchant in Boston, desiring to employ a reliable young man, Mr. G. recommended David Nevens. At that time the stage ran from Methuen to Boston three times a week, and the fare was one dollar. This sum the Boston merchant forwarded to David, expecting him to come down by stage. David takes the money, but instead of spending it in a ride to Boston, tucks it into his pocket, packs up his little bundle and starts for Boston on foot. He reaches the store with the dollar unbroken, and tenders it to his employers as so much saved by walking twenty seven miles. This incident of course established him in the favor of his employers, and from that day he has gone onward.—His property is now variously estimated from $300,000 to over $1,000,000, to which may as well be added about half a million made in the purchase of the Pemberton Mills, if the purchase was wholly on his own account, as we are informed hat it was.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these and consequently these Pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"Your PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice performed a cure for many of the worst bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Knox, of Philadelphia.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies commonly used in this city. Indeed, I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best medicines I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their antiseptic quality makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mr. R. Stuart, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretion which relieves the system of obstruction. I have very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitude who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness originates in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Reuben Ball, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and agree with your statements of their efficacy. They eviscerate, and carry off those foul humors and impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system.

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE — SICK HEADACHE — FOUL STOMACH — PILES — DROPSY — PLETHORA — PARALYSIS — FITS — &c.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every dose of it bears his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the relief and cure of Pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. At time when the fatal shaft of Death is shorter known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, and in other lands, it is indeed almost every hamlet it contains. CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them; if we can trust our own senses when we see the dangerous symptoms of the lungs yield to it; if we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know; in fact, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then is it irrefutably proven that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted, from none to be forgot, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER
So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; eradicates dandruff, itching, and all scurfs, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, and it seems you forwarded all being sold, while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three, of your warm customers, and the approbation, and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convince us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $3 size; yours very rep'ly,
DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his suffering, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, very soon the sores commenced the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has a healthy scalp, and a luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, very respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

Gardner, Ill., June 12, 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and preserving the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.
Yours Respectfully,

These fabrics have made their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities requisite to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would call and have with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them unfit for sea service.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have seven commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The schemes are so constructed as to offer inducement to the test all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lottery of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the receipt of the order. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all prize holders.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers—New York Herald, Philadelphia Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which should be borne in mind is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special act in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and in every combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action, on Piano Fortes, is equal to the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by one of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by one of Keys only. This combination, used with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of a great volume of Power, as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In this way we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Room at any time and examine or test our instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, J. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchase, will find it for their interest, as we have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special attention, as it affords a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and the instrument selected as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

THE CURRENCY.—There is said to be an unexampled amount of specie in the Boston banks at the present time,—and money, in paper or gold, there, is in good supply for all purposes of legitimate business. A note in the Boston Transcript, on the suppression of small notes, says: this measure will probably be defeated, as it deserves to be, for the following reasons:

1. There is no convenient substitute for small bills; silver is comparatively scarce, and gold dollars are universally admitted to be a nuisance. The coin is too small.

2. It would open the flood-gates for the introduction of the small bills of other states, whose banking systems are not so good as that of Massachusetts. The law against them would be a dead letter.—Rhode Island has more banks than towns; the experiment of suppressing notes below five dollars was tried several years ago in the State of New York, and subsequently abandoned. It cost Gov. Marcy, who signed the law, the failure of re-election.

3. The bank-note circulation of Massachusetts is about ten millions of dollars, one-fifth of which is probably in bills below five dollars, making about two millions in bills below that figure; if small notes were suppressed, ones, twos and threes would, to a great extent, assume the shape of fives; therefore the total suppression would not probably exceed a fourth part, or half a million of dollars, still leaving the bank note circulation of Massachusetts at nine and a half millions of dollars.—The same rule would operate in regard to the bank-note circulation of the United States. According to a table recently published in the Boston Post, the whole circulation of the Union, Jan. 1, 1858, was one hundred and thirty-four millions of dollars, of which one-fourth part was in bills below 20 dollars; if bills below that figure were immediately suppressed, it would probably diminish the whole circulation but a mere trifle. It has been estimated that one-half of the bank-bills issued are never seen outside of the street in which the bank issuing the same is located.

ANTIDOTE TO STRYCHNIA.—The success of camphor as an antidote to strychnia, in the two cases reported last year by Dr. Rochester of Buffalo, prompted to its trial in a recent case, reported at length in the Virginia Medical Journal, by Dr. Claiborne of Petersburgh. The strychnia was taken with suicidal intent, in a dose of two grains, and the patient was not seen until tetanic and epileptic spasms of intense violence had supervened, which continued for hours, until 1 drahm of camphor had been administered in doses of 10 to 16 grains every half an hour, when they ceased, and the patient recovered.

The greatest preservative of beauty known to modern science, is Professor Wood's Hair Restorative and Cosmetic.—Among the most important features of female beauty, is a luxuriant head of hair and a fine complexion; both of which should be guarded as sacred treasures, for either may be lost by neglect, or preserved by the use of the above named article; delay is dangerous. We seldom undertake, editorially, to endorse what are called "Hair Restoratives," as knowing full well that the great majority of such preparations are entirely worthless. Exceptions there are, nevertheless, and among these we have never hesitated to express our conviction that the article known as "Wood's Hair Restorative" is entitled to a proud pre-eminence. This article has told its own story in numberless instances of prematurely gray and bald heads, and the certificates in regard to its amazing efficacy have been alike numerous, unsolicited, and emphatic. When Senators of the United States and others (of the highest standing socially and politically) openly declare that "Wood's Hair Restorative" is all, and more than all, it pretends to be, we cannot do otherwise than believe them. The article can be had at all our Druggists. See notice elsewhere.—Rahway Republican.

Sold by all good Druggists.

That the American people are appreciative of an additional service rendered them, is seen in the result of Dr. Ayer's enterprise. It was something of a venture for a chemist of his splendid reputation among the literati of world, to risk it in the production of Cough Drops and Pills. But he boldly threw himself into the gap where his talents could best subserve the public weal, and it is now easy to see that he did not misjudge the temper of his countrymen. Throughout this nation and some foreign lands, his name is foremost at the bedside of sickness—while in the good he scatters, he is second to no living man. He wins the brightest laurels man can wear, and enjoys in untold measures the luxury of doing good.—Observer, Dubuque, Iowa.

"Amelia, for thee, yes, at thy command, I'd pluck the stars from the firmament—I'd pluck the sun, that oriental god of day that traverses the blue arch of heaven in such majestic splendor—I'd tear it from the sky"—"Don't Henry! it would be so very dark."

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, H. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.
PRIME COST, $1, 50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicament.
TYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,
is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1858.

LAGER BEER.—Touch it not—it will bring you to the drunkard's bier, as certainly as any other of the Devil's decoctions. The Boston Visitor says, "all the characteristics which pertain to other descriptions of liquor belong to lager beer.—It contains, in common with rum, gin and brandy, the poisonous ingredient of alcohol,—about four per cent. we think; and it also is obnoxious to the other charge of being adulterated, as are other liquors."—"The effects, likewise, are the same as other intoxicating drinks. We have known of drunkenness from lager beer; and the company which gather in these saloons, and drink there, are just such as gather elsewhere, and they act just the same.—When they emerge from thence, they are as uproarious and fuddled as a crowd from any other rum shop. There is no difference at all. We hope that this idea of the perfect freedom of lager beer of this day from any intoxicating property, will be scouted, as it should be, by all temperance men and women."

☞ A letter from St. Louis, Mo., to a Boston paper says:—'There is one thing which fixes a deep and lasting impression upon the mind of a New England man as he crosses the Alleghanies. At home, he has been accustomed to the idea that even to be a moderate drinker is disreputable, while in the West he finds almost every man a "free drinker;" whiskey and poor New York brandy are as common beverages as coffee and tea. In St. Louis, drinking saloons are more numerous than the stores of any other department of trade. Lager beer saloons stand out in bold relief at every turn; Germans and natives alike imbibe a beverage which a modern Solon has decided not to be intoxicating. This practice of whiskey and lager beer drinking is the great curse of the West. More men have been ruined by it than all other causes combined. It is confined to no class—the merchant and clerk, the lawyer and client, the editor and the professor, all alike visit the fashionable saloons and drink to excess. A strictly temperate man is an anomaly. This state of things is brought about by a variety of causes, not the least of which is the fact that a young man, coming here, feels that, in order to be a true Westerner, he must adopt the free and easy way, and drink whenever asked, throw off all restraint and "go it blind," for the sake of being considered a "clever fellow," which means, in these times, a natural fool.

Now, a young man who comes to the West and leaves his religion or his morality in the East, had better stay at home, for he is morally sure to find an early and dishonored grave. The valley of the Mississippi is filled with "tombstones from New England," and how many of those graves are filled with the victims of whiskey!"

SURPRISE PARTY.—In Concord, on Monday evening, Feb. 22, quite a liberal delegation from the Universalist society, made a "surprise visit" which was really a "donation party," upon a good widow woman, who, for years, has struggled nobly against adverse fortune, and they made it a pleasant time to all interested in it; and when they had retired, she found $21 in money and some $20 worth of good articles from the stores, well selected and in neat packages.

☞ George Burnham, a stage driver between Augusta and Belfast, Me., was arrested on Thursday last for robbing the mail. He confesses to have taken one hundred dollars, and implicates other parties, who, he said, showed him how to break the locks. Letters were found upon him, with the seals broken, and the contents abstracted.

☞ The Dover Morning Star (Free Will Baptist) says, respecting "Infant Damnation,"—"Our word for it, if our Congregational brethren would cease teaching infant baptism, (?) the charge of infant damnation would occasion them no further trouble."

THE DRUNKARD FACTORIES.—There are in the United States 1,217 distilleries, in which 5,240 persons are employed, and capital to the amount of $8,507,573 is invested: making about four gallons of liquor to every man, woman and child in the country.

BENEFIT OF SMOKING.—The destruction of the Penitentiary Hospital on Blackwell's Island, by fire, was probably occasioned by the carelessness of a patient, who was smoking in his ward, and let fall a spark upon his bed.

FROM EUROPE.—The America arrived at Halifax on Saturday evening, bringing three days later news from Europe.

The steamer North American, on her passage out, came in collision with the Bath bark Leander, laden with salt. The bark sunk in five minutes; and ten persons were drowned, twelve others being saved.

In the English Parliament, debates had occurred upon several important matters. The Oaths Bill was advanced to a second reading. It was stated that, so far from from the sum bequeathed by Napoleon I. to Contillon for the attempted assassination of Wellington, having been paid, it had been refused, on the ground that the bequest must have been made under the impulse of mental aberration. Lord Palmerston endeavored to procure the introduction of the new India bill, and the question was discussed.

The Bank of England has further reduced its rate of discount from 3 1-2 to 3-14 per cent.

The Journal de Frankfort states that the crisis in St. Petersburgh has caused several failures, with liabilities from 50,000 to 200,000 roubles.

The Times correspondent represents that great enthusiasm attended the reception of Prince Frederick William and his wife, at Berlin.

The project of emancipating the serfs gains ground in Russia. Several hundred of the noblesse have signified their approval of the Czar's plans.

From Spain and Italy the news is unimportant.

From India there is nothing later; simply details of previous intelligence.

SUICIDE.—Rev. Seth Howell, of the Presbyterian Church, Oxford, Ohio, in a fit of deep, protracted melancholy, committed suicide by hanging, in his own house, on Thursday, the 18th inst. His chief distress was a strong apprehension that his family would come to want, and though there were no grounds for such a belief,—as he had quite a large landed property unencumbered,—nothing could relieve his despondency. On the day mentioned, he left a room where Mrs. H. and a companion were in conversation, and went out, as they supposed, for a walk. The day being cold, and not seeing him return, in fifteen or twenty minutes, Mrs. H. went out to look for him. Seeing nothing of him, she went up stairs, and in a vacant and unfinished room, to her indescribable horror, she found him suspended by a rope to the rafter!

SAILING UP THE MISSISSIPPI.—We copied from a New York paper recently an account of ship Moses Taylor, of New York, having sailed up the Mississippi, in twenty-five hours, which it was thought was unprecedented, by a ship of her size, 997 tons.

On the 16th of December, 1824, the ship Bowditch of 399 tons, commanded by our much respected fellow citizen, Caleb Curtis, Esq., went up the Mississippi under sail. The following memoranda are taken from a journal kept on board:

"At 7 1-2 A. M., very thick, rainy weather, bore up for the bar. Passed ten sail getting under way to go in (of this fleet, and some passed in river, none got up for ten days.) At 8 1-2, hove to at the Balize. At 9, bore up to proceed up river. At 9 P. M., at the English Turn, fired a gun for the port physician to comd off; but as it blew hard he did not do so. At 11 P. M., anchored at New Orleans, being fourteen hours from the Balize. It was blowing a hard gale from the southward."

The Bowditch at that time was nearly a new ship. She is still in existence, doing good service in the whaling fleet, and belongs to Warren, R. I.—Boston Adv.

DRINKING IN WASHINGTON.—Perley, the Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, says:—

"The bar at one of our fashionable hotels has taken $21,000 for drinks in the past fourteen months. During several of these months the city was comparatively tenantless."

We should expect about this from the reckless corruption which is being developed there. It looks more like rum's doings than like the exercise of sober reason.—Dover Star.

SEVERE.—The New York Herald says, "such journals as the Albany Argus, Boston Post, and the New York News, are only organs of spoils and corruption. They are not the slightest use to any administration." The Herald has been appointed whipper-in for the democrats that play shy in the Lecompton villainy, and hence its denunciation; but however successful it may be in bringing the party papers into line, it is not in human power to train the people for such a swindle.—Newburyport Herald.

GOV. WALKER FIRM.—Washington, Feb. 27.—A gentleman of position among the Free State Democrats of Kansas, who is now in this city on matters connected with the political fortunes of that Territory, states positively that Gov. Walker has not receded a single point from his recent position in reference to Kansas affairs.

The best capital to begin life on is a capital wife.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

U. S. M. steamship Moses Taylor, John McGowan, Esq., commanding, from Aspinwall, via Jamaica, with the California mails of the 5th ult., and $1,600,000 in treasure, arrived at New York on Saturday.

The M. T. left Aspinwall at 2 P. M., on the 19th ult.

The U. S. steamer Fulton, Lieut. commanding Almy, arrived at Aspinwall Feb. 11th, from the island of Old Providence, and left again Feb. 15th, on a cruise to Chirique—mouth of the Colorado—and San Juan del Norte.

Left at Aspinwall U. S. sloop-of-war Jamestown, and British screw ship-of-the-line Brunswick.

California papers give a brief summary of the fortnight's news.

The main topics of news for the fortnight have been the proceedings of the Legislature, a multitude of suicides and bloody affrays, and a severe storm.

The Legislature has done very little work as yet. The Joint Committee appointed to examine into the condition of the State Prison, has reported that that institution is managed in a most reprehensible manner. They say that the present lessee does not feed the prisoners in a manner proper for human beings, nor does he provide medical attendance for them when ill.—Many of them are not even allowed to rest on Sunday. The prison is full of vermin, and the clothing and bedding of the prisoners is of such quality as to be far worse than that of beggars in Eastern cities.—Ninety-four prisoners have escaped during the last two years. There are 504 convicts now in the prison. Seven of the convicts are allowed to live as servants at houses away from the prison. The Committee recommend that a new prison be built, and that the State feed and clothe the prisoners.

A large amount of land has been finally confirmed to the Catholic Church. These are the old mission buildings, with their lots, gardens, and cemeteries, at San Diego and San Luis Rey, San Fernando, San Juan Capistrano, San Gabriel, San Buenaventura, Santa Barbara, Santa Inez, La Purissima, San Luis Obispo, San Miguel, San Antonio, La Soledad, Carmel, San Juan Baptista, Santa Clara, San Jose, San Francisco, San Rafoal, and Sonora. Besides these church houses and lots, there is a ranche of 24,000 acres in Santa Barbara county, and another of 4,438 acres in San Luis Obispo county.

A violent storm visited the State about the 25th of January, and lasted three days. Along the coast, and in the valleys, a large amount of rain fell; in the mountains there was snow, hail and frost. In Tuolumne county much damage was done by violent gusts of wind, which blew down several aqueducts and unroofed various houses.

The summary of San Francisco city news is little else than the account of a succession of suicides and suicidal attempts. A perfect mania for self destruction seems to have taken hold of the community; no less than thirteen suicides and attempts at suicide have occurred since the 20th ult.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Horace Greeley was examined this morning before the Tariff Investigation Committee. All the members were present. The examination was concluded within forty minutes, when Mr. Greeley was informed that the committee would not require his further attendance. He expressed his high appreciation of the candor and courtesy of the Committee, and thanked them for calling him before them. He says they asked him no question he did not deem pertinent, and which he was not very glad of an opportunity to answer. The purport of his testimony is understood to be that no man ever proposed to put any money into his hands to influence in any way the action of Congress on the tariff or any other question, and no one suggested anything of the sort with his consent or knowledge. He never knew until the late expose in Boston, nor even heard or believed, that money was paid or promised by Messrs. Lawrence, Stone & Co.; or by any one else, whether to members or to others, to influence the action of the last Congress on the tariff.

☞ On Saturday were sold at auction the Bridgeport (Ct.) Woolen Mills, for $24,700, the original cost being $70,000. The property is supposed to have been purchased by a party who intends to take it to New Hampshire.

Ignorance and cowardice are the parents of tyranny.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REMEMBER THIS!
Nearly all diseases arise from viscid humors, and any Medicine to be an effectual remedy must strike at the root and produce a change.—Numerous (so called) alteratives are known to and prescribed by our Physicians with much effect. But it is acknowledged by the first Physicians of the age—Professor Ives, Dr. D. A. Tyler and others—that the Rock Rose (Helianthemum Canadense) is superior to anything in the Materia Medica as an alterative, and so great has been the interest manifested in it that Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, published a Dissertation in order to lay before the Medical Profession the virtues of a plant destined to effect a radical change in their practice. Myers' Extract Rock Rose is the only reliable preparation, and has already in Scrofulous and Bilious diseases effected cures that surprised its most ardent friends.

Maryland State Lotteries.
R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.
PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. All such capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—In every instance, where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.
The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings: all other Lotteries which pur port to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.
THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.
Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of a fair drawing right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.
One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any lottery dealer in Maryland, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.
No one has a right to send his individual certificates. If he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

THERE IS NO REMEDY
Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving permanent benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging the circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

SMOKED BEEF, for sale by

LOCAL.

☞ Considerable excitement was caused about Market Square, on Saturday afternoon, by the running away of a white horse, attached to a sulkey or single chaise. The team belonged to Col. Blake, of the Squampscot House, Exeter; and was in charge of Mr. Daniel B. Locke, clerk of that establishment. On his way to this city, a trace broke, in Stratham, which startled the horse so that he ran a couple of miles, and finally threw Mr. Locke out, on the little bridge at the head of Winnicut Road, in Greenland. But though much bruised and almost stunned, Mr. Locke had pluck enough to hold on, and stop the frightened animal, after being dragged on the ground a couple of rods.

Mr. Locke picked himself up and repaired damages as best he could. On arriving in this city about 6 o'clock, he hitched the horse, for a moment, in front of C. E. Myers & Co.'s clothing store; and had hardly got inside the store, when a boy, in passing, tossed the stump of a cigar in the face of the recently frightened animal. This lodging behind one of his winkers, probably burnt the horse, and caused him to break his fastenings, and ran through Market street to the Square, at a fearful rate—through Fleet street to Hanover, and thence again to Market—where he struck a post at the corner of Swindell's "Dutch swill" depository, and cleared himself from the sulkey—which, strange to say, was not upset on all this route. Finding himself free from encumbrance, and having enjoyed about enough racing for one day, the poor horse stood still near the wreck of the carriage.

There was much shouting, running, and screaming, during this mad race; but though there were many people in the streets, no one was injured. After the horse had been placed in a stall at one of the livery-stables, he was so excited that he backed out, broke his fastening, and ran about considerably before he could be caught.

We make this detailed statement, that no misrepresentation may grow out of the affair. We are assured by those who know Mr. Locke, that he is in no way blameable for the accident.

☞ Four large boys were committed to the lock-up about 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon, charged with breaking open the Eliot Depot of P. S. & P. Railroad,—and stealing therefrom a quantity of tickets, postage stamps, &c. They were lurking about the depot on Monday—and in the keeper's absence broke in, but got no money, only the articles above mentioned.—They then walked into this city. The depot-master took the 5 o'clock train in, found them at or near the Portsmouth depot, and had them arrested. Some of the tickets were found in their boots.

NEW SHIP.—Messrs. Geo. Raynes & Son will immediately commence building another ship at their yard, in addition to the one they have already in frame. She is to be of 1000 tons burthen, and is to be built under contract for Mr. J. M. Tredick and others; being the only ship out of four now on the stocks in Portsmouth, that is contracted for.

OUR NEIGHBORS.—Certainly there ought to be but one interest, that of peace, good order, and quiet, among the inhabitants of the same street. But how can the peaceful and orderly be quiet, when noise and confusion prevail?

Last Sunday afternoon, as the bells were tolling for church, two women were heard quarreling in a house within a few rods of three churches;—and their quarrel was kept up by skirmishes, for more than two hours; they tore each other's hair, clothes, and skin,—did divers mischief to a man in the house, who interfered, broke the windows, and made a general uproar, to the dismay of the women and children in neighboring houses,—and to the surprise of the men and boys who came by from church before the bloody fray was over.

Uncle Toby wishes somebody would apply some sort of moral suasion to the people, whose presence, as they are now, seems to be neither ornamental nor useful.

The second lecture in Mr. Haven's course, on Political Economy, is to be given this evening. In addition to the interest of the subject, and the ability of the lecturer,—we ought to mention the pleasantness and convenience of the Hanover St. Chapel, and the excellent musical prelude, on the Organ. This, with a musical finale, added much to the pleasure of the assembly at the first lecture, and is, we understand, to be continued through the course. No Lyceum Lectures, nor any others, are quite complete in their effect, to our taste, without music to precede their delivery.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING.

There is to be a Prayer Meeting in the vestry of the Methodist Church, this evening, beginning at 7 o'clock.

There will be a business meeting of the Church in the Temple Vestry, this evening, at 7 o'clock, to which members alone are invited.

The Free Will Baptist Society will give their Pastor a Donation Party on Wednesday evening.

☞ School Committee for District No. 1 will hold their examination of the several schools as follows:

Mr. C. A. Shannon's, Gravelly Ridge, Wednesday afternoon, March 3d.
Miss Sweetser's and Miss Tobey's Thursday forenoon.

HORSE CASE.—A correspondent of the Manchester Mirror gives the following report of a case tried at the Supreme Judicial Court in Exeter:

The first case that came up for trial was an action for damages. Henry H. Smith vs. Thomas J. Smith—Marston and Emery for deft. The deft., who lives at Great Falls, in May, 1854, employed the plaintiff, who lives in New Market, to board, train and sell a valuable black horse, with a "long tail." The plaintiff, Henry Smith, was authorized by the deft., Thomas Smith, to sell the horse for $500. Henry sold the animal in a few days to Paran Stevens of the Revere House, Boston, for the sum named, engaging, however, to deliver him free of charge, and warranting him kind and sound. Henry took the horse to Boston, delivered him to Stevens, received the money and paid it over to Thomas. The horse had been but three days in Boston when he was found to be lame. Stevens, in consequence, brought a suit against Henry Smith for damages. The case came before the court in Boston, and was allowed by the Smiths to go by default. Damages were assessed in the sum of $300, and an execution with costs added was immediately got out against Henry, who paid it. The present action is brought by Henry to recover these sums of Thomas.

Among the questions that have arisen in the course of the trial was this: Does the power conferred upon an agent to sell a horse, carry with it the power to warrant him sound, making the principal liable? It is held by the court that it does. The jury did not agree.

☞ From Charles C. Harvey's Music Establishment, we have, among other things, "Howe's New School for the German Accordeon"—the best book of the sort "out." Russell & Richardson, Boston, publishers.

MUNICIPAL COURT, BOSTON.—On Monday, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Abijah Jenkins, the motion for a new trial was overruled, and the exceptions which were filed in the case were taken by the Court for the purpose of considering the points raised. The Court will decide whether or not to allow the same.

☞ Henry A. Washington, late professor of History in William and Mary's College, Va., was accidentally killed by an air gun, at his residence in Washington.

To enjoy to-day, stop worrying about to-morrow. Next week will be just as capably of taking care of itself as this one is.

on the premises,
Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and M'Clary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 36 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 40 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settees; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do.; 36 Looking Glasses; 26 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattrasses; Palm Leaf and Husk do; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Tin Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Pencilled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves;

A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware; Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.
GEORGE W. TOWLE.
Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,
On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,
ON THE PREMISES,
Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known
Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING; probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to ☞ William Chapman, a hack driver, driving the Tremont House coach, was fatally stabbed by Henry Gould, a young loafer and thief, and a companion of the notorious "Spunky" Brightmore, in Boston, on Friday afternoon, in the bar-room attached to Mason's Exchange Hotel, No. 74 Friend street, where the hackmen commonly sit when off duty. Gould came in, partially intoxicated, and very noisy, talking fight, and attacked a Mr. Holbrook, and on Chapman's remonstrating, attacked him also, but was repulsed.—Gould then went out, but in a few moments returned, and stabbed Chapman. The Herald says! Chapman has the reputation of being a peaceable person, and attentive to his business, which he has followed for the past seven or eight years. He has a wife, but no children.—He came to this city from Meredith, N. H., where he has a mother, a sister, and we believe, a brother, living. Gould is about 20 years of age. He has a bad reputation among the North End police as being engaged in many petty thieving operations, and is well known as a frequenter of the lowest dens in North street.

THE CUBAN MESSENGER.—Gen. Concha has granted permission for the publication of a newspaper in the English language in Havana. It will be styled "the Cuban Messenger." This is the first time that such permission has been granted, though repeatedly applied for.—Baltimore Sun.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Ayer's CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but these, more than other diseases, complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint; see the hot-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to the man whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! in these sad cases medical power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face; whose disease has made his body, See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—her health is restored, her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its restless tossings, and moans, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it anything to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sickness, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them boldly by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of more than a dozen years, through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently confirmed consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to those dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs which settle on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows the fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The common cold and cough, which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL, if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler who overtakes the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three million, and scatter them broadcast over the land. Hoarseness, Bronchitis, every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers instantly the bald head; removes all dandruff itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age: removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache See circular and the following.

Dover, N. H., Feb. 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every person sold seems strongly prejudiced in favor of your new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of the $2 size; yours very truly,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been partially covered with scabs, and some of his cheek, scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with the entire approbation of our friends, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant growth of hair soon shone out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HIGGINSBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINSBOTHAM.

{GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can in conscience send it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have the legal right to send numbers for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme adopted, there are every ten numbers drawn a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount of prize in every ten drawn prizes, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m181y

LOTTERIES.

THE well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets in Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $70,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of Maryland and Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the Baltimore Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS are a certain and certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of Dr. CHESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread among them, to their great and lasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL AND VOID; that is to say that PILLS will not be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4, Exchange Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the more full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave and a fifth lower than the upper, to be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that will hold from 1,500 to 2,000.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, through the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any in the market, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in Music, are here respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. Hall & Son,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS WANTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money, if the instrument be in a suitable note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

LIFE IS NOT A DESERT WIDE.

CHARLES WM. BUTLER.

Life is not a desert wide,
But an Eden blooming fair.
We may walk where rivers glide,
Breathe anew the balmy air;
We may see the sunbeam smile,
Lighting all the eastern sky;
Wafted from some golden isle,
Hear the music floating by.

To the sunny walks of youth,
Age bids memory backward go;
When its paths were paths of truth,
And the heart dreamed not of wo!
When the sports of boyhood seemed Prophets of life's full-orbed prime,
Then a heaven of beauty gleamed
Through the mists of morning time.

Why should life's inspiring dawn
Fade so quickly from our view?
Why should hopes in gladness born
Vanish with the morning dew?
Why should we with trembling feet
Walk thro' earth with shuddering fear?
Why should hoary age repeat,
Bring my youth's lost Eden here?

I have seen the man whose years
Held their own with wondrous skill;
Strange to him all doubts and fears,
Strange to him the powerless will.
On his brow no furrow showed
Years of life by him passed o'er;
From his blithesome lips outflowed,
I am young, and but threescore!

In the blush of youth he kept
Morning sunshine on his way;
When he rose and when he slept
Life was but one smiling May.
Age increased its stealthy pace,
Voiced this lesson from his tongue,
Age can wear a hopeful face,
Eden blooms where hearts are young!

PENURY IN PLENTY.

On the Kooria Mooria Islands
May guano in plenty be found,
But oh! they're such hard rocky dry lands,
We can't dig it out of the ground.

Meanwhile the Thames, under our noses,
Flows rich with deposit impure,
And we waste all that essence of roses,
That treasure of native manure.—[Punch.

There is more truth than poetry in the above. The filth from the London sewers would fertilize a whole county. Why should it not be used thus?

ASKING TOO MUCH.—A young couple were sitting together in a romantic spot, when the following dialogue took place:

"My dear, if the sacrifice of my life would please thee, most gladly would I lay it down at thy feet."

"Oh, sir, you are too kind. But it just reminds me that I wish you would quit using tobacco."

"Can't think of such a thing—it's a habit to which I am wedded."

"Very well, sir; this is the way you lay down your life for me, and as you are already "wedded" to tobacco, I'll take good care that you are never wedded to me, as it would be bigamy."

THE RED PETTICOAT NOTHING NEW.—McFigg says that the newspapers mention the wearing of red petticoats as a great novelty; but he thinks they betray their ignorance in regarding the introduction of "Balmorals" as a recent innovation upon white skirts. Mrs. Bridget O'Shaughnessy, of Mohawk street, has worn a red petticoat for a number of years. Besides, McFigg has a distinct recollection of being dandled on the knee of an oleaginous nurse who warbled variations upon an aria, having for its theme the following couplet:

"Nutticut, nutticut,
With a red petticoat."

McFigg has demonstrated to our satisfaction the antiquity of the red petticoat; and he says the antiquity of Mrs. O'Shaugnessy's can be proven by ocular demonstration.—Utica Telegraph.

A French engineer was travelling upon an old Ohio steamboat. He observed to the captain:

"But the engine is in a very poor condition."

"That's so," was the reply.

"And how long do you expect to run in it?"

"Till it bursts," was the cool reply.

After the next landing place, there was one Frenchman less aboard that boat.

NOTHING TO DO.—The police force of this city are, and have been for some time past, on their oars. Roguery has subsided of late, and the "Pickled Guards" are disbanded. Can't say we are sorry. Nashua is a sober and quite rational place just now. Even the gossips are getting quiet. Can't somebody do something to raise a breeze? It won't do to become stagnant!—Nashua Oasis.

Fretters are much more apt to practice their pernicious habit because of small matters than great ones. Nay, imaginary troubles are quite as apt to be the subject of their disquietude as real ones. And so, if they have nothing real to stew themselves over, they will conjure up something wherewith to make themselves miserable.

"The ladies—Sweet briars in the garden of life."

PIOUS UNHAPPINESS.—"There is a secret belief amongst some men that God is displeased with man's happiness; and in consequence they slink about creation, ashamed and afraid to enjoy anything."

A hen-pecked husband says that instead of himself and wife being one, they are ten:—for she is 1 and he is 0.

Fretting won't pay. To the contrary, it is always practised at a loss of time, strength and temper, ending in the greater loss of happiness.

REMOVAL.
UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extensions procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1858.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. C. LANGDON } Assistant Examiners.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. P. N. FITZGERALD,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.
PRIME COST, $1, 50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,
is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

MATTERS IN WORCESTER.

WORCESTER, MASS., March 1.

Dear Chronicle:—If the present month sustains the bad character it has derived from its turbulent behavior in previous years, we shall consider it unimpressible and incapable of reformation; for so exultant have we become at the placid character assumed by the winter king, of late, that any refractory disposition assumed by him during March, will be considered highly indecorous.

Rev. T. W. Higginson, pastor of the Free Church in this city, resigns his charge in April. Mr. Higginson is much beloved by his society, and they part with him reluctantly. He will devote his time to lecturing and literary pursuits, for which he is well adapted, being an accomplished scholar, a pleasing speaker, and withal a perfect gentleman.

I noticed you copied into the Chronicle last week an account of the accident to Mr. Samuel Clemence, by which it was feared he would be totally deprived of sight. It has not, however, resulted so disastrously as anticipated; and he is now pursuing his avocations the same as heretofore.

There is not another place of its size in the country that gets up so many inventions of practical utility, as Worcester.—We confess to feeling a little egotistical about it, and why not? The machines manufactured here are distributed all over world, and are celebrated for their superior mechanism and beauty of construction. Ruggle's, Nourse's and Mason's agricultural implements, which are as familiar as household words, are made in this city; patent looms, reaping and mowing machines, apple parers, porte monaies, paper machines, pins and needles, perforated card, railroad iron, knit goods, carriages, hats and caps, cotton and wool machinery, planing machines, papier mache works, refrigerators, hot air furnaces, and the various descriptions of wire, besides many other valuable productions, are here sent forth into the world, bearing with them the very creditable stamp of Worcester manufacture. There is also an immense business done in the clothing line. Chas. W. Freeland & Co. employ in good times some seventeen hundred people, and they turn out an immense quantity of goods, the bulk of which goes away down east.—Most of the ready-made clothing sold in the city of Portland is got up by this enterprising firm.

Mr. Henry M. Paine, of "water gas" notoriety, has recently been turning his attention to the improvement in steam engines, and as the result of his labor has succeeded in practically illustrating that steam can be generated with less danger without a boiler than with.

The suicide mania has claimed a few victims in this city and the suburban villages, this winter. The last one who shuffled off this mortal coil in this way was a young man of dissipated habits, who last week hung himself in the rear of a vile rum hole on Main street. Every one that commits suicide is not a lunatic by any means—though at the time of committing the act he may be morally insane. It's a distinction with a difference. A person who cannot whistle at misfortune is made of altogether too flimsy material to pass current in this mundane sphere, and we wonder not that such should embrace the earliest opportunity to remove. As the lamented Beck feelingly wrote—

"This world is not so bad a world
As some would like to make it;
Though whether good or whether bad,
Depends on how you take it."

It's just so. This little planet possesses more charms for a contented wood-sawyer, blest with a good appetite and an easy conscience, than it does for a misanthropic millionaire, afflicted with a fortune, a bad temper and a gouty leg. Young —'s body was encased in a cheap pine coffin, and the day succeeding the commission of the deed was buried by his father, without prayer or ceremony.

I mentioned last week that temperance matters in Worcester excited but little interest at the present time. Perhaps I was premature in my statements, for I am happy to know that the element of temperance, which has so long remained dormant, is about to be resuscitated. Last Sabbath a memorial was read in the various churches, and names petitioned for the purpose of creating a moral revolution in the cause; through which means it is to be hoped that the glaring evil will be suppressed. May there be such an awakening as was never experienced before, and may the good work expand till every drunkard in the city is converted.

We have enjoyed a musical treat lately, given by those two infant prodigies—the Myers' sisters, formerly of Marsh's Juvenile Comedians. These children are exceedingly youthful, but they possess voices of great compass and flexibility, which blend harmoniously together. By judicious cultivation, these girls will make artistes of no ordinary merit, for such brilliant vocal talent is seldom exhibited in any so young. If they visit Portsmouth, we can ensure you that your patronage will not be bestowed amiss. D. E. F.

A NEW MAINE LAW. A liquor law has been introduced into the Maine Legislature and will undoubtedly pass. It allows the manufacture, providing the manufacturer does not sell to any one in the State save agents, which towns and cities are compelled to appoint. The penalties for violating the law are $10 for the first offence, $20 for the second, and $20 and three months imprisonment for subsequent offences.; common sellers $100 for the first offence, $200 for the second, and $200 and four months imprisonment for subsequent convictions. Tippling shops are forbidden under a penalty of one hundred dollars, and persons selling shall be responsible for all the injuries resulting in consequence of the reprehensible conduct of the purchaser while in a state of intoxication. All liquors illegally kept are to be confiscated, together with the vessels containing them. The search and seizure clause is similar to the Massachusetts law. Drunkards are allowed to compromise their offences by disclosure of the parties who sold to them. No action for liquors is to be maintained. Delivery is to constitute a sale in the eye of the law. The law is to be submitted to the people for their approval.

FIRE AT BIDDEFORD, ME.—The Central Block, at Biddeford, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. The second story was occupied by the Union and Journal office, and the third story as a hall, which were a total loss. Insured for $10,000 in So. Berwick and other offices.

The following offices, stores, etc., were also destroyed:—McKenny's daguerreotype rooms, loss $2000; Goodwin & Fales, attorneys, loss $2000; Newcomb, shoe manufacturer, and also some other offices in the lower story, loss $2000; Skelton & Clark, clothing manufacturers, stock mostly saved; Mr. Harris, grocer, stock mostly saved; Messrs. Dudley and Lane, and Foss, butchers, partly saved.

The Block was valued at $15,000; insurance $10,000, as follows; $4000 in Rockingham Company, Exeter; $2000 in South Berwick Company, and $2000 in Hamilton office, Salem. Supposed to be incendiary.

ELISHA KENT KANE. A Biography. By William Elder. 1 vol. 8vo. pp.416.—Childs & Peterson, Philadelphia.

If Dr. Kane was himself singularly gifted in recording as well as performing heroic actions, the rare good fortune must now be added, of his having found a biographer who writes under the double inspiration of genius and friendship. This was all that was needed to crown the wonderful congruities of his career and consign it to history in worthy and permanent form. He could have no better monument than his biography.

"My aim," says the author, in his prefatory note, "was not to write a review of Dr. Kane's writings, but a memoir of the man, which might serve to make his readers personally acquainted with him,"—and to this simple object he has addressed himself with a conscientious enthusiasm. The result is no mere idealized portrait of the men whom the world wishes to know, but a warm, truthful likeness, conceived in love, and with the whole heart in the hand through all of its execution.

Dr. Kane's heroism would have been reckless if it had not been reverent; he believed that whatever God wills a man may do; he believed in providence. His life was full of this confidence.

Some of the glimpses afforded the reader into Dr. Kene's domestic seclusion are in the author's happiest style. Those gentler traits of his character, casually disclosed through his published writings, are here portrayed with a delicacy befitting the subject. The flower planted upon "little Willie's" grave will have a perennial bloom.

☞ It is expected that the Leviathan will bring out on her first trip about fifteen hundred excursion passengers. An admittance fee will be charged to all visitors on board the vessel, which is no more than just, as, in consequence of the crowds which will naturally rush on board, it will require great expense to keep the vessel in order.

When Vice is strong, it uses force, but when weak, fraud.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

The Methodist Quarterly, a very able work, has contained some articles so anti-slavery in character, that many in the States bordering on those where slavery exists have discontinued it. A member of the Methodist Church there states in one of the papers that good will come of it, as such a spirit in opposing discussion will make the Methodists more anti-slavery, thus hastening the day when that church shall bear a more decided testimony for freedom.

By the way, we do not see any way to avoid the discussion of the slavery institution. In 1850 it was declared that the whole matter was settled by the compromise measures of Congress. Slavery was agitated just as before. In 1854 it was settled again by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. The discussion became greater than ever. We have got down four years later, and it is proposed to settle it again by striking down popular sovereignty. Do that or do anything else, and in all probability slavery will be the great subject of discussion till it shall cease to exist.

While upon this, we would just say that many ministers feel some delicacy in speaking in their public ministrations of slavery as a sin and rebuking it, because it is now a political subject. It is not best for ministers to advocate the claims of any political party. We never have in public nor in private. We have never said a word to influence any man's vote. We have no fear of contradiction here. Yet ministers can and should "pray for all men," and "remember those in bonds as bound with them." They should bear testimony against slavery in its place as against other sins, just as the Bible does. Temperance in this State is now a political subject. What then? Shall not the pulpit speak out against God's law being violated by drunkenness? It will, we trust.

Even in Washington city, where slavery exists, and where there is a combined influence to perpetuate it, ministers have frequently borne testimony against it.—They have not done it as politicians, but by comparisons have condemned it. They have stated premises and established them. The logical conclusions have been seen as falling with mighty power on the crimes of the age. And we fully believe that every sensible man, even if he maintains professedly that there should be no allusion to slavery and intemperance by ministers, secretly approves of their being faithful to truth and the interests of humanity.

All bad men vote. Many of them vote for bad men for office, if there is a chance; and thus virtually for bad laws. Good men should vote. Ministers are men, good men we hope. They are citizens, and may vote if they choose. We have never been able to see that they lose any influence by simply voting; saying nothing in favor of one party nor another. Indeed candid men of all parties approve of their independence in enjoying their rights and privileges. J. F.

HORSES LOST.—The family of Mr. Henry S. Fowler, hackman, of Lowell, had a narrow escape from drowning on Merrimack river, on Sunday. Mr. Fowler had taken his family, consisting of his wife and daughters, and two boys, in a hack on traverse runners, for a ride on the ice; and was crossing at the bend of the river, when his horses broke through, dragged in the hack, and were drowned. The women were pulled out of the windows, and all the human lives were saved. The catastrophe was witnessed from the Dracut shore, by a Mr. Blake, who hastened to their relief, and dragged Mr. Fowler from his entangled position and placed him on the ice. The horses sunk and were drowned. The ladies were thoroughly wet, and their escape with Mr. Fowler's was exceedingly narrow. The water on the spot is about 15 feet deep. The animals lost were worth $200.

☞ Frank Leslie's New Family Magazine and Gazette of Fashion, for March, is a capital number of a valuable periodical. We know of no one book which would fill its place. The illustrated articles on Morocco, and the Mormons, are worth twice the price of the book; while for ladies' fashions there is no work equal to it. $3 a year, 25 cts. per number. Frank Leslie, publisher, New York.

☞ The five steam sloops-of-war now on the stocks have been named by the President as follows:—The one building at Pensacola, "Pensacola;" the one at Norfolk, "Richmond;" the one at Philadelphia, "Lancaster;" the one at New York, "Brooklyn;" and the one at Charlestown, "Hartford."

The U. S. brig Perry went to sea from Hampton Roads on Tuesday last, and is bound for the Brazil coast.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REMEMBER THIS!

Nearly all diseases arise from vitiated humors, and any Medicine to be an effectual remedy must strike at the root and produce a change.—Numerous (so called) alteratives are known to and prescribed by our Physicians with much effect. But it is acknowledged by the first Physicians of the age—Professor Ives, Dr. D. A. Tyler and others—that the Rock Rose (Helianthemum Canadense) is superior to anything in the Materia Medica as an alterative, and so great has been the interest manifested in it that Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, published a Dissertation in order to lay before the Medical Profession the virtues of a plant destined to effect a radical change in their practice. Myers' Extract Rock Rose is the only reliable preparation, and has already in Scrofulous and Bilious diseases effected cures that surprised its most ardent friends.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at one Dollar. $30,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of ever seeing it again. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets.—In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being paid. Any prize drawn in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vendor in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates. If he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken, and we do not remember a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, and they are dealing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, March 2

John Clark, John Lyman, Augustus Knox, and Albert Clark, were brought up before Justice Odell, charged with breaking and entering the ticket-office of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, at Eliot. Some of the tickets and postage stamps were found on the prisoners. Mr. Hackett, on behalf of the P. S. & P. R. R., said that the object of the prosecution was to have the prisoners detained here until an application could be made to the Governor of Maine for his requisition. The Court being of the opinion that a complaint was made out, ordered the respondents to recognise in the sum of $500, in default of which they were committed for fifteen days, to await the requisition from Maine.

TUESDAY, March 2.

The three 'boys,' mentioned a few days ago, as accused of assaulting a man, were all found guilty. Two of them, who struck the man, were fined $7 each; and the other, who was there aiding and abetting, was fined $5. Costs, $11.45, to be divided. They appealed, and gave $100 bonds for good behavior, and to appear at the C. C. Pleas.

The man now assaulted is member of a church, and some months ago resisted and quelled a disturbance at a prayer meeting, The assaulters seemed to owe him a grudge for it, which they have often exhibited in taunts and jeers, and finally in this assault.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, Mar. 1.

In the land case, Little vs. Gibson, of Atkinson, the jury did not agree.

EXETER, March 2.

State v. Joshua and Henry Weeks was on trial yesterday. The defendants were charged with breaking into and stealing from the store of Mr. Chas. Connor of this town. They were found guilty.

In the action of State v. Andrew Goodrich, a verdict of guilty was brought in.—Goodrich was brought up for selling liquor.

State v. Parker Cook and Parker Cook, Jr., is on trial this (Tuesday) afternoon. The defendants were indicted for keeping a nuisance in the shape of a slaughter house, in the city of Portsmouth.

State v. Selectmen of Epping is next in order.

☞ We are informed by an occasional letter from Exeter, that Mr. Sanborn of Epping, who was a witness in some case not named, before the Court, was waylaid about 11 o'clock on Friday night, and knocked down. It is said he knows his assailant. If so, he should follow him up and have him punished. He was threatened, early in the evening, by a lewd fellow of the baser sort.

☞ This afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in the Temple, the Youth of the city will assemble, to carry forward still farther, if possible, the work commenced on Fast Day, 1857, of pledging young people to total abstinence from intoxicating drinks.

Mr. Sinclair, of Scotland, an eminent temperance lecturer, will address the assembly. Parents, teachers, ministers, and other friends of youth, are also invited.—Admittance free.

Mr. Sinclair will also lecture in the Methodist Church this evening. Services begin at 7 o'clock. Admittance fee of 3 cts. at the door.

☞ School Committee for District No. 1 will hold their examination of the several schools as follows:

Mr. C. A. Shannon's, Gravelly Ridge, Wednesday afternoon, March 3d.
Miss Sweetser's and Miss Tobey's Thursday forenoon.
Mr. D. W. Jones', Thursday afternoon.
Mr. J. P. Payson's, Friday forenoon.
Miss Caroline A. Mason's, Friday P. M.
Mrs. Mullen's and Miss Miller's, Saturday forenoon.

Parents, and friends of the Schools are invited to be present at the examinations.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING.

There will be a Prayer and Conference meeting at the Vestry in the Temple, this evening at 7 o'clock.

There will be a meeting for Prayer and Conference, in the Chapel of the Middle Street Church, this evening, at 7 o'clock.

The Bible Class will meet at the Court Street Chapel, at 7½ o'clock this evening.

There will be a Preparatory Lecture in the North Church, this evening.

The Free Will Baptist Society will give their Pastor a Donation Party this Wednesday evening.

☞ The great sale of the Sagamore public House, and furniture, is postponed to the 16th. See Advertisement.

CONGRESS.

March 1.

SENATE.—A communication was presented from the Legislature of Kentucky. offering a regiment of volunteers for the Utah army.

Mr. Green (of Mo.) called up the bill for the admission of Kansas.

Messrs. Gwin and Broderick (of Cal.) objected, as the Pacific Railroad bill had priority in the order of business.

It was decided that the bill. shoulld be taken up.

Mr. Green (of Mo.) gave notice that he should offer a substitute, providing for the admission of the States of Minnesota and Kansas together, hoping thereby to expedite business. He then proceeded to advocate the report of the majority of the Committee, remarking that the leading and controlling facts stated in that document could not be successfully controverted. An attempt had been made, in the minority reports, to evade some of them, but they stood unassailed. He said he had a substitute for the Committee, which he would offer at the proper time. This substitute provided for the admission of Kansas and Minnesota together, the object being to expedite the business before the Senate, so that other important business might come up for consideration. He then argued the legality of the Kansas Constitution; that it was republican in form, and was the legal choice of the people. The population of Kansas is sufficient to entitle her to one representative, and the constitution of the United States prescribes no specific number of inhabitants for the admission of a State. He referred to the unsettled state of the Territory as a powerful and overwhelming reason for its admission, for it would give peace and quietness to the Territory. He had received information to-day of a murder committed by persons opposed to the Lecompton Constitution, and that General Whitfield had been driven from the Territory under threats of assassination.—This, he said, was the reason of the absence of the Fedrral officers in Kansas. It is useless to cry "peace!" when there will be none until Kansas comes into the Union.

Mr. Collamer of Vermont, followed.—He referred to the Missouri Compromise, as having settled the slavery agitation and and it being a fair bargain, he thought it unjust in the South, after receiving her portion of the advantage, to repudiate the compact. Who believed, he asked, in 1854, that slavery would exist it Kansas? It was a well settled principle that the power to regulate implied the power to prohibit. Mr. C. quoted instances to show where this power had been exercised, and referred to a case in Mississippi in 1796 as in point. He defended the Emigrant Aid Society, denying that the emigrants from the North went to Kansas merely to vote, without designing to stay there. He referred to the primary elections carried by intruders from Missouri, and other gross outrages into which the Government had never examined.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Sherman of Ohio, offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling for information as to whether money had been paid from the Treasury for the year ending June 30, 1857, for the expenses of the Legislature, or alleged Legislature of Kansas, and if so, under what act, and from what fund.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Senate in executive session to-day confirmed a large number of appointments made during the recess.

Hon. George Ashmun was before the Tariff Investigating Committee this morning. According to all accounts he said he knew nothing whatever concerning the matters about which he had been interrogated.

Gen. Whitfield, in a letter received today, says that Gen. Lane's party has served upon him a notice to quit Kansas, threatening that, unless he should do so, he (Lane) will assassinate him. Gen. Whitfield adds that he has sent his family out of the Territory, but that he himself will remain. He also says that house burning and murders are frequent, in the country opposite St. Josephs, Mo., Mr. Forman and his family have been driven out, and several other persons living there, killed; also one in the county above.

Gen. Whitfield's known character is such,—and the particular time when his letter gets to Washington is such,—as to make it safe to take his testimony with a few grains of salt.

ARREST OF LOTTERY TICKET VENDERS.—New York, March 1.—Several of the prominent lottery dealers in this city were arrested on Saturday, and tickets representing $150,000 were seized. Dickinson, of 39 Ann street, is the principal party secured.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M., ON THE PREMISES, Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

ASPIRATIONS.

That last best effort of thy skill,
To form the life and rule the will,
Propitious power! impart;
Teach me to cool my passion's fires,
Make me the judge of my desires,
The master of my heart.

Raise me above the vulgar's breath,
Pursuit of fortune, fear of death,
And all in life that's mean;
Still true to reason be my plan,
Still let my actions speak the man,
Through every various scene.

During the delivery of a lecture before the Bangor Mechanics Association, by I. S. Kalloch, on Thursday last, some miscreants shut off the gas and attempted outrages upon the person of the lecturer. The Association passed resolutions of indignant rebuke to the offenders, approved the lecture, and invited Mr. K. to lecture again at his earliest convenience.—Kennebec Jour.

A CONSPIRACY AGAINST CRINOLINE.—The maidens of Straubing, in Bavaria, are the victims of a terrible conspiracy, the young men of the place having pledged themselves not to dance with any girl during the Carnival, who wears "crinoline."

An Irish painter announces that, among other portraits, he had a representation of "Death as large as life."

Nothing is so contemptible as that affectation of wisdom which some display by universal incredulity.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most reliable and cheapest in the world.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of the age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Their compactness, no more or less good; but this cures what others pretend to cure, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to act on disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating the vital powers into healthy action, they open the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and to no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious disease; see how he sleeps, rousing form strengthen with strength again; see his longing appetite return; see his clammy features bloom on into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his face is covered with blotches, or else in sores, or else in ringworm. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the seeds cast from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him when angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; now him, and he screeches with pain; he has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purge his humors, they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gastric juice has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every vigor from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blighted and too early withering away, a victim of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has destroyed the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse new and healthy life into the blood. New look again—the roses blooming on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, that pain and misery are what they are eating its life away. Its parched tongue and its fever, its restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep from the intestines the parasites from the body, every trace, again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to save the life of a child? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are come around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these diseases, or have you the more dire? Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Headache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints arising from the derangements, which these PILLS speedily cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the influence of Ayer's good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which affect so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—their fabled terror is in the books and in the past. Price 25 cents per box, five boxes for $1.

Though a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized earth, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to the world. Its unexampled and unprecedented reputation have been earned by the many settled consumptions have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and perfect health, to sound health and the enjoyment of life, by the powerful antidote to disease of the lungs and throat. There are few who are not settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him the fatal sentence. He knows every thing but the disease is fastening on his life, and to those it is fatal, and to those who are dear to him. He can be saved by the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; this alone has saved many. His appetite returns, and he is in health again. Hundreds have recovered his side to health. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found where there has not been some living trophy like this to declare with the surety which here was for the CHERRY PECTORAL and its power over the DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER
So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; makes it luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following testimonials:

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that today we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. We have never sold aught to have produced half so many satisfied customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and respectable citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is a MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; the latter very much.

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and it effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly bald, from scald head, and he had no hair, scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his afflicting, advised us to try your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of long curled hair came on, and we now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can truly say it has greatest pleasure in recommending it to the world without the least fear as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their management, and certify that everything is done with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send money by mail or express, and the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $1 each, 6 for $5, quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, are published after every drawing in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, New York Herald, Daily Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m15ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. TWIGG & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present to attend to their business; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS or DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired effect, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the repeated use of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit, by promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL and VOID; that is to say the PILLS WILL NOT be taken when any female is in PRESENTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mechanic Institute Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was a warrant to James Hewes.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized this instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. Their action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or set of Keys, the Keys resembling an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a single organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and enjoy none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Teachers of Music, Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallet & Cummings,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,

Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent deducted from the payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of our instruments, and wish to purchase, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present. We have no agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST PERISHING IN BURNING HOUSES.—1. Never go to sleep in a strange house without devising in your mind how to escape in case of a conflagration. 2. When staircases are on fire, as was the case recently in that terrible catastrophe in St. Louis, throw your bed out of the window, reserving sheets, blankets, quilts, &c.; uncord the bed-stead, make one end of the cord fast to a bed-post, or something that cannot be drawn out of the window, and, if it is long enough to reach the ground, climb down it; if not long enough, tie on the bed-clothes; or if there be no cord, tear the sheets, blankets, &c., into strips half a yard wide, make a rope of them by tying them firmly together, and climb down it. If possible, seek the windward side of the house for the attempt, because, lst, the crowd are there, and may render you assistance; and 2d, the flames are not so likely to burst out of windows below you and prevent success.

3. When people are seen at windows of burning houses, desirous to escape, neighbors should immediately bring out their feather-beds, mattrasses, &c., and having piled them upon each other, encourage the one above to jump upon them. The crowd underneath should stand by to prevent a rebound upon the pavement. The force of the descent may also be broken by a strong quilt, held firmly, breast high, by as many men as can get hold of it. Some beds should also be placed underneath, lest by some means the falling person still come to the ground.

4. In cities, persons thus out off from escape by flames below, may escape by the scuttle to the roof, and from thence to a neighboring roof, until out of the reach of danger, and then obtain a descent by means of the scuttle through some other house.

It is often said that persons are too much terrified at such times to devise means of escape. This is true, in my opinion, only of such as devise no means before hand. If all, on all occasions, follow the advice of my first rule, planning their escape before danger distracts them, this will not be the case. At all events there can be no harm in prudence and foresight. One who has some plan in his mind is much more likely to be calm and collected, considering well his chances and means of escape, than one who never has a prudential thought on the subject.

TRAVELER.

FACTS.—A correspondent says:—

The Temperance Society in Auburn was formed in 1849. One hundred and eighty names were gathered, many of them young persons. But five are reported to have violated their pledge in nine years. Two of these have done it but seldom, one has been reclaimed, and hopes are entertained of the other two.

Such facts are of value, and they do more than arguments. Can we not do more to obtain them? Suppose you call the attention of the public to the matter, and have the list of names pledged in each town, looked up and examined. To other questions, answers might be obtained, as, how many places for the sale of strong drink in your town? How many drunkards? What proportion of your paupers became such from intemperance? How many young men in your town are drinking? What the condition of your licensed shop. Facts thus drawn out will be of value.

A man in Goffstown, who has sold intoxicating drinks for more than thirty years, has within a few years become a man of prayer, and an earnest reader of the Divine word, and has put away everything which can intoxicate from his premises.

We are informed by a minister in this city, that of a large number of converts who have recently made statements of their previous life, nearly all of them have mentioned the use of strong drinks as leading to and strengthening other forms of vice.

"SONS OF MALTA."—Their object is the same as that of Free Masonry, viz: benevolence, and sociality. In this country it is of very recent origin; is less expensive than Masonry, and in the exercise of its liberality does not limit itself to its own circle of membership.

My son, if thou wilt wear tight boots, there are three bad things thou wilt suffer; a bad corn, a bad gait and a bad temper.

"OLD VIRGINNY NEBBER TIRE."—If the scene of the following item, which was cut from the Wheeling Intelligencer, was located anywhere save in Virginia, we should doubt its truth. As it is, we credit the tale fully. The Intelligencer says:—"We saw yesterday, going up toward the upper ferry, a team of four animals—a horse, a pony, a mule and a bull. The horse had the heaves, the pony was blind, the mule was lame, and the bull had no provision for fly time. In the wagon, which was an ordinary one, there sat a white man, a crippled nigger and a tame skunk, frailly bound with a wisp of straw. The white man held the lines, the team held its own, and the nigger held the skunk, and they all moved forward. To make this worthy of its place, it is essential to say that it is true."

WHALES.—The annual slaughter of whales in the North Pacific amounts to between three and four thousand, yet there is no diminution in the yield. To account for the steady supply, unaffected as it is by this great and steady drain, the theory is gaining ground that the whales find a nursery and breeding ground in the inaccessible open sea at the Pole. Dr. Kane's theory, sustained by Dr. Hayes and others, is that in the open Polar sea the whale finds plenty of food and a more favorable thermal condition of the water than exists in the latitudes immediately south of that mysterious "basin." The superior size of these Arctic whales would indicate that they have some secure resort where they are free from capture.—Hartford Times.

A Western distiller applied to a blacksmith to put him up a lightning rod. The son of Vulcan declined, saying, "If it is the Lord's will to send a streak of lightning to burn up your distillery, I am not the man to avert it."

He was a proud man who being attacked by a highwayman whom he fought for an hour before yielding, and then only yielded eighteen cents, and in reply to an interrogatory why he made such a stout resistence for so small a sum, said he didn't want to own up to such poverty.

An Irishman took the train from London to Gravesand. On jumping from the carriage, he remarked that "if he had known he could have made the journey in so short a time, he would have walked afoot!"

Much time is wasted by housekeepers in wiping their dishes. If properly washed and drained in a dry sink, with a cloth spread on the bottom, they look better than when wiped, besides the economy in saving time and labor.

Since N. P. Willis of the Home Journal got lost between the crinoline spread of two females in an omnibus, we deem it our duty to abstain from speaking of scarlet flannel in anything but the most respectful language.—Charlestown Advertiser.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate it purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1858.

REV. DR. SPRING.—The editor of the Newburyport Herald spoke, the other day, of having the old study chair of Rev. Dr. Spring of that place, in which he had probably written sermons intimating a certain doctrine. But a correspondent of that paper writes thus:

In your paper of Feb. 27th, I notice that the question of infant damnation is being revived, and also that you seem to think that Dr. Spring believed in that doctrine. My father was a member of the Doctor's church at the time of the great revival, about fifty years ago, and the report was then in circulation that he preached infant damnation.

I was present at a meeting when he brought up the subject, and said he was charged with having preached the same; but took the opportunity to deny it. He said with emphasis, "I never preached it—I never believed it." This charge has been brought against other clergymen of my acquaintance, but in every instance was utterly untrue.

I have been connected with some church in this or other places for more than forty years, and never knew an individual preacher to believe in infant damnation. J. P.

Uncle Toby remembers to have heard old members of another church in Newburyport, ultra calvinists, talking about this doctrine, which they believed, and about the loss of the heathen, as connected with it and governed by the same principles, as they said,—just before Dr. Spring's death. And also to have heard the same company of elders speak of the Dr. in terms of respect, but to characterize him as a Hopkinsian, a man not so really orthodox as themselves, — expressing their doubts of his soundness, nearly in the same manner as the Puritan Recorder has spoken of Dr. Bushnell, or as the venerable Dr. Dana has written of Prof. Park.

OUTRAGE ON AMERICANS IN SYRIA.—The New York Tribune publishes a letter from Joppa, dated Jan. 17th, giving particulars of an outrage committed upon the family of Walter Dickson, an American, on the night of the 11th inst., by five men who broke open the gate leading to his yard, and committed great outrages on both men and women, of which we have made brief mention. One of the men, F. G. Steinbeck, died of his injuries. The Lowell, Mass., News says, "Mr. Dickson was formerly from our neighboring town of Groton, and his wife has a sister and mother in Lowell. We learn from these relatives that Deacon Dickson was not connected with any mission, but was a Second Advent enthusiast who believed in the early restoration of the Jews, and emigrated to the country as a farmer. The two brothers Steinbeck were Jews of the country who married his daughters after their emigration. Mr. Dickson is about sixty years of age, and resided on the plains of Sharon, about a mile from the city of Joppa, where he had a fine farm, and was introducing many American improvements, and probably doing as much toward the introduction of practical Christianity as many missionaries."

CONGRESS.—On Tuesday, in the Senate, the bill appropriating $408,000 to enable the President to fulfil the Sound Dues treaty was passed in concurrence; Senator Seward introduced a bill to amend the act of 1857, regulating the carriage of passengers in steam and other vessels; Senator Evans introduced a bill for the amendment of the patent laws; Senator Houston introduced two measures for the increase of the army—all which were appropriately referred. Mr. Collamer of Vermont concluded his speech against the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution. Mr. Pugh of Ohio gave notice of an amendment to Mr. Green's measure for the admission of Minnesota and Kansas, which shall declare the right of the people to amend their constitution in such a manner as they may deem proper. Mr. Seward of New York has the floor.

In the House of Representatives, the debate on the bill regulating the compensation, &c. of the clerks of House, was resumed, but no question was taken. The motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate bill authorizing the President to "appoint any officers affected by the action of the Naval Board, to their former places," was the subject of discussion until adjournment.

☞ A HAPPY COMPANY.—Four of the wives of Coombs, whose business in marrying has proved recently to have been so extensive, were in attendance upon the grand jury in Boston on Monday.

☞ In New York, Tuesday, the stock of flour on hand was estimated at 350,000 barrels.

LARGE DONATION DECLINED.—The Boston Transcript learns that the corporation of Harvard University have declined to accept the bequest of the late Dr. Treadwell of Salem, under the conditions imposed by him in his will. It would appear that the testator had serious doubts in regard to the acceptance of the donation upon the terms imposed, as he made provision that in case the college authorities declined to receive it, the money should be given to the Massachusetts General Hospital, without conditions. That institution will thus receive about $45,000.

THE WAY OF TRANSGRESSORS.—This is a hard way. In one day's mail papers we read—of one perjurer, Wm. Smith, jailed in Boston for falsely swearing that he did not see a boarding-house runner named Gleason on board the ship Blondel, on her arrival:—of five junk stealers and buyers in the same city, arrested and held for stealing 10 coil ropes, 1000 lbs. scrap iron, &c.:—of a presbyterian minister named Murtlett, who has fled from Owosso, Mich., to escape trial for a disgraceful crime:—of a Norfolk, Va., man in New York city, drugged with liquor in a den of thieves by two girls, and then robbed in various ways of $1500.

☞ Some liquor dealers are going into insolvency, and several of them have taken advantage in Suffolk County, Mass., of the law that no party shall be compelled, in any case, to furnish evidence that will tend to criminate himself or make him liable to a criminal prosecution. This objection being sustained by Judge Ames, the insolvent dealers refuse to give their creditors any information concerning the manner in which they have conducted business, and the creditors cannot realize from the assets. The assignees have appealed to the Supreme Court for a decision upon the questions involved.

HOTELS.—A strong argument in favor of temperance hotels may be drawn from the fact, as stated before a coroner's jury, that the watchman of the burnt Hotel at St. Louis, was drunk that night. He was in the habit of drinking deep, but was usually faithful at night,—so testified a witness. Whether he could have saved the house had he been sober, may be a question: but to trust a watchman who "drinks deep," and is but usually faithful, is a risk, which should not be tolerated.

LOSS OF LIFE.—About one o'clock, Saturday morning, a fire broke out in New York, No. 638 Broadway, in a building known as the City Market. The flames had gained considerable headway before discovered, and three men in the employ of Mr. Farrington, who kept the market, were suffocated. These men slept in the third story, and lived with their employer, who, with his family, occupied the second story, when the fire broke out. It was with much difficulty that some of the children escaped. The loss of property amounted to but $200 to $300.

☞ The Newburyport Herald states that two Baptist clergymen of Massachusetts, Rev. Richard Thayer, and Rev. Thomas Walton, have recently renounced their former faith, and avowed themselves converts to the doctrine of the final holiness and happiness of all men.

☞ A Boston gentleman, says the Transcript, who takes a business view of most things, when recently asked respecting a person of quite a poetic temperament, replied: "Oh, he is one of those men who have soarings after the infinite, and divings after the unfathomable, but who never pays cash."

APPREHENSIONS AT PARIS.—In regard to the late attempt on the life of Louis Napoleon, the Philadelphia Enquirer says:

"A private letter from Paris informs us, that the deepest anxiety is felt on the subject, and the public mind is beginning to settle down into the conviction that Louis Napoleon, will sooner or later, fall by the hands of some assassin. The Emperor, it is added, has thus far borne himself with wonderful courage, but the attempt which was made on the 14th, was of such a desperate and diabolical nature, and aimed at such wholesale slaughter, that his nervous system has received a shock, and he himself is filled with gloomy apprehensions. So, also, the leading Ministers; and hence the decree in relation to the Regency."

☞ The Calico Ball, in Bangor, yielded $508—expenses $114.50—net proceeds $303.20—which were placed at the disposal of a committee of ladies, consisting of one from each church and society in that city, to be distributed in such manner as they may deem expedient, to the poor of the city.

☞ We have valuable speeches and documents from Senators Hale, Clarke, and Douglas;—and from Mr. Pike, of the House.

BUSINESS IN ENGLAND.—An intelligent English gentleman thus writes in a letter to his friend in New York, dated Jan. 29:

"Things will get much better with you. Here they have not been bad, in a home sense. Your long times, and uncertain times, of credits, are the very mischief. Now here, merchants draw, on the first of every month, bills at two months for all purchases made before the middle of the previous month. And these acceptances must be met, and are met, or it would be short work with the debtor.

"This you see, makes a 'crisis' every fourth of every month. It keeps the Retail, the great Home Trade, sound. Of course, it strains and winds up the weak, improvident and unsuccessful—and makes it very hard for young beginners and small capitalists. I have known all about this myself. Our home trade is thus sound, perforce. Our currency is 'sound as a bell.' But it is the great houses, the capitalists, and creditists, who sow the seed of the periodical panic. Borrowing has been too easy. There is said to be a thousand million sterling of floating capital available for discount in London. The English bankers formerly never paid interest on cash balances or deposits. The joint stock banks following the Scottish precedent, did so. Hence the immense deposits made a few in London amounting to $200,000,000. They, to pay interest, and to make dividends, have been too free lenders; and in two notorious cases, the directors have been too large borrowers. This process of borrowing, and the combinations to buy products, have kept up prices in so incredible a manner, despite our substantially hard-money system. This brief statement will, I think, throw some light over the matter.

THE "JERKS" REVIVED.—The following singular statement is from the Illinois Baptist of Jan. 14th:—

"This strange infatuation is again revived in our immediate vicinity. It made its appearance in a protracted meeting among the Methodists at Indian Grove.—The ministers who conducted the meetings moved them from Indian Grove to Avoca, and brought with them five or six of the jerkers, and thus the contagion commenced in the latter place.

"Our informant was present at several of their meetings at Avoca, and describes the scenes as very exciting. From fifty to a hundred were jerking at the same time. Their hands, shoulders, feet and head, would be violently thrown into the most grotesque and apparently frightful shapes. The women's bonnets would fly off, their hair become dishevelled, and in some instances snap like a whip. In some instances it attacked unbelievers in it, and unconverted men who tried to resist it by folding their arms and wrapping them tightly around their bodies; but in spite of themselves, their shoulders, first one and then the other, would be jerked back, till they lost all control of themselves."

RELIGIOUS MANIA.—The Kingston, Canada, News states that revival meetings have recently been held in the country back of that place, attended with unfavorable results. The unsophisticated yeomen of both sexes attended these meetings under the influence of that kind of excitement usually taken for spiritual regeneration, or "change of heart." The furor of the participants in the religious exercises was of so extravagant a character at times that some of them actually shrieked, others stamped, and one is reported to have fairly jumped over a stove in the paroxysm of holy feeling. Among the enthusiasts was a farmer, past the middle age, who was previously remarkable for his quiet demeanor, but who, by frequenting the meetings, became at last a confirmed maniac. Last week the poor man was submitted to an examination by physicians at Kingston, who pronounced his case hopeless. In consequence of the result the meetings were discontinued.—Rochester Union.

☞ It is said that religious animosity rages in Ireland with the most unparalleled intensity. At Castlebar, both Catholic and Protestant soldiers go armed to their respective places of worship.

☞ The New York Mirror is defunct.—It has been weak and sickly for some time. It undertook to support the administration, and got broke.

☞ The Herald of Freedom, it is stated by the New York Post, has been bought up for Calhoun and Lecompton, with a government advertisement worth $231.

CONCORD, N. H., March 2.—At a meeting of the Republicans of Lancaster yesterday, Geo. Canning Williams, son of ex-Gov. Williams, and late County Solicitor, renounced Buchanan, and joined himself to the Republican party.

☞ The dwelling house of J. C. Ewins, in Salem, N. H., was destroyed by fire on Sunday night, together with a barn, shed and contents, among which were three horses, wagons, &c., and a large lot of corn and hay.

LOTS OF MOLASSES, &c.—In three days there have arrived in Portland from the West Indies ten vessels, bringing 3522 hhds., 250 tierces, and 109 bbls. of molasses, and 100 hhds., and 47 boxes sugar.

☞ A letter from "Islington," at New York, and one from Concord, with lots of communications, shall appear shortly.

☞ Mr. Kalloch denies that he was rotten-egged in Bangor, or that the gas was hot off. He says the meter froze up.

TROOPS FOR UTAH.—While the Secretary of War is making arrangements for the concentration of all the regular troops that can be spared for the Utah campaign, it is believed that Congress will grant the increase the army asked for. The Secretary thinks he can send into the field about 6000 men, with the present force. The bill will pass the House in some shape, and come up again in the Senate, when it is not improbable it will be amended in proper shape. The government does not desire a volunteer force, and if Congress sees fit to insist upon it, the volunteers will be detailed for garrison duty.

☞ The Galveston News notices a report that Seymour, the Hartford defaulter, passed through that city on his way to Mexico.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REMEMBER THIS!

Nearly all diseases arise from viscid humors, and any Medicine to be an effectual remedy must strike at the root and produce a change.—Numerous (so called) alteratives are known to and prescribed by our Physicians with much effect. But it is acknowledged by the first Physicians of the age—Professor Ives, Dr. D. A. Tyler and others—that the Rock Rose (Heliianthemum Canadense) is superior to anything in the Materia Medica as an alterative, and so great has been the interest manifested in it that Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, published a Dissertation in order to lay before the Medical Profession the virtues of a plant destined to effect a radical change in their practice. Myers' Extract Rock Rose is the only reliable preparation, and has already in Scrofulous and Bilious diseases effected cures that surprised its most ardent friends.

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

The Great English Remedy.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada

JOB MOSES,

(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N B.—Ml and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

A Revolution in the Hunting World!

Hunters, Trappers, Backwoodsmen and Farmers,

Arouse to your Interests!

VIGILANCE SUPERCEDED & DANGER AVOIDED,

WITH

BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barbs discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Mink, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

LOCAL.

☞ Mr. Haven's second lecture on Political Economy, was attended on Tuesday evening by a polite audience, at the Hanover Chapel. After the usual musical prelude, the lecturer argued the utility and beneficent tendency of Savings Banks, from well known facts in relation to the Savings Bank in this city,—and from the consideration that the effort to save, and the habit of economy, tended to thrift and wealth.

But on the other hand, he argued against and decried the system of Life Insurance, whether by Annuities or Policies, on the ground that it tended to encourage extravagance and over expenditure; and also on the ground that it was substantially a lottery, in which the gain of one man must be the loss of several men.

[It occurred to us, in listening carefully to this latter part, that Fire and Marine Insurance must be liable to a similar objection,—and so the argument proves too much.]

THE LECTURES BY MR. HAVEN.—Permit me to call attention to the course of Lectures which this gentleman is now delivering at the Hanover Street Chapel. It is rare, I think, that our citizens have the opportunity to listen to lectures so replete with valuable instruction. The topics are such that every man has a personal and practical interest in them. They are written in a style so pure, and abound in illustrations so clear and forcible, as admirably to convey the precise thoughts of the lecturer to every hearer.

The last lecture was a very able comparison of the Savings Bank with the Life Insurance Company—exhibiting in a very convincing manner the immense superiority, in every respect, of the former over the latter. We wished that all our citizens could hear it; and we hope that the audiences at the future lectures of the course will be limited only by the capacity of the room. For real profit and valuable instruction, we estimate this course of lectures far above any course of Lyceum lectures to which we have ever listened. W.

☞ Mr. Sinclair, the celebrated temperance lecturer to youth, held a meeting in the Temple on Wednesday afternoon, where he addressed and interested hundreds of youth and children in his subject; and it is to be hoped awoke such a conviction of the benefit of total abstinence in many youthful bosoms, as may save them from the snares that ruin so many thousands. His manner with children is colloquial and amusing, yet highly impressive. Those who did not hear him missed a treat.

His lecture, at the Methodist Church, in the evening, was very fully attended.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING.

Rev. J. W. Chickering, D. D., Pastor of the High St. Church, Portland, will preach at the Chapel of the North Church, Fleet street, at half-past 7 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

There will be a Prayer and Conference meeting at the Vestry in the Temple, this evening at 7 o'clock.

The Class meetings of the Methodist Church will assemble at half past 7 o'clock this evening.

The Monthly Church Meeting will be held at the Middle Street Chapel this evening at half past 7 o'clock.

☞ The Donation Party to Rev. Mr. Perkins, is to be continued, at the Old South Church, this evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ School Committee for District No. 1 will hold their examination of the several schools as follows:

Miss Sweetser's and Miss Tobey's Thursday forenoon.
Mr. D. W. Jones', Thursday afternoon.
Mr. J. P. Payson's, Friday forenoon.
Miss Caroline A. Mason's, Friday P. M.
Mrs. Mullen's and Miss Miller's, Saturday forenoon.

Parents, and friends of the Schools are invited to be present at the examinations.

FIREMEN'S NOTICE.

The members of the Fire Department are requested to meet at Jefferson Hall, This Thursday Evening, March 4th, at 7 1-2 o'clock,—to hear the Report of the Trustees of the Portsmouth Firemen's Relief Association, and sign the Constitution to become members of said Association. A full and punctual attendance is desired.

Per order of the President.
S. G. FOLSOM, Sec'y.

NAVAL.—A letter received here from Commander Sinclair, of the U. S. sloop Vandalia, dated January, 1, 1858, states that his vessel made the passage from Portsmouth, N. H., to Rio Janeiro in thirty days, beating everything that sailed about the same time. The Vándalia would leave Rio for the Pacific in a few days.

☞ We heard a flying report that there is to a Chime of Bells in the tower of the North Church. Perhaps somebody's wish was father to the thought. But if the tower is fit for the purpose, a subscription for the object would be well bestowed.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, March 3.

In case State v. Cook a verdict of not guilty was rendered.

State v. Selectmen of Epping is now on trial. This is a case where the selectmen, in March last, refused to strike off from the check-list the name of a man who had not presented his naturalization papers thirty daos before election.—Wells for deft. Bell and Sullivan for State.

Judge Bell cannot be here next week, and as the criminal transactions will consume the remainder of the present week, the Bar have voted not to take up any civil actions at this term.

CINCINNATI, March 2, 9 P. M.—A large Anti-Lecompton meeting is being held this evening at Smith & Dixon's Hall, in the room where Buchanan was nominated for President. Every seat in the room was filled.

Hon. Adam N. Riddle, who presided at the first meeting in this country at which was presented the name of Mr. Buchanan as a candidate for the Presidency, was chosen Chairman.

Hon. Stanley Matthews, U. S. Attorney, is now speaking. He said he was here when the Cincinnati platform was adopted, and he should renew his devotion to popular sovereignty in the place where he was originally affirmed and declared.

He defined popular sovereignty to be the principle that when Congress organizes a Territorial government, they should leave the people who are to live under it, full and free to exercise self-government, so far as was consistent with the Federal Constitution. Let whoever may leave popular sovereignty, I propose to remain on the platform. He contended that slavery was governed by natural laws of climate, soil and products.

He opposed the Lecompton Constitution as outrageous, and looked upon the present Congressional intervention as the vilest tyranny, and as destructive to popular sovereignty; that Kansas had never fairly applied for admission into the Union was a matter that had been decided by the highest Democratic authority, that of Gov. Walker and Secretary Stanton.

THE UTAH ARMY.—The War Department has received despatches from Col. Johnston, dated Jan. 4. By some mistake, the despatches from Col. Johnston for the commanding officers at forts Laramie, Kearney, and Leavenworth, were sent to the headquarters at New York. Col. Johnston's letter to Major Lynde had not reached him, but Gen. Scott says that enough is known from Major Lynde's letter of Dec. 2, to leave no doubt as to the insufficiency of the present means at Fort Laramie for transmitting three months' supplies to Col. Johnston's command.

As it is a matter of absolute necessity that supplies should reach him by the let of June, measures for that purpose have been taken by Gen. Scott.

Col. Johnson, in his letters to Gen. Scott, says that no incident of any military importance has transpired since his last communication, and that the troops are in excellent health and spirits. He expresses fears that he has not sufficient draft animals. The greater number of the soldiers who have been on the sick list, were rendered unfit for duty by being frost-bitten. For this reason Col. Johnston recommends that each man be supplied with a pair of buffalo overshoes.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(Herald correspondence.)—The army bill, which was made the special order for to-morrow, will be taken up in the House, and strenuously urged by the Military Committee. They have presented two reports, one by Mr. Faulkner for three regiments of regulars, and one by Gen. Quitman for five regiments of volunteers. The House will, it is believed, adopt one or the other of these propositions. It is said that the President will send a special message to Congress upon this subject, urging the additional regiments asked for in his message.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The Senate, in executive session to-day, again discussed, without coming to a vote, Mr. Isaac Cook's nomination as postmaster of Chicago.—The difficulty seems to be the result of a complication of his accounts as the former postmaster with his successor, and Mr. Cook offsetting the deficiency in his account with an equal sum due him by the Treasury Department for property purchased of him, and of which the government has taken possession.

BALTIMORE, March 1.—The Maryland Legislature to-day rejected a series of resolutions endorsing Mr. Buchanan on the Kansas question, by forty-four yeas to one nay. The Democrats voted against it on account of the amendment made by the American members.

A STRANGE STATE OF THINGS.—The banks glutted with money, the city with flour, and something like one-fifth of the population dependent on charity.—Journal of Commerce.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.
Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M., ON THE PREMISES,

Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, ESQ., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

AM EXILE.

O, what is life to me,
If all alone I live?
What pleasure can there be
In solitude to strive?

Alone in a foreign land,
Whose tongue I scarcely know;
Where no friends by me stand,
While through this earth I go.

No parents to counsel or advise,
No sister, brother, and no wife;
Alone, from sunset to its rise,
To me what pleasures gives this life?

None. 'Tis a burthen e'en, to me,
To live in this unhappy state;
My prayers, O God, I raise to thee,
To save me for a better fate.

Deliver me and call me home
To thy bright mansions in the skies;
Into thy hands I cheerful fall,
My Saviour, father, and my all.

HILLEH.

"Mother," said a little three year older whose nose had been "put out of joint" by the arrival of a baby brother, "Mother, if the baby should die would it go to Heaven?" "Certainly, my child," responded the parent. "Then I think Heaven is the best place for him!" was the affectionate sister's conclusion.—Boston Post.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the diseases that afflict mankind originated in some form, and consequently these Pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"Your PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Dwight, of New York.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual in the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely believe that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Kner, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with these pills, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have invariably found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. O. Green, of Chicago.

"Your PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Rev. E. Stuart, who preaches on a Floodtown and Midnight in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Temple, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. I have tried our friends here with them, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before taking it I was bald, at the age of forty. My hair has now attained its original color. You can conscientiously recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely careful in selecting the schemes—Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling schemes. Every inducement is held out to get persons to buy worthless tickets. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their tickets, and with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets, $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries offering Capital Prize in unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets. In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawing; all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawing are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, it you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signatures of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriant by the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofulous humors of the head and all eruptions; makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all nervous and neuralgic headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might have sold a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced one or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resp'ly,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer you were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effect was so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE A. HOUSTON,
SARAH A. HOUSTON.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be held on the second Saturday in the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme no one ticket in a ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of numbers on each drawing, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the mind. Prizes vary from $50 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and resultant drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the corresponding ticket, can be printed to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. France & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets in Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of numbers on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combinations. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are last fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned, DR. CHEESEMAN'S FORMULA, to sell, whether MAIDS, WIVES, OR WIDOWS, that DR. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are ALONE the certain panacea for the his troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correct the irregular menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to return to the drooping, especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—NOW, WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that WHEREAS but the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—and by promoting that said Proclamation in one case must be considered FEES, and VOTES; that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized instruments, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring he tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower one being an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by the coupling of the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficient to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1600 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church instrument, with or without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument, equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee the entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine our instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS, from our manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

GAS—LIGHT FOR ALL.

Coal Gas ought to be a convenient and economical light. Every house in our city—and in most towns—ought to be lit with it, and while the Company should be prosperous, the people should be satisfied that the Company is furnishing a good and cheap light for stores, and dwellings. Great dissatisfaction at times arises from increase of bills without apparent cause, and blame is often attached to the Gas Company by the consumer. May not some difficulty be avoided by a knowledge of the mode by which the manufacturer can take advantage of the consumer, as well as a knowedge of the proper management by the consumer of his burners? If there are complaints we should know the true ground upon which they are based.—There is one fact that we think will be established, viz., the better the light—the more brilliant it is—the cheaper it is to the consumer.

Gas is a compound of hydrogen and carbon—carbonetted-hydrogen. As hydrogen has no illuminating properties, it requires a certain portion of carbon to give it a brilliant light, and the brilliancy of the flame is owing to its proper quantity of carbon, as well as the exclusion of other improper admixtures. If hydrogen is in excess, the volume of gas is increased, but the illuminating powers are diminished. In this condition the gas passes through the burner in greater quantity, from the diminished specific gravity, and may be said to be thinner. The light will be a bluish color, and the heat of the flame greatly increased. Now here is a poor light at a greater cost than a good one, for the manifest reason that if it had been the heavy carbide of hydrogen—the olefiant gas—it would not pass from the burner so readily, its specific gravity being greater and its consumption slower, with more flame and less heat.

The quality of gas depends in some degree upon the kind of coal, but the disposition and management of the manufacturer has more to do with it than the quality of coal used. The coal is placed in retorts for distillation, and in a few hours the olefiant gas, or heavy carbide of hydrogen, is exhausted; when this is the case, the manufacturer should be satisfied. But the coal now remaining contains a large quantity of hydrogen, or light carbide of hydrogen, and the bulk of gas can be greatly increased, while the quality is greatly diminished, by continuing the process.

Again, excessive heat may convert the tar which should condense and pass off, into this light carbide of hydrogen, or by too great heat the heavy carbide is converted into the light by precipitating the carbon, producing the same results.

To show the practical working of these processes, a ton of coal will produce 9000 feet of good gas, but by the above expedient, it may be made to produce three thousand feet more, affording the consumer the opportunity of fattening his stock by two or three thousand feet in every ton of coal employed by the manufacturer at the works!

There are other means of degenerating the quality of gas; as, for instance, when the retorts are not sufficiently protected from the air, the coke will be converted into carbonic oxide and pass into the gasometer along with the nitrogen, the principal constituent of the atmosphere. This produces a feeble power in the flame, and is distinguished by the yellowness of its color.

There are some facts in relation to the metre that should be known. It is rather difficult, without a drawing, to illustrate the principle of the metre. The revolutions of the wheel are indicated by proper machinery, and the capacity of the boxes filled with gas and discharged in consumption, is thus ascertained. The only difficulty in the operation and correctness of the register arises from the fact that sometimes the mouth of the box, instead of just dipping into the alcohol, is at times half immersed, and displaces a large proportion of gas at every turn. Thus the manufacturer may from the ignorance or neglect of his employees, or from design—which, we presume, is very seldom the case—damage the consumer of gas very considerably.

Take all sorrow out of life, and you take away all richness, and depth, and tenderness. Sorrow is the furnace that melts selfish hearts together in love.

HAPPY OLD MAN.—Grant Thornburn is a sensible old man. On the 18th inst. he wrote as follows from New Haven:—

"I have lived another year in this falsely-so-called miserable world. I verily believe it is the best world, terrestrial, that ever God Almighty made. I have never felt head, heart nor tooth ache during the year just gone by; and this day I enter upon my eighty-fifth year. I walk without a staff, and eat my food without brandy or bitters. I never was drunk in my life, and never had a rheumatic pain. I voted three years when Washington was President. I lived twenty-two years under George III.; saw the whole reign of George IV., William VI., and Victoria thus far. I was intimate with Hamilton, Jay, Morris, old Governor Clinton, and other prominent actors in the revolution."

EARLY RISING.—Rubens rose regularly at four, and made it a law of his life to commence the day by prayer; after which he went to work, and before breakfast made those beautiful sketches known by the name of breakfast sketches—always having in the house an educated person, who read to him Livy, Plutarch, or Virgil. As work was his great happiness, he was very abstemious, that he might not be prevented painting all day. He worked on till five, when he mounted his favorite horse, and rode round the ramparts at Antwerp; at his return, he found his friends assembled to supper. His chief relaxation was riding, or studying his fine collection of gems, or reading; and as he painted everything from nature, and painted horses often, he had some of the finest breed in his stable. He rarely visited, except when requested to do so by artists, in whose works he always found something to praise.

AT DAWN.

Lo! the crimson moon, above
The long, low clouds that throng the west,
Thrilleth them through, as a smile of love
Thrilleth the dark, despairing breast!
But as fades that smile from a beautiful face,
So fades the golden moon away;
While the ashen twilight wanes apace,
And ushers in the conquering day.
—William Winter.

TOBACCO.

But whether on the ocean or the land,
Abroad, at home, in wealth or poverty,
Learned or simple, busy or at ease,
Avoid that popular, seductive weed
Which man alone, with one vile worm besides,
Could ever eat: tobacco—nauseous name!
Too base to feed a starving whelp withal.
Eschew, but chew it not; nor snuff, nor smoke
The vile narcotic. Give it to the dog
That has devoured his master; to the toad
To make his venom of; to spiders, snakes
And vipers, if ye will;—but give to man,
The only being of celestial aim,
Beneath the sun, some purer aliment,
Less fitted to degrade him to a brute!

BRANDY AND WATER COMPLIMENT.—Louisville Prentice calls New York Bennett a "scoundrel of the first water," because he supports the administration. Bennett thinks that if he should return the compliment, he would be under the necessity of calling Prentice a "scoundrel of the first brandy and water."

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and successes. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R.H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. In every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1858.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Seward of New York delivered an elaborate speech on Kansas affairs, and against the Lecompton Constitution. We give a full synopsis of it in another column. Mr. Thompson of New Jersey replied, contending that the Lecompton Constitution was the expression of the will of the people of Kansas;—and saying;—If the Free State party have as large a majority as is pretended, they can change any obnoxious features in the Constitution; but if they are in a minority, they must submit like good citizens to the will of the majority.

In the House of Representatives, the bill from the Senate, authorizing the President "to appoint any officers affected by the action of the Naval Retiring Board to their former places," was debated all day, and passed by a majority of sixty-one votes.

SENATOR SEWARD'S SPEECH.

In the United States Senate, March 3d, the special assignment, being the bill for the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, was taken up, and Mr. Seward addressed the Senate.

The following is an abstract of his remarks.

Mr. Seward said that the question of slavery in the federal territories, which are the nurseries of future States, independently of all its moral and humane elements, involves a dynastical struggle of two antagonistical systems, the labor of slaves and the labor of freemen, for mastery in the federal Union. One of these systems partakes of an aristocratic character; the other is purely democratic. Each one of the existing States has staked, or it will ultimately stake, not only its internal welfare, but also its influence in the federal councils on the decision of that contest. Such a struggle is not to be arrested, quelled, or reconciled, by temporary expedients or compromises. He said that the admission of a new State is not even necessarily, or even customarily attended by other embarrassments or alarms. We have already admitted eighteen new States without serious commotions, except in the cases of Missouri, Texas, and California. We are even now admitting two others, Minnesota and Oregon; and those transactions go on so smoothly that only close observers are aware that we are thus consolidating our dominion on the shores of lake Superior, and almost at the gates of the Arctic Ocean. It is manifest that the apprehended difficulties in the present case have some relation to the dispute concerning slavery, which is raging in the territory of Kansas. Yet it must be remembered that nine of the new States which have been admitted expressly established slavery or tolerated it, and nine of them forbade it. The excitement, therefore, is due to peculiar circumstances. He thought there were three of them, namely:—

First—That whereas in the beginning, the ascendancy of the slave States was absolute, it is now being reversed.

Second—That whereas heretofore the national government favored this change of balance from the slave states to the free States, it has now reversed this policy and opposes the change.

Third—That national intervention in the territories in favor of slave labor and slave States, is opposed to the natural, social and moral developments of the republic.

In arguing these propositions, Mr. Seward said that Nebraska was resigned to free labor without a struggle, and Kansas became a theatre of the first actual, national conflict between slaveholding and free labor immigrants, who met face to face to organize, through the machinery of republican action, a civil community. In this first hour of trial the new system of popular sovereignty signally failed,—failed because it is impossible to organize by one single act in one day, a community perfectly constituted, out of elements, unassimilated, unarranged and uncomposed. Free labor rightfully won the day. Slave labor wrested the victory to itself by fraud and violence. In speaking of the opinion pronounced by the Supreme Court of the United States, in the Dred Scott case, Mr. Seward said—"In this ill-omened act it forgot its own dignity, which had always been maintained with just judicial jealousy. They forgot that the province of a court is simply 'jus dicere,' and not at all 'jus dare.' They forgot, also, that one foul sentence does more harm than many foul examples, for the last do but corrupt the stream, while the former corrupts the fountain.'" And they and the President alike forgot that judicial usurpation is more odious and intolerable than any other among the manifold practices of tyranny.

Having traced, step by step, the history of Kansas affairs, Mr. Seward then gave a concise account of the national intervention in the territories, in favor of slave labor and slave States, since 1820, adding, "No wonder that the question before us excites apprehension and alarm. There is, at last, a north side of this chamber; a north side of the chamber of representatives; a north side of the Union, as well as a south side of all these. Each of them is watchful, jealous and resolute. If it be true, as has so often been asserted, that this Union cannot survive the decision by Congress of a direct question involving the adoption of a free State into this Union, which will establish the ascendancy of free States under the Constitution, and draw after it the restoration of the influence of freedom in the domestic and foreign conduct of the government, then the day of dissolution is at hand."

The Supreme Court of the United States attempts to command the people of the United States to accept the principle that one man can own other men, and that they must guaranty the inviolability of that false and pernicious doctrine. The people of the United States never can, and they never will, accept principles so unconstitutional, and so abhorrent. Never, never. Let the court recede; whether it recede or not, we shall reorganize the court, and thus reform its political sentiments and practices, and bring them into harmony with the Constitution and with the laws of nature. In doing so, we shall not only re-assume our own just authority, but we shall restore that high tribunal itself to the position it ought to maintain, since so many inalienable rights of citizens, and even of States themselves, depend upon its impartiality and its wisdom.

"If you," Mr. Seward said, "attempt to coerce Kansas into the Union under the Lecompton Constitution, the people of that territory will resort to civil war if necessary. You are pledged to put down that revolution by the sword. Will the people listen to your voice amid the thunders of your cannon? Let but one drop of the blood of a free citizen be shed there by the Federal army, and the countenance of every representative of a free State, in either house of Congress, will blanche and his tongue will refuse to utter the vote necessary to sustain the army in the butchery of his fellow citizens.

All parties in this country that have tolerated the extension of slavery, except one, has perished for that error already. That last one, the Democratic party is hurrying on irretrievably toward the same fate. A pit, deeper and darker, is still opening to receive this administration, because it sins more deeply than its predecessors."

Mr. Seward, in closing his elaborate speech, said—"I have always believed, Mr. President, that this glorious federal constitution of ours is adapted to the inevitable expansion of the empire, which I have so feebly presented. It has been perverted often by misconstruction, and it has yet to be perverted many times and widely, hereafter; but it has inherent strength and vigor, that it will cast off all the webs which the overchanging interests of classes may weave around it. If it fails us now, it will, however, not be our fault, but because an inevitable crisis, like that of youth, or of manhood, is to be encountered by a constitution proved to be inadequate to the trial. I am sure that no patriot, who views the subject as I do, could wish to evade or delay the trial. By delays we could only extend slavery at the most, throughout the Atlantic regions of the continent. The Pacific slope is free, and it always must and will be free. The mountain barriers that separate us from that portion of our empire, are quite enough to divide us too widely, possibly to alienate us too soon. Let us become all slaveholding States on this side of those barriers, while only free States are organized and perpetuated on the other side, and then indeed there will come a division of the great American family into two nations, equally ambitious for complete control over the continent, and a conflict between them will ensue, over which the world will mourn, as the greatest and last to be retrieved of all the calamities that have ever befallen the human race."

☞ The Washington correspondent of Forney's Press says:—

"The fate of Lecompton is sealed beyond redemption. The Southern men refuse peremptorily to concur in the Crittenden declaration that the people of Kansas, under the Calhoun Constitution, will have the right to modify and change its provisions previous to the prescribed time of 1864, not to say anything of a condition precedent affixed to the act of admission; and the Northern Democrats who have, up to this time, supported the Administration on this question, will go no further, unless such condition is agreed to and embodied in the law unmistakably.

Strenuous efforts have been exerted day after day to compromise these conflicting and fatal differences, without any apparent, or, indeed, so far as I can learn, without any real success. The consequence seems inevitable that these distractions will weaken the Lecomptonites. Already half of the South Americans, it is stated, are with Walker and Douglas, that the question may be referred back to the people of Kansas, for a fair and final determination.

Hon. Horace F. Clark will, I am told, vote against Lecompton as it is now presented. Other Democrats who opposed Mr. Harris' resolution of inquiry are expected to go with him.

The Kansas Investigating Committee will soon bring before the House the fact of their inability to go on with the duty imposed upon them. Their minutes will be spread before the public, that it may be seen in what manner the order of the House was defeated. Attempts will be made immediately to have an addition of two members to the Committee, to be provided for by resolution, with the members to be added named by the House, instead of by Speaker Orr."

DEATH OF FREEMAN HUNT.—A New York dispatch of March 3d, informs us that Mr. Freeman Hunt, editor of the Merchant's Magazine, died of inflammation of the brain, on the morning of that day. Mr. Hunt was one of the most reliable editors in this country, or elsewhere on commercial matters. He was also a very intelligent and pleasant companion for an hour or a day, as we well remember by his visit here a few years ago. There are few men fitted to fill his place.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Washington Union raves over the defeat of the army bill. It has materially damaged the prospects of Lecompton in the House, as the commissions provided by the bill were intended as bribes.—It will be seen that the administration has become satisfied of the impossibility of carrying Lecompton on its merits, and has agreed to couple it with Minnesota. The Tribune correspondent says the anti-Lecomptonites are full of hope. They claim a gain of two members, and possibly of three more. On the other hand, the administration claims three accessions.—The Courier and Enquirer's correspondent says Seward's bill for reorganization of the Supreme Court finds great favor, and he thinks it will prevail during this Congress, unless the administration actively enter the lists against it. Parties divide upon it not politically, but geographically.

☞ In Washington, 3d inst., the House Kansas Investigating Committee held a meeting. They refused to receive a statement sent in by Gen. Calhoun as evidence, and after some consideration of Kansas affairs adjourned.

A Kansas correspondent of the New York Evening Post, who is said to hold official relations with the administration, says the pro-slavery party give up, and have no intention of renewing the contest with the Free State people. All they now ask is to be pardoned for the mischief they have done, and be permitted to live in the territory.

A Washington despatch to the Philadelphia Press says, a less bitter feeling is apparent between all classes of politicians.—It is seen beyond peradventure that the Lecompton Constitution cannot stand, and are casting about for the proper measure to be adopted by Congress. I have heard that the measure that is proposed and excites most enquiry, is a bill to authorize the territorial legislature of Kansas, which will not expire till November next, to call another Convention.

FREE BLACKS.—New Orleans, March 3. A bill passed the House of Representatives of Louisiana authorizing a company already organized to import 2500 free blacks from the coast of Africa, to be indentured for not less than 15 years.

This is a move to strengthen slavery. But its effects, though they may strengthen it somewhat, in one direction, will weaken and confuse it in others.

☞ A female pauper lately escaped from the third story of the Salem Almshouse, by lowering herself to the ground with the help of bed-cords. She then stole a school-girl's port-monnaie, and when detected swallowed a five-dollar bill, which was part of its contents, after which she was sent to the House of Correction for six months.

CONNECTICUT.—On the 3d, at New Haven, the Democratic State Convention nominated candidates for State officers and endorsed President Buchanan's administration, after some debate and discussion.—The resolutions were adopted under the operation of the previous question.

GOV. WALKER ON KANSAS.—Gov. R. J. Walker's letter to the Indiana Democratic State Convention has been published. The ex-Governor opposes the Lecompton Constitution, and calls upon the people, "the masses composing the true Democracy," to combine against the measure.

☞ In Boston, on Wednesday, in the Insolvent Court, nearly a million more of debts were proved against Lawrence, Stone & Co., bringing the whole amount up to over two millions.

☞ Rev. T. J. Greenwood, of Dover, N. H., has received an invitation to take the pastoral charge of the First Parish in Malden, Mass., made vacant by the resignation of Rev. W. S. Brooks.

NOT A BAD JOKE.—The Lowell News is responsible for the following.

"The Right —— in the Right Place." The devil seems to have taken the post of editor-in-chief of the Boston Courier; for the associates of that sheet remark—"The Father of Lies seems to be at present in the ascendant among us."

DOVER POLICE COURT.—Feb. 22d.—John F. Brawn, keeping open saloon on the Sabbath, fined $5 and costs. Appealed.

John F. Brawn, selling liquor, found guilty, gave bonds to appear before Supreme Court in March.

25th.—Daniel Tate and wife, fast driving and disorderly conduct in the streets, wife discharged, he found guilty, fined $4 and costs.

26th.—Seth Rowe, selling liquor in Barrington, three complaints, convicted on all. Committed.

☞ George H. Stewart of Philadelphia has paid $100 for the first choice of a seat at Mr. Everett's Lecture on Charity.

An old "Elizabeth shilling" bearing date 1561, was passed at a store in Hartford, a few days since, by an Irish girl.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REMEMBER THIS!

Nearly all diseases arise from viscid humors, and any Medicine to be an effectual remedy must strike at the root and produce a change.—Numerous (so called) alteratives are known to and prescribed by our Physicians with much effect. But it is acknowledged by the first Physicians of the age—Professor Ives, Dr. D. A. Tyler and others—that the Rock Rose (Helianthemum Canadense) is superior to anything in the Materia Medica as an alterative, and so great has been the interest manifested in it that Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, published a Dissertation in order to lay before the Medical Profession the virtues of a plant destined to effect a radical change in their practice. Myers' Extract Rock Rose is the only reliable preparation, and has already in Scrofulous and Bilious diseases effected cures that surprised its most ardent friends.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!!

AN OLD NURSE FOR CHILDREN.

DON'T fail to procure MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on Earth. No mother who has ever tried Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children will ever consent to let her child pass through the distressing and critical period of teething without the aid of this invaluable preparation. Life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of Bottles of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.—None genuine unless the fac simile of "Curtis & Perkins" is on the outside wrapper.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Sold by DAVID KIMBALL, No. 38 Market Street and by Druggists generally. july21d&wly

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

General Agents in Boston, BURR, FOSTER & Co., No. 1 Cornhill; and GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston.

Sold in Portsmouth by JOS. HAVEN THACHER, Druggist.

And sold by Druggists throughout the United States and British Provinces.

The Great English Remedy.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada
JOB MOSES,
(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

A Revolution in the Hunting World!

Hunters, Trappers, Backwoodsmen and Farmers,

Arouse to your Interests!

VIGILANCE SUPERCEDED & DANGER AVOIDED,
WITH
BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barrels discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Mink, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

LOCAL.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING.

There will be a meeting for Prayer and Conference, in the Chapel of the Middle Street Church, this evening, at 7 o'clock.

There is to be a meeting for Prayer and Conference in the brick Vestry on Fleet street, at 7 o'clock this evening.

There is to be a Prayer Meeting in the vestry of the Methodist Church, this evening, beginning at 7 o'clock.

There is to be a Communion Lecture at the Court Street Chapel,—to commence at half past 7 o'clock this evening.

The Monthly Conference of the Christian Church will be held in the Temple Vestry, at 2 o'clock, P.M., and at 7 o'clock this evening.

☞ Mr. Sinclair is to lecture on temperance on Sunday evening in the Temple. An admission fee of three cents, at the door, to pay expenses. The door to be open at half past six; services begin at a quarter past seven, with singing and prayer. Then the address, and pledge circulated.

PLEDGES.—As a matter of interest at the present time, we republish the following pledge.

Portsmouth Washingtonian Pledge.

"The members of this society agree that they will never again drink any intoxicating liquors, except when prescribed by a a medical attendant, and that they will not provide them for their friends or for persons in their employ; and that they will in all suitable ways, discountenance the use of them in the community;—and above all, that they will use their utmost endeavors to reclaim and restore to temperance, those who are unfortunately addicted to drunkenness.

Band of Hope Pledge.

I ——— do solemnly promise to abstain from all intoxicating liquors of every name or kind, and not to furnish them to others, as a beverage.

ROUTE TO SALT LAKE CITY.—St. Louis, March 1.—The Leader learns from Father Desmet, a Catholic missionary, who has spent many years among the Indian tribes, that on either slope of the Rocky Mountains there is a perfectly practicable and easy route north from Salt Lake to the British possessions. Father D. has travelled the route several times with light wagons. He gives it as his conviction that if the Mormons leave their present location, they will proceed northward to New Caledonia, British America, and settle at the base of the Portaga Mountains, near the 49th parallel. The route is described in detail; the country and climate are stated to be eminently superior in every respect to that of Utah. The Leader calls the special attention of the War Department and the public to its article.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Miss Sarah L. Lewis, one of the teachers in the primary department of the Public School in West Eighteenth street, near 8th Avenue, was yesterday so severely burned that there is very little hope of her recovery. Her clothes caught fire from the stove during school hours, and the children rushed frantically from the building, crying fire.—Great excitement prevailed for a time among the people in the vicinity, who thought the building was on fire. None of the children were seriously injured.

Accounts from Kansas per mail state that 130 Missourians have mustered at Baineville, and were threatening all the Free State settlers in the valley of the Little Osage. The report says it is their intention to sack and burn the houses, hang every person identified with the Kansas militia, and extirpate every Free State person in that vicinity. A force of dragoons has gone to Fort Scott.

☞ The people of Portland, Me., were startled on Wednesday by two distinct shocks of an earthquake,—one occurring about 1 o'clock, P. M., and the other, and much heavier, a few minutes before 2.—This shock was so severe as to shake buildings. It was the most sensibly felt in the heart of the city.—Even the massive granite building, the Custom House, trembled from the shock, as the inmates at the time declare.

FIRE IN SACO.—The dwelling house and barn in Saco, owned and occupied by Marcus Watson, publisher of the Weekly Gazette, Biddeford, were burned on Tuesday night. Mr. Watson's buildings were burned two years ago. The printers in Biddeford and Saco seem to be specially and severely afflicted.

LARCENY.—M. J. Trafton was arrested in Portland a day or two since, for larceny of a lot of pills from Dr. Ayer, of Lowell. Trafton formerly worked for Dr. Ayer, and took that occasion to steal the pills, which he has since been peddling in Maine. He has been taken to Lowell for examination.

☞ Rev. E. H. Greeley, late of Haverhill, was installed pastor of the Pearl street Congregational Church in Nashua, on Wednesday, the 27th ult. Sermon by Prof. Park of Andover.

☞ Rev. C. Russell, late of Bradford, has removed to Littleton, where he has engaged as the stated supply of the Congregational church.

THE COURTS ABOVE AND BELOW.

When Orpheus visited the shades below,
And played the fiddle in the realms of woe,
The stone of Sisyphus, half-way up hill,
Rested awhile; Ixion's wheel was still,
Then Tantalus his thirst no longer felt,
The furies even were constrained to melt,
Pluto forgot the roost he had to rule,
And for a season, Phletegon was cool.
In modern phrase, Old Nick, and all his crew,
Forbore their occupation to pursue. [tide,
So when our princess, whom good luck be-
Became the heir of Hohenzollern's bride,
Did chancery proceedings intermit, [sit,
Queen's bench and common pleas refuse to
Exchequer's court its business also stay:
And all the lawyers took a holiday,

TEMPERANCE MEETING AT FRANCESTOWN,

March 17th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

In accordance with the "plan of action" adopted at the late meeting of the New Hampshire Temperance Society, there will be a meeting of the friends of Temperance at the above named place, from the following towns, viz: Manchester, Bedford, Goffstown, Weare, New Boston, Hillsboro, Deering, Antrim, Bennington, Francestown, Greenfield and Hancock.

Temperance Societies in the above named towns are invited to send delagates, and the friends of Temperance in general are invited to attend. The object of the meeting is to awaken an interest in this cause, and to make arrangements for town and neighborhood meetings.

ISAAC WILLEY, Chairman Tem. Com.
March 4, 1857.

☞ Mr. Sinclair, the temperance lecturer has the following engagements.

New Hampshire.—Chester, Wednesday, March 10; New London, Thursday, March 11th.

Massachusets.—South Walpole, Sunday March 14th; Wareham, Monday, March 15; Foxboro, Tuesday, March 16.

Maine. — Ellsworth. Calais, Bangor, Augusta, Bath, and Bethel, from the 18th to 23d March.

Any counties or districts in New Hampshire or Maine, wanting his services after that date will address him at Boston, Temperance Rooms, 11 Cornhill.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The municipal election yesterday passed off quietly, and the vote was the largest ever polled. The entire Republican ticket was elected by an average majority of one thousand.

MARRIED.

In Exeter, Warren Webster, of Dracut, Mass, to Angeline Batchelder.

In Hampton, Joseph Greenleaf, of Exeter, to Mary James—John J Brown, of Hampton Falls, to Mary G Robinson of Exeter.

DIED.

In this city, March 3d, Miss Elizabeth S Rice, aged 25 years.

In Kittery, Feb 26, Edwin Carleton Neal, aged 7 months, son of William and Mary E Neal.

In Manchester, Mariah B Moore, aged 24.

In Monroe, Mrs Hannah J Dutton, aged 23, wife of Henry E Dutton.

Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and M'Clary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 36 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 49 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settee; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do.; 36 Looking Glasses; 36 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattrasses; Palm Leaf and Husk do; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Time Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Painted, Pencilled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves; A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware; Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

SALERATUS.

None now can make a shortened cake,
So good as could my mother,
And I think I know why it is so,
As well as any other—
Because, since then some wicked men,
With a kind of apparatus,
Have made a stuff the bread to puff,
And called it Saleratus.
Don't ask us why so many die;
That any live is surprising—
Since now our food is made of wood,
And salt is used for "rising."
I hope the cooks (with their good looks)
Will not exterminate us
With cake and pie mixed up with lie,
Reduced to Saleratus.
May every pot in which they've got
The stuff, be burst to atoms;
May every tin in which it's been,
Be minus top and bottom;
May every store on sea or shore,
(What else could more elate us?)
By fire or flood, or in the mud,
Lose all its Saleratus.
And now, ye fair, I little care
What else may be the diet;
Though made of rye and hard and dry,
The big brown loaf, I'll try it;
With cabbage "biled" and turnips piled,
You're welcome to come at us;
Yes, anything but poisoning
With noxious Saleratus.

There have been a few lives that like pure white doves, were ever flying with music in their wings, between earth and heaven.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Dr. Clark's Celebrated Pills are now prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so effectually, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, so healthy sorrow snow through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been protracted with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering frame straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in torment. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted themselves in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases where the mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every male from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness wasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now health again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat pain sits from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful tale of the damage which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these diseases, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as give you, and the health-giving, life-giving virtues they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years, during which every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were given up by their friends, and much of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to disease in the lungs and throat. Have a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hard cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The coughs, colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may know where there is the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. $20,000 in capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is as much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Scarcely all of Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—in every instance where large prices are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which pretend to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, it you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Private Certificate Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as carefully protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before that day will be in time to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing.

Let the whole world understand and remember, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the week, and if no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and are carried by combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are last fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and knavish are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, gentlemen, or women, that Dr. Cannan's FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain pancer for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone correcting all painful obstructions, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more esteemed by the man or woman, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral substances perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, we warn the unwary against the fatal PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS! Ladies, ye fair, will cease this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered, and one year; that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing the price to the Consulting Chemist, Box No. 4531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston,

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower one tuning an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by the use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, but is arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument not equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Committees of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine for themselves the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallet & Davis,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing, at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

☞ A New York letter to the Boston Journal, gives the following items on religion and shipping.

Some thrilling instances of marked conversions have taken place. We had a common Council here a few years ago, one of the most marked that has existed for a long time. It was called the "Common Scoundrels," and sometimes the "Forty Thieves," as that was the number of the Council. One of the most notorious was arraigned and indicted and was pardoned by the Executive. Last week that man arose in the daily prayer meeting—made a confession of his former guilt, and professed to be converted to God. As he was well known in this city as a hard case, his address made a marked sensation. Over fifty thousand conversions are reported to have taken place in this country the past week. One of our religious papers in its items of intelligence names over one thousand.

Business is dull, and little prospect presents itself of a better state of things at present. The shipping interest is particularly dull. Vessels now sell for one-half of their value, and little sale at that. An elegant clipper ship that cost $75,000. and is but two years old, was sold on Saturday last, for the sum of $35,000; and one that cost $65,000 sold for $25,000.

GRAIN AT THE WEST.—A private letter from Springfield, Ill., says: "Our grain still lies unmoved, for the want of money and buyers. The country is full to the brim of corn, which has no price set upon it. Our farmers have a good prospect for their next crop of wheat. It never looked better at this season of the year."

It is stated that there are about one million bushels of wheat in store, and about sixty thousand barrels of flour at Chicago. Wheat is selling at 53 a 55 cents. It is the general opinion that two million bushels of grain will be ready there for transportation upon the opening of navigation.

A MISSOURI SPURGEON.—During a revival in the Baptist Church at Lagrange, a lad 17 years old, who had acquired some notoriety in the town as a theatrical performer, joined the church and prepared himself for the ministry. He has recently been licensed, and has entered upon his clerical duties, and so wonderful are his powers that the whole community is in ecstacies with his efforts. When he preaches the church is crowded; persons from all the country round about flock to hear him, and the oldest veterans declare that they never before listened to such thrilling eloquence. The name of the "boy preacher" is J. B. Fuller.—Detroit Advertiser.

THIRTY-NINE LIVES LOST.—A despatch from Mobile states that the steamboat Eliza Battle was burned at Kemp's Landing, near Demopolis, Ala., on Monday evening. Thirty-nine lives were lost, and 1200 bales of cotton were destroyed.—Among the lost was the Rev, Mr. Merriam, of Louisville, Ky. Many of the sufferers were frozen in the water.

Mr. Beecher,—in his lecture on Wit, says:—

"When men laughed they swam in one common stream, burying all distinctions of rank beneath its jovial waves; and he knew, from experience, that wit properly applied was capable of effecting what argument and reason had often failed to accomplish."

In going up to Buffalo, the other day, the coupling between two of the cars broke. This of course broke the bell cord which passes through the cars. The train immediately stopped. An old lady asked: "What's the matter?" "The coupling has broken, marm." The old lady, looking at the broken bell cork, said, "Don't wonder, if they tie the cars together with such pesky string as that."

An old woman told her son to list the door, in order to keep the wind out. "That would make it worse, mother," he replied, "for you know the wind bloweth where it listeth."

We are curious to know how many feet a female arithmetic, go to a mile, because we never met with a lady yet whose shoes were not, to say the very least, a mile too big for her.

A girl—a fashionable girl—has got to be an artificial production, when nobody, we firmly believe, can make the genuine article, but He who made Eve and the Angels.

It would seem that the flowers—those holiday thoughts of God—might have been made on the Sabbath without breaking its rest.

"The present scarcity of money," said a young husband to his wife, "is owing to me." "You are right, my dear; it is because there is so much 'owing' to, and so little 'paying' to."

Modesty, were it to be recommended for anything else, leaves a man at ease, by proving to little; whereas vain glory requires perpetual labor to appear what one not.

☞ A young lady named Fifield committed suicide in East Plainfield, N. H., lately, by taking poison. Rumor assigns disappointed love to have been the cause.

FOR THE BOYS.—Two boys own sixty apples, and each taking thirty, one sells his at the rate of three for a cent, and the other at the rate of two for a cent, realizing twenty-five cents for the sale. Another boy also has sixty apples. He sells his at five for two cents—apparently at precisely the same rate of the other two—but he is astonished to find that while they have twenty-five cents, he has only twenty-four. How many boys can tell us how it happens that such is the result? It is a question which puzzled us mightily when we were a boy. It puzzles a good many boys of the present day, to our certain knowledge.—Nashua Telegraph.

Eleven slaves recently escaped from Key West in the U. S. Lighthouse boat, which they stole. It is thought by some that they must all have perished in the attempt to cross the Gulf.

HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent-granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undesigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

ON MONDAY EVENING, March 8th, Hon. JOHN P. HALE will address the people of Portsmouth and vicinity at the Temple. Gen. CULVER of New York, J. L. Swift of Mass. and some other speakers have also been invited.

WINTER.—The severest snow storm of the season commenced on Monday night, March 1st, and continued through the forenoon of Tuesday, covering the ground to the depth of five inches.—The weather has since been cold. Previous to this, but nine inches had fallen during the winter. We have not had snow enough during the three months to give one day of good sleighing; and there has not been five days when wheels were not better than runners for travelling.

The mean temperature of the three winter months was about 27.65 above zero, which was 4 degrees warmer than last year, and warmer than the winters previous of this century.

In Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, a petition was received for the widening of Peaballow street, at the corner of Bow. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Voted to purchase 200 feet Grenoble Hose for Engine Co. No. 4.

Eli S. Prescott, Esq. recently of Chicago, and formerly of Epsom in this State, has purchased and taken the occupancy of the beautiful seat of Washington Williams, Esq., North street, in this city.

THE PORTSMOUTH STEAM FACTORY will start up, full time, on Monday, March 29. A meeting of the Directors was held Friday forenoon, and a vote passed to this effect.

LOWELL.—The appropriations of the City Council of Lowell, for the expenses of the current year, amount to $172,000, being $20,000 more than last year. Of the amount $56,000 is for schools, $20,000 for streets, $18,000 for the fire department, $14,000 for paupers, $12,000 for police, $10,000 for salaries, $10,000 for city debt, $9,000 for interest, and $6,000 for lighting.

ARREST OF A CONFIDENCE MAN.—Immense haul of counterfeit money.—A man named Hess Wheeler, well known to the police, was arrested Wednesday by officer Ball, in New York, for doing a New Hampshire man, named Philbrick, from Rye, out of $30, by a confidence game.—Upon searching the prisoner, several drafts upon the Shoe and Leather Bank, signed by E. G. Spencer, were found, together with $20,814 worthless bills on the City Trust Banking Company.

☞ Commodore Perry died in New York on Thursday morning, at 2 o'clock, aged 63.

Woman! "with all thy faults," (and their name is legion!) "I love thee still," as Socrates said to Xantippe!

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 1858.

CONGRESS.—The Senate, Thursday, resumed the consideration of the Kansas bill, and, after speeches from Messrs. Hammond of S. C., and Doolittle of Wis., adjourned to Monday.

Mr. Hammond took the Lecompton constitution for a legal instrument, even if it embodied but the will of the minority of the people of Kansas. But,—he said—the true object of the opponents of the Lecompton Constitution was the agitation of the slavery question. They wanted to introduce an element of discord into the Democratic party. It is singular that, while claiming a majority in Kansas, they should be beaten at every election. In discussing the question of slavery, Mr. Hammond spoke of the prosperity of the South, and said that the condition of the slave was better than that of the poor white laborer at the North. There were more beggars to be met with in a single day, in New York, than during a life-time at the South. He closed by saying that if the South was obliged to surrender the government, after sixty years, they would surrender it with a country abundant in prosperity, incalculable in strength, and the wonder and admiration of the world.

This is a rich extract, about the country's being governed by the South; and it comes too near the truth for a joke.

In the House, the first business was announced to be the resolution of Mr. Hoard of N. Y., in relation to executive influence on the action of members. Mr. Hoard proposed an amendment, charging the President with endeavoring to control the action of the House in reference to the Lecompton Constitution. After debate between Mr. Hoard and others, the subject was laid on the table by a vote of 92 to 80.

Mr. Quitman of Miss., then called up his bill, authorizing the organization of five regiments of volunteers, and proceeded to advocate it. Pending the consideration of the bill, the House adjourned.

SENATOR TOOMBS, from the Committee on the Judiciary, will give notice of a bill for a general and uniform system of bankruptcy in the United States, for the protection of creditors, the relief of insolvent debtors, and to regulate the commercial intercourse of different States, including banks, and all corporations; and as near as I can now ascertain, it will contain a clause that both individuals and corporations are to pay their debts or become bankrupt. There can be no more suspension of specie payment by the banks. It will, no doubt, provide with care against all frauds or preferences, and compel an honest division of all bankrupt property among the creditors.

That Senator Toombs will bring in a bill, aming at all these results, we doubt not.—But the things themselves, are easier told of than done, many of them. We predicted, two or three years ago, the urging of a bankrupt law, to settle the bankruptcies which every thinking and observing man saw must come. It is not certain that this bill will pass, now,—but some measure of the kind will be adopted, before many years.

WHAT IS FAME?—said Uncle Toby the other day, when some youngster made the astounding discovery and disclosure of his being a pretended temperance man and a very black man. Now Patrick Rafferty, Esq., may sympathize with him on the doubt about his name. Some blunderhead of a printer, (botheration to him entirely,) printed his name on some handbills, P. Raftery, Esq. These bills were carried over the State and stuck up,—from this the papers got the error, and Patrick Raftery has been commended by papers knowing so little of the Irish as not to know that Rafferty is an Irish name, and Raftery is not.

V. B. PALMER, Esq., the pioneer and founder of the great system of newspaper and advertising agencies throughout this country, has retired from the agency in Boston, and Mr. S. R. Niles has succeeded to the business. Mr. Niles has been in Mr. Palmer's Boston office for over eight years, and has had the sole charge of the business nearly all that time. He has not only won the entire confidence of all with whom he has had business transactions, but the respect and friendship of his employer. We are confident that those who entrust their business to him, will find him prompt, reliable, and faithful to their interest.

SOAPS.—We have received from Messrs. E. Davis & Co., of Cambridgeport, Mass., a package of various kinds of Soaps manufactured by them. The samples show conclusively that we need no longer be dependent on foreign artists for articles in this line, as they are of as high a quality as any imported articles we have ever seen, and unequalled for their delicate fragrance, and softening and cleansing powers. They also manufacture a very fine Saponaceous Dentifrice.

A HAPPY REJOINDER.—While Mr. Collamer was speaking in the Senate on Monday, he turned towards Senator Benjamin, whose seat is near his, and said:

"I observe that the senator from Louisiana is making a suggestion; perhaps it is a very important one."

Senator Benjamin promptly rose and very courteously apologized for the interruption, and said:

"I did not mean to interrupt the senator's remarks in the slightest degree. I was merely suggesting to his colleague that his argument might be turned the other way. If he will reflect a moment he will see that we got Louisiana, all slave territory, and they took half of it; and it was not a very unreasonable thing for the South to ask for half of the Mexican acquisitions, that he says were all free."

Mr. Collamer rejoined as follows:

I have no doubt that the gentleman's ingenuity can turn any argument against any man. The suggestion was more loud perhaps, than was intended; and I did not know but that the gentleman was somewhat in the condition of the lawyer who kept talking loud after the decision of the judge. The judge told him there was no use of arguing after the decision had been made. He said he was not arguing, he was only cussing the decision. [Laughter.]

HOW IT RAVES!—The Washington Union raves on the defeat of the Army Bill, in the following unseemly and savage style:—

"The Senate of the United States have by a very large and decisive vote defeated the proposition for an increase of the U. S. Army. * * * * It is not at all surprising that the black republicans should pursue this course, and that their neophytes who have been recently initiated into their mysteries, and who worship so devoutly now at the dusky shrine where Greely, Abby Kelly, and the Senator from New Hampshire kneel and cry aloud—it is natural enough that this conglomerate brotherhood should pig together in the same sty. But it is worthy of "especial wonder" that democrats should be found to vote persistently with them to defeat the measure of the administration, and in the attempt to force upon it a measure and a policy which would only embarrass it, and which was intended by the majority of its supporters to embarrass it."

☞ It is greatly to be feared that Dr. Leichardt, the Austrian traveller, has shared the fate of Sir John Franklin.—Four thousand five hundred pounds have, however, been voted by the Legislature of New South Wales for the expenses of the proposed expedition to search for him.—Dr. Gregory has volunteered to conduct it, and he entertains some hope that a statement made by a convict, that Dr. Leichardt is a prisoner in the hands of a tribe of Northern Aborigines, may be true.

JUVENILE GUMPTION.—A farmer in Virginia, who had been digging a well, was called away from home, leaving none but two boys on the premises. During his absence a favorite horse by accident got into the well, which was twelve feet deep, and of sufficient diameter to allow the horse standing-room. The boys set their young brains to work to get him out.—Their bill of "ways and means" was almost exhausted, when the youngest, only nine years old, suggested an amendment, which was immediately adopted. Large quantities of straw were convenient, which the boys pitched in to fill the well, the prisoner tramping it down until he could walk right out upon straw bail.

A GHOST.—The good people of Gloucester, in the vicinity of Eastern Point, have, for some time past, been appalled by the appearance of an unearthly light seen in the vicinity of the spot where the Davis tragedy took place last summer. It will be recollected that Davis, a seaman, shot and killed his wife in a fit of jealousy, and afterwards committed suicide. The Telegraph says that, from reports, it seems probable that a luminous body containing a restless soul, has found a place to show itself to the best advantage, though it doesn't believe in ghosts, and only chronicles the fact as local news.

☞ On the 5th of March, at New Haven, the Grand Jury found a bill of indictment against Tuckerman, the mail robber. He is to be tried in April.

The prisoner was then ordered to recognize for his appearance in twenty thousand dollars.

Tuckerman appeared in good health, but considerably excited. He did not obtain bail. His friends urged him to plead guilty, but he stoutly refused.

☞ The New York Stock market continues to be highly inflated. The Herald of Tuesday morning says, "the excitement at the Stock Exchange on Monday exceeded anything of the kind within our recollection. The entire community appears to be completely absorbed in the speculative excitement of the day. At the first board to-day the operations were to an extent never before realized at one session of the board. Nothing approaching it has ever been seen in Wall street.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been the abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being last dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though many may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (Mr. M. Hockinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the state of Ohio or some state in the east, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & Co.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

REMEMBER THIS!

Nearly all diseases arise from viscid humors, and any Medicine to be an effectual remedy must strike at the root and produce a change.—Numerous (so called) alteratives are known to and prescribed by our Physicians with much effect. But it is acknowledged by the first Physicians of the age—Professor Ives, Dr. D. A. Tyler and others—that the Rock Rose (Helianthemum Canadense) is superior to anything in the Materia Medica as an alterative, and so great has been the interest manifested in it that Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, published a Dissertation in order to lay before the Medical Profession the virtues of a plant destined to effect a radical change in their practice. Myers' Extract Rock Rose is the only reliable preparation, and has already in Scrofulous and Bilious diseases effected cures that surprised its most ardent friends.

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir James Clarke M.D., physician extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and, through a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada JOB MOSES, (late I. C. BALDWIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, Mar. 5.

The case of State vs. Selectmen of Epping was commenced on Wednesday afternoon. The Court Room was crowded yesterday to hear the arguments of Wells for defence, and Attorney General Sullivan for State. The Jury came in at nine o'clock last evening, standing four for acquittal and eight for conviction.

The remaining cases on the docket were disposed of this morning, the criminals sentenced, and the Court adjourned sine die.

☞ See advertisement of Furniture, and a variety of other articles, including Sleigh, hay-cutter, etc., at Adams' Auction Room this morning.

☞ SINGULAR EFFECT OF IMAGINATION.—The Albany Journal says that a boy who has had his leg cut off by a locomotive, and is now in the hospital in that city, can feel his toes hitting against the bed post, feel the leg moving about in bed, and a slight pain in the calf, caused by over exertion in riding down hill. He had a corn on one of his toes, and said it pained him very much.

☞ A bill to suppress the issue and circulation of small notes has passed to its third reading in the New Jersey Senate, with an amendment that the bill shall not become operative until similar acts are passed in New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Delaware. "Similar acts" are already in force in the two last named States.

☞ Mr. Steere, formerly of Uxbridge, Mass., a practical manufacturer, has taken the agency of the Salisbury Mills, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Robinson. Mr. Steere entered upon his duties on Monday.

☞ A day or two since, a man named Jas. Brennan, who served in the English army in the Crimea, died at the Massachusetts hospital, from intemperance in drinking, at the early age of 32.

☞ An infant child of Mrs. Hanson, of Palmyra, Me., was smothered a few days since, while its mother was riding a distance of only two miles. Anxious to keep the child from taking cold, they wrapped it up so close as to cause its death.

☞ Last Saturday three hundred persons were engaged in fishing for tom-cods on the ice below the Essex Bridge.

MY FAVORITE NAME.

There is a sweetly simple name,
Which hath a mystic spell;
Unknown to fortune or to fame,
Yet memory guards it well.
'Tis graven deep in letters bright,
Upon that secret scroll [traced—
Where none but Love's blest names are
The tablet of my soul!

I never feel it on my lips
In hours of toil or pain,
But thoughts of peace, like violets smile
When bless'd with April rain.
And oh! enshrined with jealous care,
This talisman within
Has kept me in temptation's hour
From many a snare of sin.

Blest is the heart, to whom a name
So favored has been given,
As hers, which first, on bending knee,
I breathe in prayer to heaven.
For oh! this is the star of thoughts,
Which sheds a light divine—
This name so very dear, will soon
Be garlanded with mine.

—Rowland Brown.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Contrary to the position assumed by Gen. Shields and other prominent gentlemen, the Senate's Committee on the Judiciary have completed a report concluding that Minnesota is not a State in the Union. This denies to Gen. Shields the right which he claims to a seat in the Senate.

Senator Clark (of N. H.,) intends moving an amendment to the Kansas bill, admitting Kansas as a State, on the following conditions:—That the power to amend the Constitution shall be expressly reserved to the people whenever they see proper to do so, and that neither the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution, nor the Constitution itself shall be so construed, or have force to revive or re-enact, after admission, any law or regulation repealed by the Territorial Legislature before the passage of this act, without the re-enactment of the State Legislature of Kansas after admission.

RE-PASTORIZED.—The New York papers state that Matthew Hale Smith is to be settled as pastor of one of the Dutch Reformed Churches in that city!

It is said that the same Mr. Smith is the "Burleigh," who writes letters from New York for the Boston Journal.

THE KANSAS HERALD OF FREEDOM of Jan. 20th, is emphatic in its denunciation of the Lecompton Constitution, and says "when we see no other mode of getting rid of it, but by revolution, we shall wield all the influence we possess, to induce the people to revolutionize, and if necessary to fight the general goverument to finally defeat the damnable usurpation." This does not look much like going over to the federal executive.

NEW HAVEN, March 4.—The Coroner's Jury of Investigation into the facts in relation to the death of Wm. Miles, fireman, shot on the 9th of February in an affray with some students, gave their verdict today. It does not implicate any person in particular, but censures those who declined testifying, by which the jury were unable to obtain all the facts they need.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.—Toronto, C. W., March 4.—Thomas D'Arcy McGee, formerly editor of the Irish News, in New York, but now a member of the Provincial Parliament in Montreal, made his first speech last night in opposition to the Government. It was exceedingly violent.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Times understands that all the U. S. troops in Kansas, except three companies, have been ordered immediately to Utah. A mule train is to leave Fort Leavenworth as soon after the 10th inst. as possible.

WHO IS THE MAN?—The Lowell News says that a New Hampshire man recently caught a pickerel weighing ten and a quarter pounds, which he sent to Major Emery of the Merrimac House, in that city. Tell us who the man is, where he lives, and where he caught the pickerel.—We want to know the whereabouts of this new breed of fish.—Manchester Mirror.

EVERETT'S ORATION.—At the repetition of Mr. Everett's oration, in Richmond, last Friday, one thousand and ninety-five tickets were taken. The net proceeds of the evening were $700, which, added to $1300 received at the Theatre, makes up the noble sum of two thousand dollars, contributed in one week by Mr. Everett's patriotic eloquence to swell the Mount Vernon Fund. The lecture was delivered in a Negro Church, it being the largest in the city.

☞ The Boston police, Thursday night, visited certain gambling shops, and arrested twenty persons.

Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and McClary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 26 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 40 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settee; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do.; 36 Looking Glasses; 26 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattresses; Palm Leaf and Husk do.; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Tine Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Penciled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves;

A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware; Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased. The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

When you become so angry with an opponent or rival in business, that the most you can do is to apply to him an opprobious nickname, you may safely rely on two things. The first is, that you have made yourself beneath contempt; and the second is, that your opponent, unless he belittles himself, as you have done, has got the best of the controversy.

A lawyer in one of the Western courts lately threw a cane at another's head.—The court required him to apologise for it. He did so, and replied:—"While I am about it, I may as well apologise beforehand for throwing another cane at him the first chance I get."

Blessed childhood! Thy shortest life, though but a span, hath yet its mission.—The tiniest babe never laid its velvet cheek on the sod, till it had delivered its Maker's message—heeded not then, perhaps—but coming to the wakeful ear in the silent night watch, long after the little preacher was dust. Blessed childhood!—Fanny Fern.

Horace Greeley was examined by the Tariff Investigating Committee on Saturday. He proved a perfect "know nothing" in regard to the financial question under inquiry.—Boston Courier.

A CORRECT MISNOMER.—We know an old lady who, when she alludes to the leader of the Mormons, always calls him—either unintentionally, or else by a curious jumble of ideas—"Mr. Bigamy Young."—Punch.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Every Chemical Medicine is prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, in health, convince new through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and so cures. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with this complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies pondering on his loathsome disease; see the foul matter pass out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones, move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases where the moral power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face, and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away, want of exercise or mental anguish, or some hurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion; assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look at her, the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat pale and languid, joy and feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Try them; see the nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood, what is nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the model of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured? Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sickness, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Wind in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Rheumatism, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give; and the most inveterate and dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must harrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years, and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were thought beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Everybody any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy that owes its shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes quite as much in prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which enters off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may know where there is information, they contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—Many unprincipled dealers in the boggus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes, with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of ever seeing a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—as every instance in which such prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other lotteries have been decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase only Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right, and in ordering for the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, it you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lottery law is the same in Georgia as in Maryland, the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing published in papers throughout the country.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that the Maryland State Lottery law is the law for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (like the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers:—New Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are last fading away, and WHEREAS, unprincipled pretenders and quacks are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether married or single, or widows, that Dr. CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are acknowledged by the profession for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful obstructions, irregularities, palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity:—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS or DR. CHESEMAN will ever accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and whereas, in consequence of the proclamation to spread amongst them, to their every advantage and benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL AND VOID; that is to say the Pills were not to be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHESEMAN, Box No. 4,231, Post Office, New York city. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mechanic Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and musical. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring his tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or Banks of Keys, the latter running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1600 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an article equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in music, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallet & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent deducted as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worth special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the cost to the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

FELL BY THE WAY.* A travelling representative of the Irish rumselling fraternity from Haydonville, on his way from Springfield to his home, fell asleep, from the effects of his liquor, when about a mile north of Chicopee Falls village, one day last week. His horse stopped, and but for the kindness of a temperance friend, he had slept "the sleep that knows no waking." Sheriff Morton took charge of his person and property, which were brought before Judge Whittaker, and relieved of about nine dollars. Pat said "he had as well died of the cold as to pay so much as a good wake would have cost, and all for nothing at all."—Springfield Republican.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Robert Patten, Esq., of Amesbury, died very suddenly on Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock, of heart complaint, aged 81. Up to within half an hour of his death, Mr. Patten was in his usual health, and though advanced in years had attended to his own business, and to his duties as President of the Powow River Bank. He was for many years a respected citizen of Amesbury.

Mr. Patten commenced life as a brickmaker, afterwards engaged in the tannery business, and was successful in amassing a fortune. His later years have been mainly devoted to the cultivation of the soil, and he was ranked amongst the most succesful of agriculturalists.—Villager.

PASSING AWAY.—Of all the multitudes who served in the army of the revolution, only three hundred and forty-six pensioners remained on the last Fourth of July. Ten per cent. of all the revolutionary pensioners died last year. But the hardy old soldiers must have felt themselves endowed with a new youth, when they came home from the wars, and took to themselves young wives; for there are ten widows of soldiers living where there is one soldier, or four thousand seven hundred and two, to three hundred and forty-six.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Several boys of Amesbury, were brought before Geo. Turner, Esq., on Saturday last, on a charge of insulting a daughter of Mr. Jonathan Cammett, on the Sunday previous. They were sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar each, and cost of court.

There have been frequent complaints, recently, of insulting remarks offered to young ladies as they were passing home in the evening, and we trust the action of the above case will have a salutary effect. —Villager.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove this; none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

TRUNKS.

A GOOD assortment of Trunks, and Ladies' Hat Boxes and Dress Trunks, for sale at the Auction Store, No. 70 State Street.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUDDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,

is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unseasonable frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

MONDAY, MARCH 8, 1858.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24, 1858.

Dear Uncle Toby.—Our last letter having been made the subject of a reproof from yourself, and a sentiment of disapproval from your readers, we would ask your and their attention to a few words in defence of our course.

That letter echoed the censure excited in all candid, liberal minds, against an epistle in the Boston Daily Journal, over the signature of "Burleigh," which was called forth by a celebration of the anniversary of the birth of one Thomas Paine, and purported to give a sketch of his life; and as a display of the inventive powers of the author, does him great credit. It may be well, in order more fully to justify us in our censure of this correspondent, to quote the mention of that anniversary made by another "outside observer," possessing, if I mistake not, a reputation with you for fairness, candor, and respectability, which it richly merits.—Says the Newburyport Herald; "The 29th of Jannary was the 121st anniversary of the birth of Thomas Paine, who, not more perfect than millions of others, is yet to be remembered as a patriot of the Revolution, the associate and friend of Washington and Franklin in that great struggle, and not inferior to either of them in his devotion to freedom.—As years pass away, the failings of men should be more hidden in the tomb than their perishable bodies, while their virtues should be perpetuated by our adoption, till they become immortal like their spirits."

Our intention was not to uphold the career of Paine as an example for emulation.† We defend his character as a firm patriot, and allow him due credit for sincerity in his writings. Our object was to denounce the unfairness of Burleigh in setting before his readers a mass of ridiculous mis-statements, made in the most reckless manner, without quoting any authority to sustain his assertions in direct contradiction of the facts of history. Allowing that popular sentiment is correct in dissenting from the views advanced by Paine, is it not more generous, more Christian-like to confute his reasonings by fair argument,—as has Bishop Watson in his "Apology," the response to Paine's "Age of Reason,"—than by defaming the memory of the author by fixing his mouldering skeleton, a dead man's bones, as a target, and showering upon it a torrent of vindictive abuse, embracing all the scurrilous epithets in the Saxon Vocabulary, and some not found therein also? Let us rather investigate fairly, unbiassed by prejudice, the theories heretofore blindly opposed, and if our theology really possesses the intrinsic strength we claim for it, it will acquire still more stability by an honorable, victorious encounter with its opponents.

You tell us, Uncle Toby, that no amount of whitewash can render fragrant the memory of "poor Paine;" but, if his character needs any adornment or deprecation, is it not more consistent with your ideas of Christian charity to bestow on the deeds of the departed a covering of whitewash,‡ than to darken them by a coat of black paint?

A private correspondent has charged us with upholding atheistical dogmas, for our laudation of Paine's patriotism. Now, allowing for a moment that we had advocated his religious views, (which we were far from doing) the charge of Atheism can easily be refuted by the fact that he was not an Atheist, or any thing akin to it.

But your readers have generally jumped at a conclusion on this point. We lauded Paine as a Patriot, not as a Theologian.—We did not even make the slightest reference to his works or opinions on the subject of religion. Let us suppose that he had been guillotined in the Prison of Luxembourg, and had never given his Age of Reason to the world; consider his previous deeds—his noble efforts in behalf of freedom; remember that Washington, Jefferson and Franklin regarded him as among the best of their fellow laborers,—and then decide whether his name was "worthy of being written side by side with those of the military leaders of that great struggle."

In concluding this part of our vindication we would ask, has the reputation which the people of Portsmouth have sustained for fairness of judgment and liberality of opinion, so far degenerated, that a newspaper correspondent cannot attempt a defence of the dead against the slanders ¶ of the living, without being charged with partaking of and sustaining the peculiar and offensive doctrines which he whose faults we would palliate and whose patriotism we would admire, has tried to establish?

We mentioned, barely mentioned, in our letter, the name of Lola Montez, a lady of whom much has been said and written of late. Her reputation as a lecturer, a traveller, a scholar and a linguist, is familiar to all,—and the gossip of the newspaper world has attributed to her other qualities of unenviable repute. While acknowledging that she is endowed with more masculine boldness and freedom than the prerogative of her sex allows, we assert, on the authority of those who know her best, that her character is as pure and noble ‖ as her talent is brilliant and elevated. The world is as apt, in criticising the doings of the fair sex, to confound the term bold with bad, as they are to render synonymous the characteristics of talent and character.

The closing paragraphs of our letter have been wrongly construed into an attack on the Sabbath, on Christianity, and worship. We own it is perfectly natural ◊ that a reader, wrongly interpreting the preceding portion as an advocation of the principles of infidelity, should by their mutual connection translate the whole as an attack on Christianity. So far from this, we actually favored the rational suppression of Sabbath-breaking, in these words: "A movement in the right direction for improving the morals of the people in this respect, would receive the countenance and support of all lovers and doers of right; but when the project bears on its face the stamp of bigotry and egotism, and an encroachment on our free institutions, it cannot fail to meet with disapprobation."

Being well aware that the N. Y. Herald is regarded in many parts of New England as Satan's own transcript, we shall not venture a defence of it. That its influence is a commodity always in the market, is well known,—how it has obtained that influence, the people can best decide. As for the article which we took the liberty of quoting from its columns, we must, on reconsideration, partially retract (a) our approval of its sentiment, on account of the unqualified and indiscriminate tenor of its wholesale denunciations of the city clergy. Adhering as we do to the good old custom of regular attendence on divine service, we can safely promise Uncle Toby that should he chance to visit this city, we can direct him to a number of churches where he can listen to sermons which will benefit him infinitely more than a walk, or a ride, or a new coat.

It is due to justice to state, as we should have done before, that ministers of the standing of Messrs. Chapin, Bellows, Sawyer, Osgood and others, had no hand whatever in the movement referred to. It was of a sectarian character, and calculated to carry with its accomplishment sectarian influences. As such it was openly denounced by the liberal pulpits—and by the almost unanimous voice of the press. Men of standing and character so strongly disapproved of it, that the report was never circulated to the extent intended.

In endorsing the Herald's article, it was our intention to convey this meaning; that one of the vital causes of Sabbath breaking, is the faultiness of the very ministers who have thus endeavored to force (b) its observance according to their own ideas.—This opinion can be appreciated by those who have been transplanted from the holy influences and associations of a country Sabbath, to be here constrained by custom to spending the sacred hours in listening to the outpourings of sectarian venom with which some of our city clergymen profane and mock the hallowed chastity of the pulpit.

As for "Burleigh," if his true name was more generally known, his antecedents would be sufficient answer to his present efforts. As an old author has quaintly remarked,—"the feathers are often plucked from the pinions of one goose, to write out the opinions of another." (c)

In our contributing to the columns of the Chronicle, we shall, while maintaining a strict adherence to the truth, still claim the privilege of tempering the spirit of our reports by our own opinions; (d) we shall always stand ready to defend those, whether dead or living, who are slandered by the bigoted, or whose deeds are perverted by the unscrupulous. Should our views on any subject merit the censure of our readers, we ask of them to "chide gently the erring;" and meanwhile to remember that our sentiments are not chargeable to Uncle Toby or his colleagues, but to their faithful correspondent, ISLINGTON.

NOTES, BY UNCLE TOBY.

*An apology would be a better word;—and the article itself, as the reader will see, is quite as much apology as vindication.

†This is well as far as it goes—but a look at the former letter of Islington shows that he spoke of Paine as a great man, whose works were now "stigmatized as immoral." His works on religion certainly are immoral in their tone and tendency—and his greatness he had in the revolution, was blotted out by his vices in subsequent life, which closed in the most hopeless and abject misery, brought on by these vices.

‡It is a vain thing to whitewash him, and hardly possible to blacken him, morally. Islington or anybody else that chooses, may write himself down, but it is utterly impossible to write Paine up. His moral delinquencies were too well known, open, public, and unblushing, to escape observation; and his previous political eminence caused his wretched life to be marked, and his fall to be recorded. Charity indeed hopeth all things—but it also rejoiceth not in iniquity—but in the truth!! and the truth about poor Paine, is sad and doleful.

¶It is no slander on the memory of Thomas Paine to say that he lived a debauchee and died a sot—nor on his works to say that while he was an ingenious suggester of doubts and difficulties in theology and christology,—he presented no positive system of his own. He bedaubed a caricature which he drew as a picture of christianity, and held it up as hateful—but he uttered no new moral precept, and his latter life was admirably true to his moral principle, or rather to his lack of it.

◊It was perfectly natural for any body who read, in one short letter, an attack on the clergy as a body and a sneer at sermons in a lump, an apology for Tom Paine, a puff for Lola Montes, and a first rate notice for the New York Herald,—it was quite natural that any such reader should conclude the writer to be quite in love with all that was bad, loose or doubtful,—and opposed to earnest efforts to do good.

a This partial retraction is well. The sweeping censure was exactly what was complained of.

b Some confusion of ideas here. Suppose the ministers thus blamed, to have a false theology, and to abound in sectarian venom. Is that the reason, why 20,000 Irish who never heard them, and 20,000 Germans who could not understand if they did hear, and 20,000 Frenchmen who never went to church in their own country,—keep no sabbath in New York? or why 80,000 gamblers or suckers who admire Tom Paine and Lola Montes, don't go to church? Not exactly, we think. Any man who chooses to keep the Sabbath in New York, and to spend a part of it in church, can find one or two to suit him, unless he be ultra fastidious.

c It is understood that the Rev. Matthew Hale Smith, Esq. is the "Burleigh" who writes the New York letters to the Boston Journal.

d If the letters in laudation of Paine, Lola Montes, and the N. Y. Herald, are tempered in their spirit by the opinions of "Islington"—he cannot be too quick or too earnest in examining their ground and tendency.

☞ A Portsmouth correspondent of the Boston Journal, says of New Hampshire:

The canvass made for the most part before the beginning of the active campaign, gives the State to the Republicans by about 4700 majority, dividing the doubtful votes; since active and open discussion commenced all the gains have been for the Republicans, and some of our rather sanguine brethren predict a majority of 10,000 for Mr. Haile. My own opinion is that the majority will not fall below 5000. This would be a glorious victory, and secure the future supremacy of the Republicans in this State.

☞ We make the following extract from a letter from a correspondent in Epping:

"The Republicans of Epping assembled last Thursday evening, at the Universalist meeting-house, filling it to overflowing, to listen to Col. Peter Sanborn of Concord, State Treasurer, who replied to the erroneous statements lately made in the same place, by Rev. Walter Harriman. Col. Sanborn showed the State indebtedness at the present time to be but $22,000; and that the State tax has been the same the past six years: He showed that besides the expenses of the State being reduced about $5000 yearly, since the Republicans came into power, that they had expended for the State Reform School, $44,000; $43,000 on the Asylum for Insane, and $7000 on the State Prison. Thus much for State affairs. At the close of Col. Sanborn's remarks, Hon. Thos. Russell of Boston, who has visited Kansas, was announced, and for an hour and a half, held the audience in breathless silence, (broken only by laughs at his humorous hits,) in an address unexcelled for fairness and eloquence, plainly and distinctly showing that the approaching election was National, and would be so regarded. I have not time, nor is it necessary to rehearse the wrongs and murders in Kansas, of free State men, which he was knowing to.

"The excellent music by the Epping Cornet Band, added much to the interest of the occasion."

☞ Mr. Cowan, publisher of the Union newspaper, in Biddeford, estimates his loss by the recent fire in that place, at $5,000 at least. It was a sad affair for him.

ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The steamship New York from Greenock, Feb., 14, 6 P. M., arrived to-day. She experienced heavy westerly gales the whole passage. On the 18th she was struck by lightning, which split the fore royal mast. She brings Glasgow papers of Saturday evening, 13th inst., which contain a few hours' later advices from London.

It is again said that Schamyl has given in his submission to Russia.

The "Tamar," steamer, from Alexandria, arrived from Southampton on the 13th. She brings a heavy portion of the Australian mails, and £100,000 in gold.

The Marco Polo, with, £300,000 in gold was off Holyhead on Saturday afternoon.

The India House had received a long dispatch, but it merely adds some unimportant details of the facts already published. At St. Petersburg, Stieglitz & Co., are reported, to have lost largely by the crisis, and by way of compensation, it is said that the Emperor has permitted them to export 1,000,000 gold imperials, the 10 per cent. duty being suspended in their favor.

No more addresses from the army, are to be published in the Moniteur or any other paper printed in France.

The total amount of Redpath's forgeries was £220,000, and a special investigation had resulted in the identification of a forged transaction, to the amount of £64,350.

A Dublin despatch says that the workhouse of Athy had been almost consumed by fire. Eight persons perished.

CONGRESS.—On Friday, March 5. the Senate did not sit.—The House took up the Private Calendar, passed several bills, and adjourned till Monday.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Mr. Hockaday, District Attorney of Utah, arrived to-night from Camp Scott, with despatches to the government. He says that the troops are in the highest spirits. Col. Johnston anticipates the return of Col. Marcy from New Mexico, with the transportation animals, by the last of April. If this is realized, he will, by the first of May, advance immediately upon Salt Lake City. Mr. Hockaday states that Russell and Major's cattle at Fort Laramie are in good condition to forward the supplies, and that no difficulty need be apprehended on that score.

REMEMBER THIS!
Nearly all diseases arise from viscid humors, and any Medicine to be an effectual remedy must strike at the root and produce a change.—Numerous (so called) alteratives are known to and prescribed by our Physicians with much effect. But it is acknowledged by the first Physicians of the age—Professor Ives, Dr. D. A. Tyler and others—that the Rock Rose (Helianthemum Canadense) is superior to anything in the Materia Medica as an alterative, and so great has been the interest manifested in it that Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, published a Dissertation in order to lay before the Medical Profession the virtues of a plant destined to effect a radical change in their practice. Myers' Extract Rock Rose is the only reliable preparation, and has already in Scrofulous and Bilious diseases effected cures that surprised its most ardent friends.

THERE IS NO REMEDY
Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING, &c.

There will be a Prayer and Conference meeting at the Vestry in the Temple, this evening at 7 o'clock.

There will be a meeting for Religious Conversation at the study of the Rev. Dr. Lamson, Pastor of the Middle Street Church, at 7 o'clock this evening.

There will be an Inquiry Meeting in the Vestry of the Methodist Church, this evening, at 7 o'clock.

PORTSMOUTH NOMINATIONS.—Republican, Mayor, Lyman D. Spalding. Democrat, Robert Morrison.

Republican Representatives.—Ward 1, Ichabod Goodwin, Wm. H. Y. Hackett, Wm. Martin.

Ward 2, Clement March, Wm. Conn, Edmund M. Brown.

Ward 3, Joshua Stackpole, Thomas J. Whittem.

Democratic Reps.—Ward 1, Peter Jenness, Nath'l K. Raynes, Wm. Rand.

2, John Harratt, A. W. Odiorne, Wm. H. Hackett.

3, Abner Greenleaf, Chas. W. March.

☞ The Republicans have addresses at the Temple, and the Democrats at Jefferson Hall—this evening.

☞ The rite of baptism was administered by Rev. Dr. Lamson, to three converts; and by Rev. Mr. Holmes, to three—at Noble's Island, on Sunday morning.

THE HUTCHINSONS—Lizzie, Asa and Joshua—will give a concert on Thursday evening at the Temple. The price of tickets is marked down to suit the times. Lizzie, we think, is a member of that talented family, who has not sung here before. It will be a curiosity to hear her. The Hutchinsons always draw, and we think they will have a good house.

☞ The Printers' Annual Lottery was drawn at the City Rooms, on Thursday last. Amos S. Alexander, Esq. of the Gazette, drew the only prize—the Printing of the City Accounts, &c. The proprietors of the four printing offices in the city, in preference to bidding for the job and cutting down the price; fix upon a fair rate, and draw lots to decide who shall have it. The price of tickets is, the being proprietor of a printing establishment. As the profits of the job are probably at least $50, may not we three "unlucky" ticket-holders consider ourselves as having lost, each a fourth of that amount?

By the way, we wonder when our neighbor of the Journal is going to explain the difference in principle between this scheme and others, especially those in themselves indisputably equally harmless—as art unions, &c.; and also betwen veritable money lotteries and much if not all the business of life—almost everything beyond the veriest primitive barter—as he promised sometime since to do?

High authorities in our city, have just denounced life insurance, as a lottery—which we admit; but for the life of us, we cannot see the difference in principle, between this and any other insurance, or banking, or speculation or trade of any description, where there is risk. Is there any place where worldly riches can be put, whence they cannot, "take to themselves wings and fly away?" As to calculating the chances of success—the only result we are sure of here is death; and as the statistics of mortality can be relied on as accurate, it would seem to follow, that the business of life insurance must be more certain, and less a lottery, than any other.

At a recent lecture, which we have before mentioned, savings banks (especially the valuable institution in our city) were held up in favorable contrast to life insurance companies. An insurance agent informs us that the President of the Portsmouth Savings Bank always keeps his own life heavily insured! We are also told that another gentleman in this city, who withdrew from the art-union "lottery" some years since, still keeps a large policy on his life!

While we should not regard it as a difficult task, to prove that life insurance, as well as art unions, are lotteries; we should not want to be obliged to show that fire and marine insurance, and all speculation, are much less objectionable, on that ground.

F.

☞ A couple of young men living in this city, inform us that as they were riding hither from North Hampton, on Wednesday night last, about 11 o'clock, in a sleigh; a man jumped out of Drake's Woods, near Breakfast Hill, seized the horse's bridle, and demanded the money of the riders!—[Squoggs says if anybody gets cash the first time he demands it, this year, especially from young men returning from a mid-night sleigh-ride—the best way will be for all hands to "lay low" at the side of the road, and "present arms" to passing debtors.]

The driver whipped up his "buckskin" horse, which made desperate efforts to escape; but the "robber" cried out, "I've got ye! I've got ye!" However, the animal, at last rendered frantic, gave an irresistible plunge, and cleared himself from the hold of the "villyan,"—who, as the sleigh swept by him, made attempt to seize the rider on the near side, but succeeded only in knocking off his hat. [Squoggs here remarks that if some young men had come home from a ten-mile sleigh-ride, minus a hat—and two miles made "on the clean run," too—they might be liable to the suspicion of having "a brick" in said hat.]

☞ The Pennsylvania Democratic Convention's committee on Resolutions, (packed,) unanimously reported a set, endorsing popular sovereignty and fully sustaining the Lecompton Constitution and President Buchanan.

Mr. Stokes offered a substitute, presenting the views of the minority of the Convention, and declaring that the acceptance of the Lecompton Constitution would be Congressional usurpation, and that members of Congress voting for Lecompton would be guilty of moral treason. Also endorsing Gov. Packer's course, especially his inaugural address.

An exciting debate ensued on the resolutions.

Mr. Stokes' amendment was lost.

The Committee's resolutions were adopted by 111 to 1, the anti-Lecomptonites refusing to vote.

☞ The funeral of the venerable Jesse Anthony was attended from the North Second street Methodist church in Troy, N. Y., on Thursday forenoon. At the conclusion of the discourse, Rev. Samuel Howe, of Lansinburgh, a superannuated member of the Troy Conference, rose near the pulpit, and proposed to say a few words in reference to the deceased. He stated that he knew him well and life long, and concluded by remarking, "I am seventy eight years old; my feet are near those of brother Anthony; and I shall soon join him." The congregation was dismissed in the usual manner, a portion of those in attendence following the corpse to the grave, and others returning to their homes. Mr. Howe left the main room of the church, and entered the basement, where, seating himself in a rocking chair, he almost immediately expired.

TRUE AS PREACHING.—The Philadelphia Evening Argus says: "No man can borrow himself out of debt. If you wish for relief, you must work for relief, you must economize for it. You must make more and spend less than you did when you were running in debt. You must wear homespun instead of broadcloth, drink water instead of champaigne, and rise at four instead of seven. Industry, frugality, economy,—these are the handmaids of wealth and the sure sources of relief. A dollar earned is worth ten borrowed, and a dollar saved is better than forty times its amount in useless gewgaws. Try our scheme and see if it is not worth a thousand banks and valuation laws."

THE I. E. MANIA.—"We really cannot comprehend," says an exchange, "why that respectable English letter Y should be disregarded from the termination of Christian names, and the two letters I and E substituted! It does not save time, and it is positive i e as an ending is not a bit more refined or elegant-looking than a noble y, with its tail winding off into a graceful flourish." We have before us a catalogue of the young ladies of a "Female College," located less than a thousand miles distant, and find the good old y quite knocked out of sight. At present it is Bettie and Pollie, and Sallie, and Mollie; Fannie and Mattie, and Peggie, and Pattie; Marie and Kittie, and Addie, and Mittie; Jennie ane Nettie, and Josie, and Hattie; and many other too numerous to mention. But the great finale of this I E versus Y mania, is that the other sex are adopting it—substantially, Billy Moody having recently effeminized himself into Billie Moodie, Esq.

☞ Mrs. Barnes, wife of James Barnes, a Philadelphia blacksmith, committed suicide by shooting herself, on Thursday, in consequence of the discovery of an intrigue in which her husband was engaged previous to their marriage. They had been married but four months.

☞ Mayor Tiemann of New York, on Friday, compelled a ticket dealer to disgorge an excess of $131 which he had extorted from two women for California steerage-tickets. The fellow was then committed to the Tombs.

A Revolution in the Hunting World!

Hunters, Trappers, Backwoodsmen and Farmers,

Arouse to your Interests!

VIGILANCE SUPERCEDED & DANGER AVOIDED, WITH

BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barrels discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Mink, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hutchinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and McClary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 36 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 49 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settee; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do.; 36 Looking Glasses; 26 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattrasses; Palm Leaf and Husk do; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Tine Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Penciled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves;

A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware; Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq, deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 298 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c, together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to Vulcanized Gutta Percha Clothing.

MOSES & DOWNIE,

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large Stock of the same, suitable for shore and sea wear.

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities requisite to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, which has tested the Rubber goods, and found them unfit for sea service.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get the money sent in advance. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at one Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets at $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lottery Offices which offer such inducements, as they are in comparison to the price of tickets.—In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the State of Maryland, as lottery offices, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a perfectly honorable manner. They offer to the public their opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers

The numbers of the tickets are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers—New Orleans Bee, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the credulous and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that Dr. Cheeseman's FEMALE PILLS are a compound panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, and pain in the side, giving health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity. AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines found upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS or Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when NEGRIPOINTS have failed and experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread throughout the land, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL and VOID; that is to say, a Fixe may not be taken when any female is in a nervous or hysterical state, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheeseman, Box No. 6 Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a peculiar mode of reeding, known only to themselves they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones more full and mellow like the action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of keys, the lower set running an octave higher and higher, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler the two banks of keys are played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufactory, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in the Manufacture of Instruments are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time to examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following gentlemen:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
Tilton & Co.,	Jas. Pirsson & Co.,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS REVENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. We would call attention to the last note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent of the rent in a year.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with clear, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

CONCORD CORRESPONDENCE.

MARCH 2, 1858.

Messrs. Editors:—In this county, the friends of temperance, are about to take the field again and put a speedy end to the sale of intoxicating drinks, in all parts of the county. Formerly this county was as free from the evils resulting from intemperance as was any other part of the country of equal size, or of a like number of inhabitants; but immediately after the passage of the present law for the suppression of intemperance, matters commenced growing bad, and they have gone on from bad to worse, and thence to worst, until intemperance has become alarming, and its spread has become broadcast over the whole county. This has been caused by the adroitness with which office-seekers of all parties, have carried rum influence to the polls, while they have been protesting against temperance men's carrying their principles to the polls. The result of all this has been the election of men to city and town offices, who have disregarded, in most cases, the wishes of the friends of temperance: in appointing liquor agents, and such men have been appointed as would bring the law into contempt, and so offend the best part of the community, as to induce them not to enforce the law against any of its violators. We have suffered in this city, for two and a half years, in this way, and little or nothing has been done to test the virtues of the present law. At the coming election, the friends of temperance intend to secure temperance men for city offices, and our friends, throughout the county, intend to elect temperance selectmen in all the towns, and then when they shall have secured the appointment of good city and town agents to regulate properly the lawful sale of liquors, they will then enforce the law strictly. The law will be easily enforced in Merrimac County, and the offenders will disappear like dew before the sun.

At the late term of the Supreme Judicial Court, the Chairman of the County Committee was before the Grand Jury but four hours, and took out 29 indictments, twenty-one against a single liquor agent, and eight against four other persons. Three plead guily to 27 indictments, paid costs, and their fines rest against them until the next term,—$1050 against the liquor agent, $250 against a townsman of his, and $50 against the son of the second offender. One of the other two, against whom was one indictment, sent an affidavit from his physician that he was too sick to leave his room, yet the court sent a sheriff and physician, to examine his case before he could be excused; while the other one, against whom was one indictment, fled from the county, and has not returned, and probably never will. I give you these facts to show how readily the law can be enforced in this county. Our former good prohibitory law was well enforced in this county, and those who broke it were made to pay much money into the county treasury. They feared that law, and found it hard to sin against it.

But my main object in writing an article for your paper, at the present time, is to say, we are to have a County Convention in this county, to be held in this city, on the 18th of next month, and we, of this city and this part of the Rockingham Councillor District, propose to the friends of temperance in Rockingham County, to meet them in convention at Raymond, on Monday, the 19th of April next, that day being the 83d anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, of Revolutionary notoriety. We trust there will be a good and brave rally at that place, on that day, worthy of the day and of the cause; and as that is to be the opening of a great campaign, it is to be hoped it will be opened in fine style. The ten towns in this county, belonging to the Rockingham District, will be well represented, I assure you.

Would it not have been well, at your Co. convention, to have adjourned it to meet at some place in the county, in two weeks from the day it was held in Raymond, and thus kept it alive, holding sessions as often as twice a month all over the county? From Raymond you might have adjourned to Portsmouth, and then from Portsmouth to Exeter, and then from Exeter to Derry, and so moved all over the county from time to time, having new attendants mainly at each meeting, and yet keeping alive the county convention. *

We shall adopt a plan like that in Merrimack County, and shall work, work, work, until our glorious cause shall have a blessed triumph all over the county. We intend to lead the van in this movement over other counties; and we should be glad to see "Old Rockingham" close at our heels, in the great temperance movement. In the column of ten counties, we intend to be number 1, and we challenge Rockingham to keep within hailing distance of us, as we move along. Strafford shall see how we stand, when, in Delegate Convention, on the 19th of October, all the counties shall meet at Concord, to regard the anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown, the winding-up shower in the stormy days of the Revolution.

* We have adopted a different plan in Rockingham Co., for the reason that this county really has no centre of travel or influence. We have made 4 Districts, each one on a Railroad, where the towns are neighbors and can be represented, as they cannot be in a County assembly.

WHAT A GREAT FOUNDRY IS DOING.—At this time there is work being done at the Novelty Works for the Russian, Austrian, Egyptian, and Spanish governments. The first vessel built at this establishment for the Russian government, was so satisfactory that she ordered a fine steam frigate, which will be called the "Japanese;" also another vessel, that will be the largest ever built in this city. She will be 7000 tons, and like the vessel now being finished, will be a screw propeller. The entire cost will probably exceed $1,000,000. The work done for that Egyptian Viceroy is a monstrous pump, that is to be put up with a hydraulic engine for pumping, upon the banks of the Nile, to draw off water for the purpose of irrigating the fields. It will probably cost $30,000 or $40,000, and will be finished early in March. For the Austrian government there is being made hydraulic machinery, engines, cradles and locomotives, to be used with dry docks similar to those put up at Pensacola and Philadelphia, for the United States government. This work will be finished in the course of four or five months. The work being done for the Spanish government, are massive lathes, intended for the Arsenal at Havana. In addition, the Novelty Works have a large amount of work on hand for private companies. The most important is an iron steam vessel, intended to run on the Oronoco river and its branches. In ten days she will be put together in the shop. She will be 168 feet in length and 26 feet in breadth.—N. Y. Express.

MORTALITY IN THE ENGLISH ARMY.—As no person is enlisted in the British Army who has any perceptible defect in his person or constitution, and as it is supposed that the soldier is well housed and well cared for, one would naturally believe that, barring accidents, his life would be a long one. Such, however, is not the case, as is shown by a recent report of a royal commission to inquire into this subject. While in Manchester, one of the unhealthiest towns in England, the annual mortality is 12.4 in 1000; that of the whole army at home is 17.5. In the household cavalry it is 11; in the dragoons 13.3; in the infantry 18.7, and in the Fort Guards 20.4. It thus appears that the mortality in one of the unhealthiest of the towns, and that in the household cavalry are nearly the same; while that in the Fort Guards is 2 1-4 times as large as the annual mortality of the general population. Some of the causes which contribute to this state of things are the over-crowded and badly ventilated barracks; the food, which consists of no other meat than boiled beef; the exposure to night-watching in wet clothes, the want of a healthy stimulus to exertion, and the praying of the mind upon a body which is insufficiently nourised.

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unusual frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1858.

EXETERIANA.

EXETER, March 6.

Dear Chronicle:—Our citizens are discussing politics much more freely than they were last year. Even the school-boys find no use for mathematics except to speculate on the prospect and cipher up the probable returns. One particular youth, who has not yet doffed the jacket of boyhood for the toga virilis, has been letting off his superfluous steam by writing a letter to a Boston paper, in which he pictures in glowing colors the victory we (he, and his party,) will achieve, gives his gratuitous opinion on the Senatorship question, &c., and concludes with the suggestion that all look out for 7,000 to 10,000 majority, on the 9th of March. That letter was really written in Exeter. Like the Neapolitan gentleman, who, though he never quitted his chamber for many years through a severe indisposition, wrote a "Voyage round the World," it seems that the correspondent of the Gazette, who attacks the building committe of our new jail, writes his Exeter letters in Portsmouth. Every one cognizant of the facts of the case, would term such an attempt at political capital a rather desperate measure.

Hon. Thomas M. Edwards, of Keene, addressed a very large meeting of the Republicans, on Tuesday last, at which Wm. B. Morrill, Esq., late an influential member of the Democratic party, presided. It was greatly regretted that Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, who was advertised to speak, was unable to be present. A citizens' caucus for the nomination of Town Officers was held last night. It was supposed to be a plan of the Democrats to secure a portion of the Town Officers, but the Republicans took the nominations into their own hands, and reported nearly all Republican candidates. Wm. P. Moulton, Louis W. Perkins and R. H. Parker were nominated for Representatives. The regular Republican caucus is to be holden this evening. As both parties persist in the affirmation, it is probably a fact that Exeter, like most of towns in the State, is "all right."

The Supreme Judicial Court adjourned on Friday noon. The Court House was well filled on Thursday to hear the arguments in the case of the State v. Selectmen of Epping. The (dem.) selectmen of that town refused to erase from the check-list the name of one Hopkinson, an Englishman, who had not complied with the naturalization law of 1855. Hon. John S. Wells made a powerful argument in behalf of the defence. He was followed by the Attorney General in a speech of combined argument and eloquence. The Jury were unable to agree, standing four for acquittal and eight for conviction. Three Democrats and nine Republicans composed the jury, the foreman of which was Abner Greenleaf, of Portsmouth.

The examination of the High School took place today, forenoon and afternoon. The exercises proved that Exeter would suffer none by a comparison with the High Schools of other towns. At the close of the examination a splendid volume of Shakspeare was presented by the school to Miss M. E. Haines, the assistant teacher. Mr. N. P. Carter received from the graduating class a valuable writing desk. The school now numbers about seventy pupils, of both sexes.

The Festival of the Elm Street Baptist Society, last week, was a fine affair, and was patronized by a large audience. A dialogue by twelve beautiful young ladies, in spotless white, was a very pleasing part of the performance. The receipts were above $100. Mr. C. R. Adams and troupe, from boston, sung well to a thin house, on Wednesday evening last.

The young folks are all going to the writing school recently opened by Mr. J. H. Darrah. Epidemically considered, one might at present well say, "Whatever is, is write." Mr. D. will open a school in Portsmouth in a few weeks. F. G.

THE PACIFIC HOTEL CASE.—The pending examination into the charges of murder, connected with the burning of the Pacific Hotel, at St. Louis, has falsified some of the published rumors. The $3000 or $4000 on Boane, the murdered man, appear never to have existed. Mr. Taylor did not arrive at the Townsley House after or during the alarm of fire, but at least a full hour before it. He did not go there without boots or shoes on, but had his boots on, and was otherwise in full dress. No blood was discovered on the sheets in which he had slept. Thus are some of the hideous features of this affair, as it first appeared, entirely obviated, but there may be serious fire at the bottom of so much that proves mere smoke.

A STRINGENT PROCLAMATION AGAINST ILLEGAL VOTING.—Previous to the late Municipal election in Chicago, Mayor Wentworth issued the following proclamation:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Chicago, March 2.

Whereas, it is my duty, as Mayor of this city, to see that all the laws are properly enforced, and whereas, the police of this city have reported the names of a very large number of persons, not entitled to vote in this city, who are determined to do so: I therefore deem it my duty as the Executive officer of this city to offer a reward for such information as shall lead to the sentence of any one to the Penitentiary, who votes more than once, or who shall vote without being legally entitled so to do, at this election.

I also expect all good citizens, and more especially the tax-payers of our city, to use their utmost vigilance to aid the police in bringing to light every circumstance which shall enable me to do my duty fully in causing every man to be sent to the Penitentiary who shall, in this respect, or any other, violate the laws.

J. WENTWORTH, Mayor.

We highly approve of the above proclamation, and wish every Mayor in every city would adopt the same highly important and honorable measure for the security and protection of the invaluable right of the people. X.

RURAL HAND-BOOKS.—Messrs. Fowler & Wells of New York, have in press a series of Hand-Books for Home Improvement, by the author of "How to Write," etc., to be devoted to a popular exposition of Rural Economy and Art, to promoting public taste, enhancing domestic comfort, and diminishing the expenses and increasing the profits of rural life and industry.

Such books are wanted, at a price which will bring them within the reach of everybody. They will be brought out in the same general style as the Educational Series, and furnished at the same price. The series comprises:—The House, the Garden, the Farm, and Domestic Animals.

Each of the four books, is 30 cts. in paper, 50 cts. in Muslin.

"The Garden" will be ready in a few days, and will be followed by the other numbers of the series in the course of the season—probably at intervals of about a month. One dollar will pay for the four works in paper, or $1.75 cents in muslin, and they will be sent to subscribers so fast as issued.

A FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE IN CALIFORNIA. It appears that Mr. C. A. Stowall, of Mississippi, went to California, some time since for the benefit of his health, taking with him his servant Archey. Archey having left his master was brought before Judge Robinson, at Sacramento whose questions he answered by saying he did not want to return to Mississippi. After hearing testimony proving the fact of ownership, and the purpose for which his master had visited California, Judge Robinson decided that Archey should be discharged, on the ground that he was voluntarily brought into the State by his master, and that his master was a citizen or sojourner of the State. Comity should never be extended to the citizens of another State when it would clash with the laws of a State or the rights of citizens, and comity could never be extended to strangers beyond the rights and privileges allowed to its own citizens. Archey was re-arrested immediately, and the case will be carried up to the Supreme Court of California.

☞ A jury in Charodon, Ohio, have found a verdict for $10,000 damages against John Sumner, who courted Susannah Garris for fourteen years, had the marriage day appointed three several times, and then went to the State of New York, and carried home another wife.

☞ Ole Bull has been received with great enthusiasm, not only in Bergen, the city of his birth, but in Christiana, and every city and village through which he passed. Even after he had entered his hotel, the enthusiastic multitude continued for some time to pour forth their joyous acclamations at his safe return to his fatherland.

☞ Intelligent travellers in Europe report that the three American books best known across the water are, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "The Wide, Wide World," and "The Lamplighter," works written by women.

☞ Some one has said of Frank Pierce, "He went into office with a great deal of unanimity, and came out with a little more."

The Washington Union having reported that the popular voice of California was for Lecompton and against Senator Broderick, that Senator took occasion in a recent debate to say that 111 out of 120 papers in his State oppose Lecompton, and the nine that sustain it subsist by government patronage.

7 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Saturday Evening, March 6.—The steamship Europa, Capt. Leitch, from Liverpool the 20th ult., arrived here at six o'clock.

On the 17th, in the House of Commons, after some debate, the bill to abolish church rates was passed to a second reading by a vote of 213 to 150. This result was against the Government, who objected to the total abolition of the rates, and promised a compromise.

On the 18th, in the House of Lords, it was incidentally stated by Lord Panmure, that the land forces for the present year had been fixed at 130,000, exclusive of those serving in India; that recruits of the line were being obtained at the rate of 8000 a month, and that the estimates included sufficient for the embodiment of 10,000 militia, which he thought sufficient for any sudden exigency that might arise. Lord Brougham's bill for amending the bankruptcy and insolvency laws, was read a first time.

In the House of Commons the adjourned debate on the Government of the India bill was resumed Mr. Disraeli, Sir E. Bulwer Lytton, Col. Sykes and others, opposing any change at present, and Lord John Russell, Sir C. Wood and Lord Palmerston defended the proposed measure. Upon a division, leave was given to bring in the bill by a vote of 318 to 173.

On Friday, the 19th, Lord Palmerston, in moving the second reading of the conspiracy to murder bill, described its character at length and repelled the notion that it was an alien bill, although he admitted that it had arisen out of the late attack in Paris.

Mr. Milner Gibson moved an amendment. Upon a division, there were for Mr. Gibson's amendment 234; for the second reading of the bill 215. Majority against the Government 19. This result was greeted with loud cheering by the opposition.

FRANCE.—M. Olivier, in speaking against the Safety Bill, in the Legislature, is reported to have made use of the following strong language: "No liberty exists—the greatest of all, that of the press, is annihilated, and yet you come to ask for laws of public safety. Do you not fear that the country may say, 'I have sacrificed to you my liberty, my franchises, my traditions—the conquests of my blood—all that has made me glorified among nations, for the sake of a little tranquility, and now you ask for more. Where will you stop?'"

EGYPT.—The correspondent of the London Times, writing from Alexandria on the 6th of February, says: the U. S. corvette Constellation, after a sojourn here of about ten days, has taken her departure for Messina. It was at one time thought she would first steer for the coast of Syria, in order to give the support of her presence to the American Consul General, who left for Jaffa, a few days ago, for the purpose of making an investigation into the circumstances attending an outrage of the most ruffianly nature, of which an American Missionary, stationed at Jaffra, has been the victim. The gentleman's house was broken into during the night; he himself was stunned by a blow on the head; his son-in-law killed outright, and his wife and daughter subjected to the grossest indignities at the hands of the assassins. The atrocity has been ascribed to an outbreak of fanaticism, but it seems likely that it was merely an aggravated case of burglary, and Mr. DeLeon, the U. S. Consul, will no doubt find the Turkish authorities fully disposed to second him in his efforts to trace out the authors of the crime without the necessity of the threat that would be implied by the presence of a ship-of-war.

REMARKABLE CIRCUMSTANCE—In Connection with the Pacific Hotel Disaster.—The following circumstance is related to us by one of our prominent citizens, who received the intelligence by letter from his wife, now residing in the State of New York.

On the night of the terrible destruction of the Pacific Hotel, a little brother of Mr. Henry Rochester, living at home with his parents, near Avon, in the State of New York, awoke some time after midnight with screaming and tears, saying that the hotel in St. Louis was on fire, and that his brother Henry was burning to death. So intense was his alarm and horror that it was with considerable difficulty he could be quieted.

On the following day, at noon, the parents received a telegraphic despatch from this city confirming the little boy's dream in every particular.—St. Louis Democrat.

FROM SANTA FE.—A Santa Fe letter gives some account of the hardships sustained by Lieut. Marcy and party in their journey from Fort Bridger to Santa Fe. The route they passed over had never before been traversed in mid-winter. In the mountains they encountered snow storms of great severity. In one stretch of 250 miles they waded through snow from two to five feet in depth. For eleven days they subsisted on mule and horse meat, without bread, or so much as a pinch of salt. It is a marvel that, notwithstanding these hardships, but one of the men died on the route, though many of them were badly frost-bitten. The animals of the expedition suffered severely; forty out of sixty of them died of cold and starvation.

EASY DISCOVERY.—A country editor thinks that Columbus is not entitled to much credit for discovering America, as the country is so large he could not well have missed it.

THE BEAM OF DEVOTION.

I never could find a good reason
Why sorrow unbidden should stay,
And all the bright joys of life's season
Be driven unheeded away.
Our cares would wake no more emotion,
Were we to our lot but resigned,
Than pebbles flung into the ocean,
That leave scarce a ripple behind.

The world has a spirit of beauty,
Which looks on all for the best—
And, while it discharges its duty,
To Providence leaves all the rest:
That spirit's the beam of devotion,
Which lights us through life to its close,
And sets, like the sun in the ocean,
More beautiful far than it rose.

—George P. Morris.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(N. Y. Herald correspondence.)—Dr. Bernhisel, the Mormon delegate in Congress, has recently received letters from Brigham Young, in which he predicts the annihilation of the United States troops now in Utah, unless they are recalled by the government. He also suggests the appointment of a commission to proceed to Utah to inquire into he condition of affairs there.

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects:

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of recovery from the first dose almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

GLEN COTTAGE, March 6.

Messrs. Editors:—In accordance with your wish, and the promptings of my own gratitude to those who so generously remembered us on Thursday night, I am now able, (having obtained the address of the Society,) to give you a more extended notice of that very pleasant occasion.

At an early hour, the house was invaded, and very speedily filled, for it seemed that the door had all of a sudden turned into a pendulum, so unceasingly did it swing at the touch of successive groups of happy-looking people, each expressing great wonder that there should be such a unanimous impulse to visit the minister.

We had read in the newspapers about 'surprise parties,' and as soon as we could sufficiently recover from our surprise at the steady swinging of our door, to reason upon the subject, we reasoned, and were not long in coming to a conclusion, which every succeeding moment seemed to sanction as the true one, that we were having at that very time, a surprise party.

About 8 o'clock,—and when the door had ceased swinging, seemingly because there was no more room for the play of its hinges,—a call came from outside, to clear the hall. This was done with difficulty, by standing a little closer in the rooms on either side, and making an "accommodation train" of the stairs. Then the pastor and his wife were called to the hall. The door suddenly opened, and something came quickly wheeling in. It closed to open again, for another rapid evolution of "little wheels." Then a voice from the stairs, which we recognized as that of Miss Jennie E. Rowe, addressed us as follows:

Mr. Patterson:—The Universalist Society of this city, who have enjoyed your faithful ministrations, in the cause of our Lord and Redeemer, for nearly three years, deeply sympathizing with you, in your arduous labors, and desiring to express their grateful appreciation of your generous fidelity to the responsible trust committed to your charge, have delegated to me the pleasant task of presenting you with this study chair, as an humble testimonial of our love and esteem; trusting it may tend to strengthen the ties which so happily bind us together, while it adds to your comfort in your wearisome labors.

And to your beloved wife, to whom we feel no less indebted for her fidelity and zeal, in furthering your interests and our prosperity, as a society, we present this "what-not" as a token of our love and esteem for her; and to you both, these other articles, trusting you may long enjoy each other's companionship, counsel and love.

May this evening's gathering prove a connecting link in the chain which binds us together as pastor and people, and may this union long and long continue, and may you both be enabled to rejoice the more and more in beholding the work of the Lord abundantly prosper in your hands.

To this Address, I think I responded nearly as follows: though I hardly know, or knew, what I did say.

Miss Rowe, Brethren and Sisters: I have no words with which to express the emotions that swell my heart. Your kindness overwhelms me. I have felt, since I came among you, that I needed no Easy Chair, to enable me to bear the labors which my brethren and my Heavenly Father have called me to perform. Your earnest co-operation in every undertaking which has for its object the advancement of the Redeemer's Kingdom—your willing forbearance with my imperfections—your thoughtful anticipation of all my wants—your numberless manifestations of confidence and affection, have lightened the labors which otherwise must have been a severe tax upon my youth and inexperience, and made them to me a pleasant pastime rather than an arduous task.

I have felt myself undeserving the confidence and affection with which you have been pleased to bless my pathway. And now to receive these new tokens of esteem, these beautiful and valuable gifts, accompanied with the words of cheer which you have spoken, and the pleasant faces with which you have surrounded me, fills me with emotions too deep for utterance. I can only accept them, saying from my heart, I thank you.

Your gifts are valuable, as important contributions to our personal comfort. But oh, how infinitely more valuable, coming as they do a friendship-offering from so many hearts. How infinitely more valuable on account of the pleasant associations which attend them, and the pleasant memories which they will perpetuate. Dearer to us than goods, or gold, is that affectionate consideration which prompted their bestowal, and brought such a welcome throng to our house to-night.

May these new tokens of your sympathy and regard, inspire me with a more fervent zeal in the cause which mutually engages us, and awaken my heart to renewed consecration to God and duty. And may we so walk and work together that our "labor may not be in vain in the Lord."

I heartily reciprocate the wish that this evening-gathering may strengthen "the chain which binds us together as Pastor and People, and may this union long, long continue," growing stronger and brighter evermore,—and may it be severed only by the severing of that tie which binds us to mortality.

At 9 o'clock, our social intercourse was for a while suspended by the voice of singing, and that dearer, holier communion flowing in the spirit of prayer.

Afterward, group after group bade us "good night," and at half past 10 o'clock we found ourselves alone in Glen Cottage, happy in heart, and thankful to the Father from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift, that "the lines are fallen unto us in pleasant places and we have a goodly heritage."

STATE ELECTION.—To-day is the annual meeting for the Choice of State and City Officers for the year. The Warrants for Meetings in this city, are on our 4th page to-day. They show the times and places for meeting, and the offices to be filled. We have already published the State and County tickets of both parties. Every freeman should express his own preference of men and measures, according to his best judgment. Every ballot should have the christian names of the candidates in full. Initials will do for middle names, only.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING, &c.

There is to be a Prayer Meeting in the vestry of the Methodist Church, this evening, beginning at 7 1-2 o'clock.

There will be a business meeting of the Church in the Temple Vestry, this evening, at 7 o'clock, to which members alone are invited.

MORNING PRAYER MEETINGS.—Would it not prove a blessing for all religious Societies, to unite in rotation, weekly, in having their Vestries heated early, so as to spend one hour in prayer each morning, before engaging in business—say from 8 to 9 o'clock, at present—as is the custom in many other cities. R.

PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS.—As the examinations of the High Schools are usually uncomfortably crowded, would it not be a good plan to charge a small admission fee to the same? I do not mean to make it a speculation, but merely to keep out those who have no interest in the affair. All those who really desire to witness the progress of the schools would without doubt willingly pay twenty-five cents, and the fund thus obtained might be applied to replenishing the library. Que.

VIGILANCE SUPERCEDED & DANGER AVOIDED, WITH

BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barrels discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks' embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Mink, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Huckinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.
Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,
On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,
ON THE PREMISES,
Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, ESQ., deceased. The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $30,000 are held out in their schemes with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are intended for persons to send to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large, and where the price of tickets—in every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Courts of Law to be a legal Lottery which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are fraud.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, it you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

We only claim a right to send the tickets and certificates. If he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and Swan is commissioner appointed by the Government their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to one fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. Money will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to my still the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result drawing forwarded to all purchasers

A schedule of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Picayune, Augusta Chronicle, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other Lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

THE well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. France & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who attends to the management and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are forwarded, unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combinations. Prizes vary in amount from $50 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also the Nashville Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D. C.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Massachusetts Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which for merly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring his tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; and by means of the coupler the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by one of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers as fair dealers, and if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an easier and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we believe to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give an opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallet Davis,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Howard & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair trial of the instrument before purchasing, and that at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent of least of a year's rent.

Instruments sent to the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

MUSIC TEACHING.—It is often said by parents: "We don't want our children to be professional players." Now, they are wrong; whatever is worth learning is worth learning well, and every master should lay out his scales to the capacity of his pupil, and strive to teach each as if he or she was intended for the profession.—When their children are going to school do they say: "We don't want our children to be professional?" On the contrary, they contract for the smallest possible pay to have them taught the greatest possible amount of matter.

"We don't want any of your grand sonatas or rondos; we want them to play a quadrille or polka to amuse us when we come home." Fools! do they say to their children's schoolmaster: "We don't want our children to know Grecian, or Roman, or English, or French history; we want them to read a novel or a play when we return tired after our day's avocation?", Do they say: "We don't want to have them learn 'Charles XII,' or 'Racine;' we want them to be able to translate 'The Mysteries of Paris,' or 'Gil Blas?'" Fools! I say, they must learn the classics of the musical language before they can either play an opera air or a quadrille well, and the beauties and the poetry of a language must be first known before it is safe to put into their way what corrupts the mental faculties and enervates the understanding.

Again, they say, "We don't want to hear your solfeggi or scales; it is not for that we are paying so much a lesson or so much a quarter;" and yet they will listen to the monotonous hum of the spelling lesson or the telling up of the sum. Why? Because the schoolmaster insists upon their children having their spelling, and insists upon the geography being learnt, and that their multiplication table or their addition of money must be ready for the morning's recitation, else the pandy will ensue; likewise should the music master insist, and likewise should he tell the parents, before the flowers should grow and be culled the soil should be first dug and the seed should be sown; the master should never pander to the selfishness of the parents—for, after all, what is it but selfishness, for the poor pupil is supposed to be able to amuse his friends before he has even acquired the rudiments of the art.

It is this pandering to the parents' ignorance and selfishness which has called forth a host of ephemeral compositions where the greatest amount of display can be produced with the least conceivable trouble, and thus correctness of performance, chasteness of expression; and legitimate effects are sacrificed to slovenliness of execution, blundering and haste, monotonous of noisiness and pedal obligato accompaniment. O good pedal! how you do hide mistakes; the parent will not have the solfeggi, or will not listen to a canzonet of Haydn or an air of Weber; but must have "Vilikins," "Lucy Neale," or some other abomination of modern times. Believe me, a steady perseverance of the profession in the right way would soon put a stop to this, and music would be benefitted by such perseverance, and even to the parents the end would justify the means.—Musical Review.

A CURIOUS QUESTION.

* * A daughter!—
Well: what brought her?
Kitty asks—"How came she here?"
Half with joy, and half with fear.
Kitty is our eldest child—
Eight years old, and rather wild—
Wild in manner, but in mind
Wishing all things well defined.
Kitty says—"How came she here?
Father; tell me—it's so queer,
Yesterday, we had no sister,
Else I'm sure I should have kissed her
When I went to bed, last night!
And this morning hailed her sight
With a strange and new delight;
For, indeed, it passes all
To have a sister not so tall
As my doll!—and with blue eyes!
And—I do declare!—it cries!
Last night I didn't see her, father,
Or I'm sure I had much rather
Stayed at home as still as a mouse,
Than played all day at Grandma's house,
She is so pretty and so tiny?
And what makes her face so shiny,
Will she always be like that?
Will she swell up plump and fat?
Like my little doll; or tall
Like my wax one? Tell me all
About her, papa dear,
For I do so long to hear
Where she came from, and what bro'ther,
Your and mamma's bran new daughter!"
A daughter!—another daughter!
And the question is, "What brought her?"
Spence, our boy, but three years old,
Says the nurse did—and is bold,
In defiance of them both—
Since to yield his place he's loth;
And, pouting, feels his nose's point,
When I declare 'tis out of joint.
But, though the childish explanation
Be food enough for child's vexation,
We older folks must better find
To feed the hunger of the mind.
To us, of larger issues preaching,
This link of life eternal, reaching
From earth to heaven, this new born soul
Comes fresh from where ever roll
The countless years through yonder heaven,
Has deeper cause for thinking given.

* * A daughter!—
And what brought her?
No matter what—she comes to bring
A blessing in her life's young spring,
"No matter, darlings!—she is here—
Our daughter, sister, baby dear!—
Open your hearts, and let her enter;
Open them wide, for God hath sent her!"

SUDDEN DEATH.—An Irishwoman, about the age of eighty, who was, however, in good health and active, and who had been used to officiate as a nurse in families, was sitting at the table at tea at one of the houses this week, where she had been employed. She had just taken a cup of tea in her hand, and remarked, when her age was alluded to, that she hoped "the Lord wonld take her home before long." Her hand was observed to tremble, she leaned back in her chair, and died instantly.—New Bedford Mercury.

SOME CATTLE.—A drover arrived in town yesterday with 12,000 head of cattle, obtained in Illinois and Indiana. This, we imagine is the largest lot of cattle that one man ever brought to Albany. They were valued at $84,000.—Albany Knickerbocker, 2d.

In 1787 a boy in the State of Maine traded his jack knife for a gallon of rum. He continued in the sale of the latter article, and at his death left $87,000 to four children. The last heir died a few days ago, in a drunken sleep, and left nothing but a bad name and a jack knife.

Laziness is a bad disease, and, like many other kinds, is often self-imposed. To learn to work, and work cheerfully, is the central lesson of life. Begin to learn it early—eschew laziness as the most disgusting of all faults, and one that will surely end in hopeless misery.

One thousand dollars in gold was found in the bed upon which Mrs. Martha Roberts died, at Dalton, Mass., on the 20th ult. The money had been carefully saved from the remittances of her sons, who are in prosperous circumstances.

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1858.

New Hampshire Election.

We give this morning but few returns out of the city. We made arrangements to receive from Boston, all the returns received there up to midnight; but owing to some misunderstanding or accident, the telegraphic connection was broken before 10 o'clock, and we could get nothing.

The returns we give show no material difference from the votes of the last two years. The Republican State and County Officers generally, are doubtless elected—and probably with increased majorities.

Portsmouth.—From the tables of Votes, it will be seen that Mayor Morrison is re-elected; that the City Government remains in the hands of the Democratic party;—and that the vote for State and County Officers, is nearly the same as last year. The vote is the largest ever thrown.

On the question, Is it expedient to alter the Constitution? the yeas were—Ward 1, 9—Ward 2, 2—Ward 3, 4—total 15.—Nays—Ward 1, 301—Ward 2, 607—Ward 3, 232—total 1140.

On the question, Shall we purchase a County Poor Farm? yeas—Ward 1, 5—Ward 3, 3—total 8. Nays—Ward 1, 307—Ward 2, 609—Ward 3, 259—total 1175.

Greenland.—By an oversight of the Selectmen, in posting a defective Warrant—no Meeting could be legally held. The error was the omission of the words, "a true copy, attest." The election for Town Officers will be held in a few weeks.

Exeter.—A fusion of the old line Whigs and disaffected Republicans formed a citizens' ticket, which the Democrats unanimously supported. The vote for Moderator stood:

Wm P Moulton (cit)	252
Jos G Hoyt (rep)	278

For Representatives:

N M Jewell, (cit)	241
Retire H Parker, (do)	242
Wm P Moulton, (do)	261
Isaiah S Browne, (rep)	322
Wm B Morrill, (do)	317
Charles H Bell, (do)	325

The Republicans elected all the the rest of the Town officers, judging from the vote up to four o'clock.

Seabrook.—The vote for Governor stood:

Haile,	182
Cate,	115

Dover.—The vote for Governor stood:

Haile,	917
Cate,	489

Seven rep Reps. elected.

New Castle.—Voted to send no Representative.

Epping.—Chooses a Democratic Representative by 13 majority.

Hampton.—Haile 128, Cate 101. 8 dem. gain over last year.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(Herald correspondence.) Mr. Harris, from the Kansas Select Committee, will, I understand, to-morrow report to the House the proceedings had in their special meetings from time to time, together with the resolutions which were voted down by the Committee, and will ask the House to increase the Committee to seventeen. Mr. Harris will name one American and two Republicans, which, should they succeed in electing, will give an anti-Lecompton majority. It was their intention to have made the move to-day, but they failed in some of their arrangements. As soon as this movement is made, Mr. Stephens of Ga. is prepared with his majority report, to move as a substitute, which will bring the whole question before the House, and an exciting time is anticipated. The anti-Lecomptonites have got their forces well drilled and expect to succeed in the movement.

The Tribune Correspondence revives and repeats the statement, that many free state men in Kansas, now desire and petition for admission with the Lecompton bogus constitution.

The President has received letters from responsible sources in Kansas, which state in positive terms, that most of the prominent Free Soil men in the Territory desire the immediate passage of the Lecompton Constitution. It is said that even Lane and Robinson desire its passage, and are on their way to Washington. Thirteen of the fifteen Democrats from Pennsylvania will vote for the bill; there is a gain of four votes from this State. The Senate have agreed to sit till five o'clock every evening during the week, and later, if necessary, and to take the vote on the admission of Kansas on Monday next. All other business in the Senate will be deferred until the question is disposed of definitely.

HON. C. CUSHING.—At this time in the Massachusetts legislature, this gentleman seems to be about the only advocate of the pro-slavery doctrines. Has not a wonderful change come over him? For proof we refer to his eloquent speech of 1836, while a member of Congress, in defence of freedom, as we find it in T. H. Benton's "Thirty Year's View," Vol. 1, fol. 633, upon the admission of Arkansas into the Union with a constitution tolerating slavery. He said he "concurred in reprobating such a course," tolerating slavery, "as anti-republican, as wrong in general principles of civil polity." But we make a short extract. He said, "I cannot by any vote of mine, ratify or sanction a constitution or government which undertakes in this way to foreclose in advance the progress of civilization and of liberty forever." "To introduce slavery into the heart of the North! Vain Idea! Invasion, pestilence, civil war, may conspire to exterminate the eight millions of free spirits who now dwell there. This in the long lapse of ages incalculable, is possible to happen. You may raze to the earth the thronged cities, the industrious villages, the peaceful hamlets of the North.—You may lay waste its fertile valleys and hill-sides. You may plant its very soil with salt, and consign it to everlasting desolation. You may transform its beautiful fields into a desert as bare as the blank face of the sands of Sahara. You may reach the realization of the infernal boast with which Attilla the Hun marched his barbaric hordes into Italy, demolishing whatever there is of civilization or prosperity in the happy dwellings of the North, and reducing their very substance to powder, so that a squadron of cavalry shall gallop over the sites of populous cities, unimpeded as the wild steed on the savannas of the West. All this you may do: it is within the bounds of physical possibility. But I solemnly assure every gentlemen within the sound of my voice, I proclaim to the country and to the world, that, until all this shall be fully accomplished to the uttermost extremity of the letter, you cannot, you shall not, introduce slavery into the heart of the North!"

Don't know about that, Mr. Cushing, if you have really changed your sentiments. Q.

☞ The New York correspondent of the Syracuse Standard, after stating that John Dean, the coachman who married Mr. Buker's daughter, has been appointed marker in the Public Store, by Collector Schell, remarks:

"This brings up the question of Dean's whereabouts since his marriage. Where has he been? Some say at school, others at home, and others still that he has been under private instruction. But wherever he has been, it is evident he has not improved, as the appointment of marker is always given to those whose talent and acquirements are of an inferior grade. It may be that the highly educated and accomplished Mrs. Dean has already found that marrying a coachman is not so romantic after all."

☞ In New York City, a Business Men's Union Prayer Meeting is held daily, from 12 to 1 o'clock, in the John St. Methodist Church, 44 John Street, a few doors east of Broadway. This meeting is similar to the one held in Fulton Street.—These meetings are a Union of Baptists, Trinitarian Congregationalists, Methodists and Episcopalians, Reformed Dutch and Presbyterians. That is, a union of the "orthodox or evangelical," to the exclusion of the "liberal." The two Episcopal journals of New York, however say, the Church has no connection with it.

☞ A Southern paper calls attention to, and endorses a communication, commenting upon the evil and fatal tendencis of allowing slaves to hire their time, to live on premises unoccupied by any white persons, the congregating together at night without the presence of white persons, of owners permitting slaves to purchase their freedom, of the too great latitude allowed the free negro population, and other practices of a like serious character.

☞ A letter from New York says rents of stores in dry goods localities are very dull. "I hear of choice stores at $3000, which last year brought $6000, and of others at $6500, which in '57 brought $9000. With high class houses the case is the same, and bargains are to be had by parties who are ready to put from $25,000 upwards in desirable up town residences."

THE TARIFF CORRUPTION CASE.—Major Reynolds, a New York Native American politician, was examined yesterday before the Corruption Committee at Washington, and acknowledged the receipt of fifteen hundred dollars for political purposes.

☞ William Chapman, who was stabbed on the night of the 26th ult., in a bar room in Boston, by James H. Gould, died on Monday. Gould is in custody.

INCUBATION.—A resident of Hume, Alleghany County, N. Y., by the name of Victor Mix, under the directions of the spirits, has set four weeks on a couple of dozen eggs, for the purpose of hatching them.

CONGRESS.—On Monday, March 8, in the Senate, Mr. Green of Missouri intimated that he should call for a direct vote on the Kansas-Lecompton bill on Monday next.—The deficiency printing bill was passed in concurrence. The subject of Kansas was then taken up and debated by Messrs. Doolittle of Wisconsin, Foster of Connecticut, Green of Missouri, and Mason of Virginia. In the House, Mr. Taylor of Louisiana introduced resolutions of inquiry as to the facts attending the French seizure of the American bark Adriatic, and took occasion to say that no court of a foreign country had a right to condemn an American vessel for a failure to carry lights, in the absence of United States laws requiring such a practice. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. Pending the consideration of the Consular and Diplomatic appropriation bill. Mr. Dawes of Massachusetts made a speech and "denounced the Lecompton Constitution as the creature of frauds and the legitimate fruits of slavery." The House then adjourned.

☞ It is said that the Kansas debate will engage the United States for several weeks. No less than thirty speeches are prepared and must be delivered on this question. Mr. Buchanan is not pleased with this delay, as it puts far away his favorite project for annexing Cuba.

☞ Emerson's Magazine for March, contains a rare story, The Pumpkin Freshet on the Susquehanna; and Open the Church Doors, a poem; with a great variety of other matter. $3 a year, on the gift system, with 3000 gifts annually. Oakesmith & Co., publishers, New York.

☞ Sargent's School Monthly, is a work of great merit.—The March No. is before us, beautifully printed and illustrated. Epes Sargent, editor and publisher, Boston.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for March, contains portraits of Mr. Speaker Orr, and Frank Leslie the celebrated wood engraver and publisher, with appropriate phrenological and biographical sketches. Fowlers & Wells, publishers, New York.

☞ At Lawrence, Mass., the 17th inst., James Gaffney of Haverhill, was convicted of having made three sales of intoxicating liquor, and was sentenced by Judge Taggart—on the first to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs and be committed to the house of correction for twenty days, and if fine and costs be not paid, thirty days in addition. On the second complaint, to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs and be committed to the House of Correction for thirty days, and if fine and costs be not paid, then thirty days in addition. On the third complaint to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs, and be committed to the House of Correction for three months.

Mr. J. B. Gough, it appears, has commenced legal proceedings against Dr. Lees, of Leeds, England, for an alleged defamation of character; and the trial, it is expected, will shortly come on in the Law Courts in London.

Mr. Gough is an eloquent lecturer, and so also, it is said, is Rev. I. S. Kalloch;—but the less either of them says about his own character, the better.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The Senate was in executive session to-day two hours and a half on the nomination of Mr. Cook, as Postmaster of Chicago. The debate was earnest and exciting, but no question was taken, in consequence of the absence of a quorum.

Hon. John Cochrane presented in the House to-day a petition for a Bankrupt Law, signed by merchants of New York; also, three petitions for a Homestead law, from merchants and brokers to the number of 350.

FOUND DEAD AND EATEN BY RATS.—Coroner Connery held an inquest on Friday, at No. 19 Mulberry street, upon the body of an aged man who had died in a filthy basement. A woman residing in the house testified that she had known Isaac Redmond, the deceased, for some time. He was an industrious man, but had been out of employment, and suffered much from want and exposure. She had often sent him food, and her servant girl, in going into the basement on Thursday with some refreshments for the old man, was shocked to find him lying dead on his miserable couch, and the rats gnawing his body. His face, neck and other portions of the corpse were extensively eaten, rendering the spectacle one of the most shocking. The rats had become so ravenous and bold, that it was with difficulty they were driven from their prey. Deceased was a native of Halifax, Nova Scotia, aged 62. His wife died of want and exposure, in the same basement, in November last.—New York Paper.

IDLENESS.

Leisure is pain; take off our chariot wheels,
How heavily we drag the load of life!
Blest leisure is our curse; like that of Cain,
It makes us wander; wander earth around
To fly that Tyrant thought. As Atlas groan'd
The world beneath, we groan beneath an hour.

GENERAL HAVELOCK UPON FAMILY DISCIPLINE.—The following, from one who enjoyed personal communion with the deceased General, will be regarded as an illustration of the man's character, not without significance. During his stay in England the narrator of this anecdote went one evening to the house of the colonel, in compliance with an invitation. In the course of conversation Mrs. Havelock turned suddenly to her husband and said, "By the way, my dear, where is Harry?" referring to her son, whom she had not seen the whole afternoon. The colonel started to his feet—"Well, poor fellow, he's standing on London bridge, and in this cold, too. I told him to wait for me there at 12 o'clock today, and in the pressure of business at —— I quite forgot the appointment." The father and son were to have met at 12 at noon, and it was now after 7 o'clock in the evening. Yet the father seemed to have no doubt that Harry would not move from his post until he appeared.

The colonel at once rose, ordered a cab to be called, and as he went forth to deliver his son from his weary watch on the London bridge, he turned to his visitor, saying, "You see, sir, that's the discipline of a soldier's family." In the course of an hour the colonel returned with poor Harry, who, although he appeared somewhat affected by the cold watch, and glad to see the fire in the comfortable parlor at home, seemed to have passed through the little afternoon's experience with the greatest good humor and the feeling that all was right.—Edinburgh Daily Express.

THOMAS JEFFERSON'S FATHER—HIS GREAT STRENGTH.—Peter Jefferson's Physique is described by Mr. Randall as follows:

"He was a man of gigantic stature—plain, and averse to display—he was grave, taciturn, slow to make, and not over prompt to accept advances. He was one of those calmly and almost sternly self-relying men, who lean on none—who desire help from none. And he certainly had both muscles and mind which could be trusted! He could simultaneously "head up"—to an upright position—two hogsheads of tobacco, weighing nearly a thousand pounds a piece! He once directed three able-bodied slaves to pull down a ruinous shed by means of a rope. After they had again and again made the effort, he bade them stand aside, seized the rope and dragged down the structure in an instant. Traditions have come down of his continuing his lines as a surveyor through a savage wilderness, after his assistants had given out from famine and fatigue, subsisting on the raw flesh of game, and even of his carrying-mules, when other food failed.

IS ORSINI A JESUIT? A writer in the London Standard says—"Orsini is a Jesuit. The words he used, 'My name is a legion,' have always been the motto of the Jesuits. He has been brought up in a Jesuit school, he has been saved in Mantua by Jesuits, who are so powerful there.—He was arrested in Genoa, because the Jesuits wanted him to do something against the hostile Piedmont. He made the attempt of the 14th ult. in obedience to the laws of the Jesuits, they being dissatisfied with Napoleon, who becomes daily more independent of them."

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique of New Haven. Dr Knight prescribed the Syrup of Black Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.
Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects:

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

The Great English Remedy.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.
Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.
THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excessive, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.
TO MARRIED LADIES
It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.
Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.
CAUTION.
These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first three months, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.
In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.
Full directions accompany each package.
Sole Agent for the United States and Canada

The City Government will thus remain, every branch, in the hands of the Democratic party—the same as last year, only a little more so.

Mayor Morrison is re-elected, by 70 majority—last year 83.

In the Second Ward, the Republicans elected their entire ticket ; and in the 1st and 3d Wards the Democrats chose their entire list—with the exception of one Common Councilman from Ward One, which vacancy will be filled on Friday.

This divides the Aldermen, three to five; and the Common Council, fifteen to nine.

☞ Large and enthusiastic political meetings were held by both parties, on Monday evening—the Republicans completely packing the Temple, and the Democrats crowding Jefferson Hall. Both audiences were well entertained till after 10 o'clock, by able speakers—in addition to which, the Democrats had the Cornet Band, with which they paraded the streets, in spite of the severe snow-storm, after their meeting adjourned.

John P. Hale and C. C. Woodman addressed the Republicans; Charles L. Woodbury, Mr. McGinnis from Mississippi, Sydney Webster, and Amos S. Alexander, the Democrats,—each no doubt convincing his enthusiastic auditors (of the same political faith) of the truth of all he said.

☞ On Tuesday evening the Democrats were out in procession, with the Band,—celebrating by a jubilant march, their victory in the city.

BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP !

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barbs discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Minx, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

THE RESTORATIVE of Prof. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being last dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the finest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M., ON THE PREMISES,

Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

A Curious Wedding.—Says the New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier:

An interesting wedding took place a few days since between a Mr. Henry B. Melville and Mrs. Sarah K. Seymour. The parties have both been married before, and each has a family of seven children—those of the gentleman comprising six daughters and a son, and those of the lady six sons and a daughter. The sons acted on the occasion as groomsmen to their future father, and the daughters as bridesmaids to their future mother. The whole fourteen children dressed alike, according to their sex, entered the church and ranged themselves on either side of their parents, who are both remarkably handsome, and looked superb. The bride is wealthy, and was richly dressed in pearl colored moire antique, with costly laces, and diamond brooch and bracelet.

A lazy fellow once declared in public company that he could not find bread for his family. "Nor I," replied an industrious mechanic; "I am obliged to work for it."

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive organs, and diseases arising from disorders of the blood. A large part of all complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians of its effects in their practice.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"Your pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities recommend them to my profession, and I have no doubt they are the best purgative we possess. They are mild, safe, and sure, and I rejoice in the success which attends their use. I have continued to do in the daily treatment of my patients."

For Jaundice and all Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"I should use your Pills exclusively in my practice if they were in my opinion as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects on the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved a sure dispeller of the cure of bilious complaint, and I can say one remedy I can name, I sincerely believe to be a benefit to humanity which is worthy the attention of the profession and the people."

Dyspepsia — Indigestion.

From Dr. Henry J. Rosser, of St. Louis.

"Dr. Ayer, you were kind enough to send me have been of great benefit, and have satisfied me that they are a valuable medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to act on every organ. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia in Livingston county, Illinois, which had resisted the skill of twenty other physicians, and I have found in my practice no other so decisively beneficial. I shall continue to use them and to be unbiased in almost all the cases for which you recommend them."

Dysentery — Diarrhœa — Relax.

From Dr. J. G. Gunn, of Chicago.

"Your Pills have had a good share in my practice, and I find them in extreme as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them invaluable in the disease, given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their singularly mild action makes them a valuable and convenient for the use of women and children."

Internal Obstruction—Worms—Suppression.

From Dr. E. Stuart, who practises as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretions, when whether partially suppressed, and always effect a free and easy action of the stomach and expel worms. They are a most valuable physic, and I have that I recommend no other to my patients."

Constipation — Costiveness.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"I can speak from the best of your Pills for the cure of costiveness, and of others of our fraternity have found them equally efficacious. I have often found them to be in fact, the only one that will do the business, and I believe confidence in recommending them to the profession, and to the public, that they will effect that organ and cure the disease."

Impurities of the Blood — Scrofula — Erysipelas — Salt Rheum — Tetter — Tumors — Rheumatism — Gout — Neuralgia.

From Dr. Ezekiel Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor in saying that your Pills purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and always with the most satisfactory effect. They stimulate the excretories, and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They cleanse the first passages of digestion, and infuse vitality into the system.

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

For Headache—Sick Headache—Foul Stomach—Piles—Dropsy—Plethora—Paralysis—Fits—&c.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

"I use Dr. Ayer's Cathartic Pills in my practice, and I have proved with your Pills better than to say all that we could with a perfective conscience. I have found dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contact with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I prescribe them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the cure and remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints, for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best resource of the family, from the log cabin of the American pioneer to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pectoral is known as the family medicine for allaying the cough of the throat and lungs. In many families it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station hereby it has done for them, it is on that which is known to others who see the daily growth of the lungs yield to it. If we can depend on the testimony of intelligent physicians, whose business is to detect the truth, if there is any reliance upon any thing, there is abundant proof that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic value, and the unquestionable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could sustain such multiplied and unbroken reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrown upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained to-day by every trial, confirmed believers on the affected they can never forget, and produced cures so numerous and remarkable as to be forgotten.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every information is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 are said their schemes with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds, and if money be sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of Tickets. In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to order tickets in Georgia Grants, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are Five Dollars, $2; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel with the amount they are entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. France and R. Cohen are managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in Maryland, and drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tenary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. Persons ordering tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast passing away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and parental BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that DR. CRESSEY'S FEMALE PILLS are ALONE the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization, such as incorrectness of the monthly menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to wave in whole sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are calculated to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral substance, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, be it known, that henceforth the said PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when deservedly they have been experienced in the regimen of DR. CRESSEY'S PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit.—Always remembering that said Proclamation in one case must be considered and not forgotten that is to say the Pills must not be taken when any female is in an interesting situation, otherwise MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheeseman, Box No. 4651, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or Banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be played separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, by-the-way of two banks of keys, and, when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedale. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers as to quality equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as payment of the purchase money; this matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the Manufactory, accompanied with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

REVOLUTIONARY BLACKS.—On Friday evening, at Faneuil Hall, the colored men of Boston celebrated the 88th anniversary of the death of Crispus Attucks, who was killed by the British soldiers on March 5th, 1770, on State street, Boston. The hall was appropriately decorated, and well filled by an audience, most of whom were of African origin. In front of the platform were many engravings, relics and documents, tending to show the part taken by the colored people in the struggle for American freedom. Among them was an engraving, representing Washington crossing the Delaware, in which Prince Whipple is seen pulling the stroke oar, the colored soldier that in other sketches is seen on horseback, quite prominent near the Commander-in-Chief; a certificate (in Gen. Washington's own hand-writing) of honorable discharge of Bristor Baker, a colored soldier in the Connecticut Regiment, June, 1783; a painting of the scene in State street, at the massacre of Crispus Attucks; a goblet and powder horn belonging to Crispus Attucks; a flag presented by Gov. Hancock (in front of his mansion in Beacon street) to the Bucks of America (colored company) at the close of the Revolutionary War; also a flag presented to the "Protectors," a colored military company, by the merchants of Boston, for services rendered during the Revolutionary War.

Among the living relics of the colored population of Revolutionary days were Mrs. Kay, daughter of the ensign who received the flag above alluded to; Parzillia Lew, and other descendants of colored Bunker Hill soldiers; also Grandmother Boston, aged 105, and Father Vassal, aged 88.

WHO MARRY AND HAVE CHILDREN IN AMERICA?—More than four-sevenths of the marriages in Massachusetts are among the foreign born. Why is it? For the most simple reasons—the foreign born can afford to get married, and the native born can not; and this must be so long as our extravagant modes of life continue. In social life there never was a people tending to more deeper and destructive social corruption—and that is most evident from the records of all the newspapers—than Americans. Our fathers used to tell of the profligacy of Paris; their children tell of the mysteries of New York—a city not far behind any in Europe. And, making proper allowance for size, how far is New York ahead of other cities and towns? Once was the time when the wife was a "help-meet," now in a thousand cases you can change the "meet" to "eat," and make it read more truthfully.

We boast of our system of education; we have female high schools, female colleges, female medical schools, and female heavens. Our girls are refined, learned and wise; they can dance, sing, play pianos, talk French and Italian, and all the sole languages, paint, write poetry, and love like Venuses. They are ready to be courted at ten years, and can be taken from school and married at fifteen, and divorced at twenty. They make splendid shows on bridal tours, can coquette and flirt at watering places, and shine like angels at winter parties. But Heaven be kind to the poor wretch that marries in the fashionable circles. What are they at washing floors? O, we forgot—nobody has bare floors now—how vulgar that would be!—What are they at making bread and boiling beef? Why, how thoughtless we are—to be sure they will board or have servants. What are they at mending old clothes? But there we are again; the fashion changes so often that nobody has old clothes but the rag man and paper-makers now. What are they at washing babies' faces, and pinning up their trowsers? And here is our intolerable stupidity once more; having children is left to the Irish. What lady thinks of having children about her? or if she is so unfortunate, don't she put them to wet nurses to begin with, and boarding-school afterward? We repeat, we have come to a point where young men hesitate and grow old before they can decide whether they can marry, and afterward keep clear of bankruptcy and crime. What is the consequence? There are more persons leading a single life—are there more leading a virtuous life? It is time for mothers to know that the extravagance they encourage is destructive of the virtue of their children; that all the foolish expenditures making to rush their daughters to matrimony, are, instead of answering that end, tending to destroy the institution of marriage altogether.—Herald.

An interesting fact concerning the late Dr. Proal, Rector of Trinity Church, in Utica, N. Y., has recently been made public. Shortly before his death he was taken into the open air and seated before his door. He then caused all his sermons to be brought out and placed in a heap before him, and a match to be applied to the pile. The good man sat and watched with singular interest the destruction of years of labor in the service of his Master. The sermons thus consigned to the flames numbered upwards of seventeen hundred!

"It is one thing to be a successful politician, and quite another to be a good practical statesman. A distinguished Divine defined this point of difference very well not long since. "A politician," he said, "is shrewd, crafty, sagacious, and artful. A statesman must be be wise, discreet, profound and honest."

THE WINTER AROUND THE MEDITERRANEAN.—The old belief that just the same quantity of snow falls every year, only its distribution is considerably varied, would seem to be confirmed by the facts of this winter. On the northern part of this continent, east of the Rocky Mountain chain, including the Canadas, the fall of snow has been unusually light. It has, indeed, been a remarkable winter in this respect. But we observe from our European papers that the season, in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean Sea, is remarkable for quite the opposite reasons. Thus it is said that the cold has been such in Italy that for the first time in the present century the river Po has been frozen over at Ferrara, admitting for a long period the constant passage of man and beast. A dispatch from Constantinople, dated Feb. 3, says: "Snow has fallen, until yesterday, without any interruption for fifteen days. There has not been a winter of equal severity for more than twenty years. The snow has extended to Smyrna and the adjacent district of Asia Minor, and even the Greek islands are clothed in white—an appearance most unusual and remarkable."

Other accounts from Asia Minor describe snow storms, in one of which a Greek monastery was buried, and the five monks had to be excavated by the Turks. At Malta the snow, which had not fallen since the Russian Campaign of 1812, was some feet high, and accompanied with hail and tempests. The navigation with Odessa is entirely closed, while the disasters in the Black Sea, the Sea of Marmora, and in the Dardanelles, and their connections have been very numerous, although they have been mostly confined to the native craft. The sufferings of the poor on the land have been dreadful, as their dwellings, not constructed for such casualties, have been broken down by the snow, and their ordinary clothing has offered no protection from the unusual cold.—Boston Journal.

EUROPEAN FOLLY.—An eminent French statistician states that the land and naval forces of the European armies number 2,800,000 sound, picked men, in the prime of their productive strength; the annual outlay required to keep up the armies and the material of war is over $400,000,000, not including the value of land or buildings, occupied by fortifications, arsenals, hospitals, foundries, schools, etc., moderately estimated at $3,000,000, on which, at four per cent. interest, the yearly expense is more than $150,000. To this add the value of the labor which these men would productively perform, which amounts to more than $156,000,000, and we have an annual war expense paid by European producers of nearly $800,000,000.

HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON,
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington. He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1858.

New Hampshire Election.

We give below the returns of votes so far as received—for which we are indebted to the courtesy of our neighbors of the Ballot, and Conductor Noyes in furnishing us with an extra Concord Statesman.

The majority for Haile will probably reach 5'000. The Legislature stands with about the same Republican majority as last year. The Republican Officers in this County are undoubtedly all elected, by nearly 200 majority.

Votes for Governor.

These 153 towns, if our figuring is correct, and we have taken much pains to make it so, give Haile a majority of 4740, against 3198 last year. If the towns to be heard from give a proportionate gain, Haile's majority will be about 5000.

A despatch from Concord to the Boston papers of last evening says returns from 158 towns, which give the following footings:—

Haile	28,917
Cate	23,937

Of the representatives elected, 140 are Republicans, and 59 democrats.

CONGRESS.

On Tuesday, March 9, the Senate passed a bill for the relief of Com. Jones.

Mr. Houston presented the joint resolution of the Texas Legislature relative to a Southern State Rights Convention, in the event of the rejection of the Lecompton Constitution.

The bill for the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, was taken up, and Mr. Hamlin of Me. made a speech which was cut short by adjournment.

The House considered Mr. Quitman's Volunteer bill.—Mr. Faulkner of Va. said,

The war in Utah was a war against the people of Utah, on account of their religion. Whoever engaged in such a war, whether a volunteer or a regular, would be guilty of murder. The executive has plainly said he does not want volunteers.

Pending the question, the House went into Committee on the Diplomatic Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Keitt, of S. C., in discussing the Constitutional power to admit new States, defined his views of political government. Contrary to the views of some of his friends, he believed that the people of Kansas cannot change their Constitution prior to 1864. As to the admission of Kansas, if the Republicans tell the South that no slave State should hereafter be admitted, they will shake every pillar in the political Union. Should this policy be carried into effect, no federal tax-gatherer would ever again tread the soil of the South. When the work of incendiarism, propagandism, and revolution begins, this Union will end—it may be, in blood.

Mr. English of Indiana alluded to the assaults upon Northern Democrats who voted against the Kansas-Nebraska bill. They risked everything while the South risked nothing. He appealed to Southern gentlemen, whether they would, for the sake of a shadow, for an empty triumph, turn a deaf ear to such friendly warnings as would enable Northern Democrats to maintain the Union and the integrity of their party at home.

Mr. Montgomery (of Pa.) said the only question submitted was, "Whether slaves should be imported into the Territory?" The slavery question was never submitted. By the Constitution Slavery may exist there forever.

Mr. Stephens (of Ga.) suggested a night session, but Mr. Washburn objected, and the House adjourned.

REVIVALS OF RELIGION. The New Bedford Standard says that it is a singular fact that almost all our great commercial revulsions have been succeeded by a great revival of religion.

FIGHT IN MANCHESTER.—Manchester, N. H., March 9th.—In ward 5, to-day at 12 o'clock, when but few citizens were in the ward-room, a gang of rowdies rushed into the room, seized the check list, tore it in pieces, broke up the furniture, stove one ballot-box in pieces and threw the other two out of the windows, which were saved. Several persons were badly beaten. It is said that the assailants were democrats who were offended because certain Irishmen were not put on the check list. At four o'clock the Board re-assembled, counted the vote, and announced the election of the Republican representatives.

Some fights have taken place between the Irish Democrats and Irish Republicans, but all is now quiet, at 7 P. M.

NASHUA, N. H., March 9th.—Albin Beard, editor of the New Hampshire Telegraph, was elected Mayor of this City by a large majority. Seven Republican and three Democratic Representatives were elected.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—This remedy for Dyspepsia, which astonishes all who have used it, by its instantaneous and almost miraculous effect, has obtained a distinction and popularity beyond any medicine we have ever known. Q.

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Black Dose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects:

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

The Class meetings of the Methodist Church will assemble at half past 7 o'clock this evening.

☞ "The Hutchinsons" offer one of their always-delicious musical treats, at the Temple to-night. A friend and admirer of the family, sends us the following mention of this branch:

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors.—Allow me to inform you, and through you your many readers, that Lizzie Hutchinson, of the troupe about to visit our city, is not one of the original Hutchinson Family, although "akin by marriage,"—being the wife of Asa. She has never sung here; and, I believe, has never appeared before an audience previous to this season. Joshua is also a stranger in our midst. Heretofore he has given concerts alone, and sustained himself admirably. There is only one in this company of the favorite Trio who so frequently charm us with their delightful harmonies. They are temporarily separated; and will soon be united in New York, where Judson and John now are.—Boston papers state that Abby (Mrs. Patton) is again singing in public. If this be true, may we have the pleasure of seeing and hearing the sweet singer once more!

They are indeed "a remarkable family;" and so long as their fame is accompanied by unblemished morality and genial-heartedness, as it has always been, they will continue every way worthy of the admiration and respect of every community.

☞ Dr. Cutter gave a very interesting and instructive Lecture to Ladies, at the Temple, on Tuesday afternoon—so we are told. Also performed most astonishing scientific experiments, and lectured, (as advertised) on Wednesday evening, to the gratified acceptance of an intelligent and appreciative audience. To-night he gives way for the Hutchinsons.—but will perform again on Friday evening. Don't fail to see and hear him.

☞ If any of our readers wish to be amused, entertained, instructed, astonished, convinced—let them call on Mr. C. H. Foster, the celebrated Spiritual Medium, at No. 17 Vaughan Street, corner of School. He will do all he advertises, and probably much more,—how he does it, or rather how it is done, let him say who can, and prove it. All who call will be sure of the most courteous reception, and that nothing will be done or said to offend the most fastidious.

☞ If it is worth while to "celebrate" a political victory at all—to make a noise over the effect of that instrumentality which "executes the freeman's will" so silently—we don't know of any way so good as to bring out the music. The Democrats employed the Cornet Band to help them rejoice over their victory in the city—and gave a free collation to the crowd, at the Franklin House, on Tuesday evening. The procession and band saluted the residences of the successful Democratic candidates—and various acknowledgements and speeches. Let us have the music, at all events—the influence of that can not but be good, whether the influence of any party is or not.

☞ The Commissary General fired a salute of 100 guns, with 3 field pieces, on Wednesday evening, in honor of the Republican success in the State election, and the election of Mr. Samuel P. Dow as Senator from this district. R. R.

☞ We understand that some error, to the amount of 20 or 25 votes, has been discovered in the count and declaration of votes in Ward 1 in this city. A check list kept by a citizen near the polls, is said to contain 648 names checked—and the town clerk's list 647 checks, of persons voting—but the two highest votes for Representative amount to only 627,—or 20 short. If this difference is verified, it will change the face of affairs materially, as it would defeat the choice of nearly every person purporting to be elected from the ward.

☞ By the new Ward division of this city, Portsmouth gains one Representative to General Court—Wards 1 and 2 sending three each, and Ward 3 sending two.—This delegation of eight, consists of five Democrats and three Republicans, as may be seen by looking at the list of Representatives elected—the names of the latter being in Roman, and those of the former in italic.

☞ In our Wednesday's report of the vote of this city, occurred a few trifling mistakes. Solomon Seymour had 324 votes for Alderman, instead of 327 we gave him. Nathaniel K. Raynes had 327 votes for Representative, instead of 324 we gave him. (N. K. Raynes also received two votes.) Thomas J. Parsons had 813 for Councillor, instead of 817 we gave him.

DEATHS IN FEBRUARY.—The record of mortality in Portsmouth, for the past month, includes but eleven names.

Males six—aged 5 months, 1 year, 4 years, 7, 40, 63.

Females five—aged 14 mos., 15 mos., 18 mos., 19 years, 75.

☞ A special and important business meeting of the Christian Church and Society will be held this (Thursday) Evening, at the Vestry in the Temple, at 7 1-2 o'clock.

TORONTO MARKET REPORT.
Front Street, Corn Market Square,
Toronto, C. W., Mar. 3, 1858.

The activity which characterized our Wheat Market, as noted in my last, continues unabated. We have had large supplies from farmers, and by rail,—our daily receipts averaging 5000 Bushels, which has been eagerly bought up for milling and speculative account. Prices are firm at quotations.

In Flour a good deal has been done for storage till spring, for forward delivery, but millers very sparingly replenish our market, holding on for an advance equivalent to that in Wheat, and the market closes very firmly for all grades, but particularly for choice extras of sound Wheat.

In Coarse Grains very little doing.—For Seeds a very good Eastern demand, but our supplies are as yet quite trifling.

A Steamer is announced to ply next week between Toronto and the Suspension Bridge. Attention is called to the subjoined reduced Tariff Freights now in operation.

Fine Flour, $2 50 to 2.60 per bl.; No. 2 Superfine 3.25 to 3.30; No. 1 do., 3 60 to 3.70; Fancy, 3 85 to 4 00; Extra, 4 12 to 4.25; Double Ex, 4.40 to 4.75.

In quantities not less than 100 bbls. of any one grade.

Wheat.—Prime white winter 95 to 100c; fair average do. 85 to 90c; Spring 70 to —c; per 60 lbs.

Oats 25c per 34lbs. Barley 50 a 55c per 48 lbs.

Rye 56c per 56lbs. Peas 55 a 60c per 60 lbs.

Hogs 5 50 a 5 75 per 100lbs.

For freights to Susp. Bridge, add 20c per brl. and 8c per bus.

Bank Drafts on New York par to ¼ per cent. premium; Boston par; American bills at ¼ per cent. advance of New York quotations.

Freights from Toronto by rail, for full car loads only, to Montreal 55c a bl., 15c. a bush.; to Boston 115c a bl., 34c a bush.; to Portland 105c. a bl., 31c. bush.; to Ogdensburgh 50c. a bl., 15 c. a bush.; to New York 100c a bl. 26 c. a bush. Rates to Island Pond, Northumberland, Danville Junction, are same as to Portland.

CHARGES ON WHEAT are 5c. per bushel, which covers commission for selecting, purchasing, storing, bagging, and putting on cars; or may remain stored till Spring without extra charge, except for Insurance, which will be about 1 per cent. more.

CHARGES ON FLOUR.—Purchasing and putting on Cars 1 per cent.; storage till Spring, 5c. per bl., which puts on board in Spring. Insurance, extra, 1 per cent. The above are the charges with funds in hand. Warehouse receipts given when required.

T. M. CLARK, PURCHASING BROKER, and Consular Agent for the United States.

RUMORED OUTRAGES.—St. Louis, March 9.—The Republican learns that an attempt has been made to abduct the Judges of the election at the Delaware Crossing precinct, to prevent their giving in their evidence to General Denver, as requested by Calhoun, and that Isaac Mundie, one of the Judges, was shot in the head and killed.

The clerks of the Shawnee precinct were preparing a certificat under oath, stating that they gave the testimony they did before the Investigating Committee, under threats of death.

A letter from Fort Scott says that that place has been taken by a company of Lane's men, who were robbing the stores and stealing horses. No lives lost.

The Leader learns from a gentleman from Kansas, that the Topekaites and anti-Topekaites at Leavenworth, have quarrelled concerning the policy to be pursued, and that two sets of candidates have been nominated to the Constitutional Convention. The Democrats made no nomination.

It is reported that Gen. Lane has issued a proclamation, calling on the free State militia to attack Western Missouri. This report is discredited here.

Both the Rpublican and the Leader, are poor authority for items of this kind.—Nevertheless, they may be true.

HALIFAX, March 10.—The steamship Canada arrived at this port this morning, with Liverpool dates of the 27th ult.

Sales of Cotton for the week 51,000 bales. There has been a further advance on all descriptions.

Breadstuffs generally quiet.

Provisions have a declining tendency.

☞ In the Washington items of March 9, for the Times, is is said;—

The House Committee on Territories will probably report in favor of sending three Commissioners to Utah with the army, in hope that the Mormons will embrace the opportunity to disavow their rebellion and agree to submit to the laws of the Union.

Hunters, Trappers, Backwoodsmen and Farmers,

Arouse to your Interests!

VIGILANCE SUPERCEDED & DANGER AVOIDED, WITH

BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barbels discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Mink, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tinlest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are some means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Huckinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, if you wish to make such an arrangement. As I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Ayer's CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so easily, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, — health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his sallow complexion blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which humanity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted disease and anguish in his joints and bones; move him, and he screches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutch now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the rose blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy smiles from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms, its cast, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its clouded-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful tale in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS, and it goes to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it cruelty to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sick-ache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the disease, however dangerous its nature, or long-seated, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must harrow in the brutes and in the sea. Prices, 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years, long enough every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were decorated beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyment of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him Consumption. He tries every thing; but the disease has gained a his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more every day till death. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Search his dwelling, and no cough can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs, are speedily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a fold, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three parts, as, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, to every man who asks for them, they have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these medicines, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. This country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. Such small capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—of every lottery where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other lotteries in the country can be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Private Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificate, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons of New Legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every four must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. Prizes are drawn by combinations of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $7,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ Any of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and are conducted under the law of the State, which is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that they have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (other than the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes range in amount from $20 to $100 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous and ignorant have taken the place of the profound and learned. BEIF KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, OR WIDOWS, that DR. CHEESE'S WAFER PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to the female organization; they alone correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, rushes of blood to the head, and causing health and happiness to which they are liable, to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are safe, reliable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines that put upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS or DR. CURTIS'S ESPERANCE will accomplish the desired object, when all other remedies have been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to be read among their friends, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said PILLS are in one case must be considered NULL AND VOID; that by taking PILLS our son be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, other wise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on receiving $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No 4,671, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Massachusetts Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring he tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of keys, the lower having an octave bi her than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; by the aid of the coupler the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The combination is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious building

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced workmen in our business. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument which is not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee in every case perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Lecturers, Societies, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will testify to the perfection we claim called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Ballets & Blake,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Edward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing, will find it to their interest, as we have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it is the intention of those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly and faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

AN HOUR WITH A SPIRITUALIST.

From the Newburyport Herald.

No one has yet been able to satisfy the majority in the community, what spiritualism is, or whence is the power manifested. The phenomena are nothing new, and we have seen no good therefrom, nor do we credit the rumors of evil so current. All ages have had their spiritualism, from the days of Moses down to Buchanan. The Egyptians saw miracles from their priests, and the Israelites beheld the works of their witches, even to the calling of their dead from the graves. The Grecians and Romans had their oracles; and the astrologers that followed, and the necromancers and wizards, all performed what was wonderful, to the multitudes. It is the same today as it was yesterday, and from the beginning of time.

We were never much interested in the matter, for there is enough of mystery in life without opening new made graves or waking the dead of a thousand years.—There is absolutely nothing more mysterious in a table jumping up from the earth, than there was in Newton's apple falling down. We may say that one is contrary to the laws of nature and the other according to those laws, and that answer may satisfy those who receive their opinions from others. But neither of these were according to law, before the law was known. Newton said the apple fell by the law of gravitation, and one of these days somebody will have it just as well settled that the tables tip by some other law, and when that law is named in philosophy, one will be as natural as the other and no more a mystery. We don't deny what is patent to our senses, because received philosophy denies it. Philosophy has denied everything new—it denies everything not written in its books. Egyptian philosophy denied Moses, and Jewish philosophy denied Christ, and every step in the world's progress has been questioned and doubted, and so it will be to the end of time. This is right if made in a right spirit and carried to a proper extent. We should investigate everything, and believe only on evidence, being able, in the language of the Apostle, to "give a reason for the hope that is in us."

The man who believes the Bible even, simply because somebody tells him it is true, must by the same rule believe the Koran, the Shaster, the Talmud, and the Book of Mormon, if he should happen to meet with their respective priests, and be told they were true. But the man who believes nothing, not even the testimony of his own senses, because it is opposed to popular opinion, is as credulous in his way as the one who puts faith in everything.—To doubt that the earth revolves around the sun because the philosophy of the times said it was a false doctrine, and persecuted Galileo for teaching it, or to doubt the manifestations of what is called spiritualism, because Harvard University pronounces it a humbug and expels a student for investigating it, would be as ridiculous as to believe all the fables of the thousand schools of the world at once.

Much of the difficulty in these matters consists in our aspiring to set bounds to the operations of the laws of nature, and calling everything supernatural which appears to transcend these limits, and then refusing to give credence to such supernatural manifestations. Now, generally speaking, everything is governed by the operation of positive eternal law, so that there is little unnatural or supernatural, although the manifestations which are classed as such may come in only at long intervals, the cycles of the law being of immense and even infinite duration. It does not become us to say that such and such laws do not exist, because we have not heretofore seen their operation in our day, or even because they never before appeared in the history of the world. The act of creation may still be going on—new laws may be coming into play; for as Lowell says,—

"God is not dumb, that he should speak no more,"
And so we may say that he is not weary that he should create no more.

Centuries ago a clock was erected on one of the continental cathedrals, which struck the hour every day for a year just like all the other clocks of the city, and the people supposed that they knew the law of its action—that it marked the minutes and the hours alone—but they were mistaken, for at midnight on the last day of the year a wheel had just completed its revolution, and the number of the new year in the century was struck. Generations passed away from the sound of its voice, and others took their places; empires rose and fell, and the whole face of the earth had changed, and still that wheel regularly completed its annual revolution and the number of the new year was rung out.—But the law of that clock was not yet developed, for on the last night of the sixteenth century, another wheel which had been slowly turning for a hundred years, completed its revolution, and to the surprise of all, with solemn and measured stroke, the ponderous hammer struck 17 times on the booming bell, to welcome the dawn of the seventeenth century. So in the natural world the cycles are of every period of duration, and the manifestations come in at indefinite periods,—the revolution of the earth being but a day, the complete procession of the equinoxes more than twenty five thousand years, the period of the elliptical orbit of our solar system millions upon millions, and the orbit of one group of fixed stars in space perhaps an eternity.

Without enquiring at this time what this new class of manifestations is—whether the operations of spirits, of electricity, or of the odic force, or whether these three are one, we give a brief report of some experiments which we witnessed at a private sitting at Prof. Foster's, a day or two since. There were four of us present—all, it is presumed, in the full possession of our senses, and determined to give the matter a candid investigation. Just previous to our arrival, the table usually occupied was broken by the violence of the manifestations, so that another was brought out for our sitting, which would preclude the idea that it was prepared for the occasion. We formed a circle around it, and upon "the laying on of hands" audible raps informed us that a communication was desired with one of the number, and a name was spelt out, which no one at first recognized, tho' in a moment one of the number exclaimed that it was the name of a friend of his father, who had often requested that he—should be named for him. As if to corroborate this the table began to ride violently back and forth and rose several times some two feet from the floor, in spite of our united efforts to restrain it. The spirit or influence then seized this person's hands and tugged at his coat sleeve with considerable force; afterwards it touched each of us in succession, and ended by pulling a chair out from under one of the company.

A violin rest was laid on the floor, when the strings commenced snapping as if being tuned, ending with a performance with the bow wielded by invisible hands. The instrument then came up into the lap of one of the sitters, when a request was written out that he should take it into his hand, and the spirits would pull it away from him, which they did with such force that it struck another of the sitters with unpleasant violence. After this a card, on which a private mark had been made, was thrown upon the floor, and on taking it up a moment after, the name of the mother of one of the company was found written upon it in a very fine and distinct hand. These and similar experiments occupied a sitting of two hours, during which we saw enough to convince us that these things are founded in the laws of the universe, and that whether any practical good results from them or not, they demand investigation from those who love the truth for the truth's sake.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works; to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons who stood high in the profession, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the laws, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,
is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unusual frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1858.

FROM ENGLAND we learn, via the Canada, that the Palmerston Ministry has resigned, and that Earl Derby had formed a new cabinet.

From China, we have the news that Canton was captured on the 29th Dec. and that Yeh and the Tartar General were taken and r etained as prisoners.

The Cantonese submitted and evacuated the city of Canton on the 30th of Dec.

The Governor of Canton was taken prisoner, as well as Yeh and the Tartar General. The Governor (Pihquei) was subsequently installed as Vice-Governor of the city, with powers similar to those wielded previously by Yeh. The Allies were to continue their protectorate until satisfactory terms were made with the Government at Pekin. A Commission, composed of two Englishman and one Frenchman, had been charged with the supervision of the government, and had issued a proclamation inviting the people to return, assuring them of protection.

At the departure of the mail, everything was quiet, and there was a fair prospect of the taking off of the blockade, and the resumption of trade within a week.

In the assault there were numerous hand-to-hand encounters. The British lost 100, and the French 30 in killed and wounded.

A large amount of treasure was captured, but plunder was forbidden.

At Hong Kong freights were dull and easier, and tonnage was increasing.

At Shanghae a large business had been done in Tea, but sales were checked by English advices. Freights were unaltered.

U. S. ships-of-war Minnesota, Mississippi, Portsmouth and San Jacinto were at Hong Kong, Jan. 14.

In France,—an immense number of arrests are said to have been made recently in Paris and the provinces, among them three members of the Paris bar, belonging to the Republican party.

The trial of the conspirators commenced on the 25th, before the Court of Assizes of Seine. The indictment is very lengthy, and circumstantial. The prisoners are all young men, with the exception of Pieri, who is middle-aged. They all seemed composed, and listened with attention to the proceedings. Gomez denied any participation in the act, and only knew of it at the last moment. Rudio confessed everything—he threw one bomb, and incriminated the rest of the prisoners. Orsini accepted the full responsibility of the part he had taken in the affair; confessed that he wanted to kill the Emperor, and was ready to die; he never confided his intention to Mr. Allsop; said Mr. Bernard brought the bombs to Brussels, but did not know what purpose they were intended; would not say anything as to the other prisoners.

Pierri denied all participation in the conspiracy until the day the attempt was made, and then repented.

Mr. Taylor, of Birmingham, maker of bombs, did not answer to his name.

Latest.—Paris, Friday.—The jury have given a verdict of guilty as regards four of the accused. The Court pronounces the sentence of death on Orsini, Rudio and Pierri. Gomez was sentenced to penal servitude for life.

No news from India, of any consequence.

☞ In Watertown, Mass., for several years, and ever since the prosecution of Abel Hunt for violation of the liquor law, that gentleman has been importunate in his demands upon the town to be reimbursed for moneys expended by him in fines. At the town meeting on Monday the usual article was inserted in the warrant—"To see if the town will refund to Abel Hunt $300 paid by him and on account of him, for fines," under the liquor law of 1852. The meeting voted as usual not to refund.

☞ At the prayer meeting in the Methodist church in John street, New York, on Monday, it was announced that several losses of money had been suffered from pickpockets in the crowd, whereupon the conductor of the meeting said "that they were proper persons to pray for," and a petition was accordingly made, "that if they had come to steal purses, God might steal their hearts."

☞ The two public sales of tea at New York last week did not go off with the usual spirit; the tendency was in favor of buyers, and a large portion of both catalogues had to be withdrawn.

☞ Mahmoud Effendi, a Turk, was recently baptised at Stoke, England, and has since married the daughter of an English army officer.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Mr. Stevens, of Georgia, has prepared a report of the views of the majority of the House Committee on Kansas, to the effect, that the facts show in relation to the Lecompton Constitution, great regularity and strict conformity to law, and that no State heretofore applying for admission has shown a clearer record. That all the Constitutions of the old States, except Massachusetts, were made by conventions without ratifications by the people.* So was the Constitution of the United States. There are but 34 organized counties in Kansas, and 24 of them were represented in the Convention. Nine of the ten unrepresented counties have very little population.—In seven of them not a vote was cast last January against the Constitution. In two others of the nine, less than 100 votes were thrown, and in the four remaining, —Franklin, Anderson, Coffee, and Breckenridge,—the officers were prevented from making a registry. The five counties of Leavenworth, Atchison, Douglas, Doniphan and Jefferson, gave 5118 votes, a majority of the whole vote against the Constitution, and these counties had 36 of the 60 delegates in the Convention. The Committee declined to go into the question of frauds in the election for State officers on the 4th of January, as not being within their jurisdiction.

It is ascertained that about twenty-five more speeches are to be delivered in the Senate on the Kansas bill, notwithstanding it is supposed that a vote will be taken on it the next week. The speeches in the House to-day, on the same subject, were read from manuscript. Fifty members, at least, desire the floor, to express their views on the Kansas affairs.

Advices from Tampa, Fla., state that Billy Bowlegs has sent his negro to the fort there, to say that the Indians were willing to emigrate. Bowlegs had sent for Jumper, to hold a talk.

*We have seen this falsehood ten times over,—but it remains a falsehood still.—The Constitution of New Hampshire was formed, the Convention adjourned—and the Constitution went to the several towns for action. The town of Newington voted unanimously to accept the bill of rights—but voted unanimously against the other provisions, because the ratio of representation, 150 to a Representative, would deprive them of theirs.—There was a special provision put in to meet the case—and the town of Newington accepted it.

SIN REPROVED.—It has been understood that ministers are to rebuke all sin; and that as watchmen, if they see the sword coming, they are to give timely warning. Cowper says of a faithful minister,—

"By him the violated law speaks out
Its thunders."

So the minister of E. thought. It is a back town, nestled in between the hills. They have no rail-road. The mail comes once a week. Some take the papers, and some do not. Some are very much attached to the old order of things, and think the improvements of the age all nonsense. I was there a few months teaching school, and found Church members that thought liquor drinking justifiable, not only when washing sheep and in haying, but a little any time when they could get it. I heard one of them undertake to quote the Bible in favor of it, thus, "Drink no longer water" I am pretty sure he did not drink much water, when he could get rum and cider.

As to slavery, they shuddered at the thought of its being done away, as the emancipated would all come here, and that would be frightful!

Well, the minister said drinking was bad, and slavery was a sin. Enough said, "we want to hear the gospel. We will leave the meeting." So they did, and it seems they thought it would about break down. But the heavens did not fall, neither was the earth moved out of its place. The meeting is as prosperous as it ever was. The pulpit is free, and we trust it "Shall stand acknowledged, while the world shall stand."

Those who left went to another society in a place not far off. But the paper of that denomination is as stern as the chiefest in reproving intemperance and oppression. Glad of it; agitate, agitate till the great evils of the age are overthrown.

SIMON.

☞ Our old friend Dr. E. R. Clarke, of Sharon, Mass., has sent us a box containing a dozen packages of his excellent Corn Starch, and a good-sized bottle of his popular Shery Wine Bitters. The Corn Starch we can guarantee is first rate—the Bitters "went" so quick that t e is no question many people will vouch for their quality. Both may be had almost anywhere—for Clarke is always up to the times in keeping supplies, and letting the people know it. Hence his general success. F.

NEW HAVEN, March 10.—Rev. Nathaniel W. Taylor, Dwight Professor of Didactic Theology, in Yale College and author of a system of theology, expired at his residence in this city this morning at one o'clock, in the 72d year of his age. It was to him that President Buchanan recently addressed his celebrated answer to the New Haven memorialists.

BOUGHT AND SOLD.—A friend of ours, who lived on Grosse Isle, who has an eye to a good horse, and who is always open to trade, was accosted near his own door, lately, by a stranger who wanted to inquire the way. The stranger had under him a smart lively pony, which it struck our friend was near enough like one of his own to make a good mate; he therefore asked the wayfaring man what he would take for his beast.

"Well, I don't care to sell him, but if I let him go, I must have forty dollars."

Our friend held his pony at eighty, and the stranger's animal appeared every whit as good; so he offered thirty-five dollars, and was taken up, and the money paid over.

The afternoon was occupied in searching after his pony, which all of a sudden came up missing, and could not be found. Putting that and that together, our friend was induced to examin his new purchase a little more narrowly, when he discovered by the aid of his family that he had been buying his own horse! The "stranger" being tracked up, turned out to be the hired man of his neighbor G——'s upon whom our friend had cracked many practical jokes in his time, but none among them at all equal to this. —Ohio Statesman.

The Free Dining Saloon of Mr. Farmer is still open in the city of New York. He has freely spent $7000 in this benevolent manner, and calculates to spend $5000 more. Opposite the premises, extended across the streets, is a huge banner bearing this inscription: "John W. Farmer's Free Dining Saloon. Plenty to eat and nothing to pay." The New York Times says:

"Between the hours of 12 M. and 2 P. M. this Free Dining Saloon is open to all comers without charge. To each is given a large bowl of soup and a good slice of meat, with plenty of vegetables. Of our own knowledge we can assert that the soup, meat and vegetables are of excellent quality and well cooked.

For the rest of the day, between the hours 7 A. M. and 11 P. M., the bearer of a ticket (hundreds of which are left at the different police stations) can always obtain food. The ticket reads as follows: "John W. Farmer's Free Dining Saloon, No. 47 Ludlow street. Come and eat, ye poor and hungry, without money and without price."

The Irish are the most numerous applicants for these free meals; next are English and Germans, then Americans, and lastly negroes. The negroes hover about the doors, and seem afraid to enter without a special invitation. But they are good feeders when they take their place at the table. The saddest is to see women there with a troup of decent children. Over sixty families depend every day upon Mr. Farmer's bounty. And there are some instances of men with good coats on their backs, who, to all appearance should be earning their thousand or fifteen hundred dollars a year, who say they are out of employment, and dine with Mr. Farmer every day."

NEW YORK, March 10.—The ship David Brown, Capt. Behm, sailed yesterday for Singapore. Before reaching Sandy Hook a row occurred on board in consequence of the violent conduct of the second mate; this officer, it seems, went on board in a state of intoxication, and in a short time began to abuse the men, striking them with a shovel, and otherwise maltreating them.—Of course the crew rebelled. Capt. Behm arrested the second mate and locked him up, but he broke out again more violent than ever. The captain then concluded that it was best to dispense with the services of the ruffian, and coming to an anchor on the outer bar, he sent him up by the steam tug Webb. The tug later in the day took down a more peaceable substitute, and the David Brown put out to sea. The second mate has been locked up on a charge of inciting to mutiny.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Henry R. Brotherson, head book keeper of the Union Bank, is a defaulter to the amount of $100,000. The money has been lost at the gaming table. A warrant for his arrest has been issued, but he is not to be found. Brotherson is thirty-three years of age, and has a wife and one child.

The silk store in Chamber street robbed on Monday night was that of Lockham & Co., and the amount of goods taken was $15,000.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Tribune cor.—To-morrow, Mr. Harris will make his motion relative to the select Kansas Committee, when a severe contest will probably ensue. If the opposition are in their seats, the Lecomptonites are sure to be defeated.

N. H. ELECTION.—Coacord, March 11. 180 towns give Haile 31,832; Cate 27,166. If 44 places to hear from should vote as last year, Haile's majority will be 4763—at present it is 4667.

Newington.—F. W. DeRochemont, Jas. P. Fabyan, Wallace Lane, Selectmen.

New-Castle.—Thos. Tarlton, C. Davis, 2d, Thomas Rand, Selectmen. Wm. Vennard, Town Clerk. Rev. Lucius Alden, Sup. School Committee.

The Washington Union gives Mr. John Van Buren a capital puff, apropos of his recent speech at Tammany Hall. It says "he is one of the most electrical orators in this or any other country." The New York Times adds: "Judging by the shocks he has given the Democratic party, from 1848 to the present time, we think the Union is quite right."

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects:

THE WARD ONE ELECTION CASE.

Messrs. Editors:—There has been much talk about the streets, of fraud or mistake in the count and declaration of the votes in Ward One, and I observe in this (Thursday) morning's Chronicle an intimation that "some error has been discovered" as follows, "The town clerk's list contains 647 checks of persons voting—but the two highest votes for Representative amount to only 627," and hence you conclude an error.

Allow me first to suggest that I do not understand what you mean by "the two highest votes for Representative." If you mean literally so, then the aggregate of the the highest, viz. for Jenness and Raynes, was 318 and 327, equal 645; or if the two highest on opposite sides, then the aggregate of Raynes' and Goodwin's was 327 and 305; equal 632, or if you mean the number of votes declared for Representatives, that was 629. But the checking was not for Representatives alone, but for sixteen classes of officers, which required sixteen different counts and declarations, varying from 621 to 634 votes. Nor was the vote for Representative the largest, but for Common Councilmen, which was 634.

Having then the facts in the premises, let us inquire to what conclusions they lead. 634 names must have been checked of persons voting for com. councilmen.—There was one fraudulent vote thrown out, which must have been checked, making 635, leaving 12 checks which were for persons voting for other classes of officers except councilmen, or casting blanks. The highest number of votes declared for any one class of officers, where several classes are being voted for at the same time, is no criterion for determining the number of names which should be checked. It would be a remarkable circumstance for any one class among several to receive the support of every person voting; and yet to conclude error in this case! you must establish the presumption that at every election where several different kinds of officers are voted for, every one voting must vote for the class receiving the highest number of votes, which is simply absurd.

For illustration suppose 16 voters to go to the polls, the first voting only for Governor, the second for R. R. Commissioner, the third for Councillor, and so through, each voting but for one class of officers, how many names will be checked? 16 to be sure. How many votes declared? only one for any officer or class. Is there then an error in the count?

This is an extreme case but a parallel one, and demonstrates that the number of names checked on the List is no evidence of the number of votes cast for any one class of officers, when several are voted for at the same time.

If you please another case may be supposed, more nearly like the one in question, in which the principle is the same. Suppose 10 of the 16 vote the whole ticket, 2 vote only for State and County officers, 3 vote only for City and Ward officers, and 1 for Mayor only. Here 16 names will be checked,—12 votes will be found and declared for State and County officers, 13 for Aldermen, &c., and 14 for Mayor; the highest count and declaration falling two short of the number of names checked!

And is there error in the count and declaration? The only astonishment is that any man possessed of the facts, with a competency of arithmetical knowledge, and any acquaintance with the manner of counting votes, should risk his reputation for honesty and intelligence by giving currency to a suspicion of fraud, or even error, in such a case. Z.

Messrs. Editors:—At the Green House of Mr. Bunning in the vicinity of the Creek, to my great surprise I found the most beautiful collection of plants in full flower that I ever saw at this season of the year. Among the most beautiful are the Gilliflower, twelve varieties; Polyanthus in almost numberless variety; Pansies of extraordinary size and the most beautiful specimens; Double Violets of rare beauty and fragrance; Oxalis in endless profusion, with Verbenas, Salvia Splenders, and Novum Fulgens, Mignonette, Double Wale Flower, and a host of others, all delighting the eye and loading the air with their fragrance.

Added to this, the proprietor is a true true gentleman and one of the most thorough-bred florists in the State. A visit to this beautiful spot, cannot but amply repay any one. ALIQUIS.

☞ The vote for Mr. Morrison as Mayor, in Ward 2, was 262, not 252 as reported—and there were 2 scattering votes in Ward 3—so that there were 1589 votes for Mayor, and Mr. Morrison has 81 majority, as the votes were declared.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING, &c.

There will be Social Meetings in the Advent Chapel to-day, for the benefit of the public, beginning at 10 and 2 o'clock.

Eld. Whitney will preach in the Advent Chapel this evening.

There will be a Prayer and Conference meeting at the Vestry in the Temple, this evening at 7 o'clock.

There will be a meeting for Prayer and Conference, in the Chapel of the Middle Street Church, this evening, at half past 7 o'clock.

There is to be a Prayer Meeting in the vestry of the Methodist Church, this evening, beginning at 7 1-2 o'clock.

There is to be a meeting for Prayer and Conference in the brick Vestry on Fleet street, at 7 1-2 o'clock this evening.

There will be a Prayer Meeting in the Vestry of the Old South Church, this evening, at 7 o'clock.

☞ Dr. Cutter delivered a very interesting and instructive Lecture on Psychology, at the Temple on Wednesday evening, to a large and intelligent audience. His experiments were entirely satisfactory—and his lecture replete with valuable instruction. Teeth were extracted from two ladies, without their knowledge, as they afterwards declared. Dr. Fuller pulled one, assuring the audience it was a bona fide transaction.

Dr. Cutter lectures again this evening and merits a full house.

☞ The town meeting in Ward 1, adjourned to this forenoon, is for the choice of one selectman, and one member of the common council.

☞ We print on the first page an article of interest to all readers, on the subject of Spiritualism. The Prof. Foster referred to, is now stopping in this city, at No. 17 Vaughan street.

☞ Why is a Sewing Machine like "the enemy?" Because it "sews tares" (sews tears.)

Why is a Sewing Machine a great friend? Because it "sews up" all kinds of rents, except house rent.

The Ne Plus Ultra Sewing Machine, doubtless, is referred to—for sale at No. 21 Daniel Street.

BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!

MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barrels discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Mink, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Renovator; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being last dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement. as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, ESQ., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

Morning Chronicle.

☞ On Wednesday, an old fox made its appearance on the premises of Amariah Briggs, of West Deerfield. Mr. Briggs and his boys and dogs gave chase to the fox, and after dodging about in a piece of corn stalks some time, the dogs being unable to give a bite at the fox, Mr. Briggs succeeded in catching him by the tail, thus capturing him alive.

☞ An advertisement of the celebrated "French's Hotel," New York, will be seen in another column this morning.—This has been a famous and popular resort for travellers, for many years; and the present landlord will spare no pains to retain the confidence and regard of the great locomotive public.

☞ Mr. Jonathan A. Rogers, of Gloucester Mass., was put in jail at Concord, N. H. on Saturday the 6th of March, charged with adultery, and also with assaulting a young girl at Fisherville.

☞ Mr. James W. Seral, from the Newton Seminary, was ordained pastor of the Baptist Church in Richmond, N. H. on Wednesday Fed 24. Sermon by Rev. L. Tracy.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to subdue disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the veins, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his channel features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and what the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can cure; but see him go with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See that wasted form with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill; he has been in the coldest of weather; and long ago the these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat, joy smiles from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleeping, all the dreadful symptoms in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Cutaneous Eruptions, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the disease, the dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were not yet within the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is healed. Scarcely a family neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which should have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which secretes of the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, MASS.

Maryland State Lotteries.

E. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $30,000 are in the schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are humbugs, and the money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away, besides the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—in every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided to be Maryland Lottery, and all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No other Managers have the individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings and certify that everything is conducted with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send money to Georgia, and the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are: Whole, $1; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number drawing a prize, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every person being drawn and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the Lottery in Georgia every week, will be printed, and published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. France & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with the Lottery is conducted in a fair manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they were present to purchase tickets in person, or fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized in that State, and are drawn in public every day of the month. No particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets in Lottery will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast passing away, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. DR. BROWN'S TEST PILLS, to all whether MARRIED WIVES, or WIDOWS, that DR CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are ALONE the certain panacea for all those troubles incident to female disorganization; they cannot convert PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing healthy and happiness to shed their sweet influence fully to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—DR. WM. BROWN'S TEST PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, and therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to be the genuine article, but are called TEASPOONS. BE IT KNOWN, that nothing but the said PILLS of DR. CHESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of the PRETENDERS, and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—all other preparations that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say the PILLS FOR SALE NOT to be taken when any other under any band and seal.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring he tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of keys, the lower one reaching an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by coupling the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedals, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficient for Churches or a house that seats from 1000 to 1600 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church instrument, being furnished with two banks of keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Room at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will testify to their excellence, if called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,

Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special notice, as there are those who desire a fair test of the instruments before they purchase, but do it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

DISTRICT TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.—A gentleman who was appointed on a District Committee for one of the Districts in Rockingham County, writes to the Secretary of the County Convention, a letter of inquiry, containing this passage:—

We have looked in vain through the action of the Convention, to ascertain the specific object of our appointment, and to learn what particular duties were expected at our hands. Especially have we been at a loss to know what was our sphere of action as distinguished from the County Committee on the one hand, and the Town Committees, on the other. We are willing to serve the cause in any manner within our power, but desire to know what is desired at our hands. If you, as Secretary of the Convention can inform us, we shall be obliged.

Instead of answering the query by a private letter, the Secretary gives the following answer, through the Chronicle, which will reach all the members of these committees, and also exhibit their field of action to the people of their district.

The Plan of Action and Directions, laid down by the State Committee, call upon each County Commitee, or District Committee,—

1.—To get up temperance meetings throughout their limits, so as to revive, strengthen, and make active, the efforts to promote the christian trait of temperance.

2.—To visit conventions, conferences, or associations of ministers and christians of every name, within their bounds, to enlist them in the work as far as possible.

These are the general duties:—now what are the particular duties of a District Committee—as distinguished from County or Town Committees?

Answer: If Rockingham County were compact, like some others, so that the County Committee could go over it easily, we would have made no districts at all, but would have seen to it that every town had its temperance meetings, &c.

But Rockingham Co. exists in four little groups of towns, each group being drawn into a peculiar neighborhood by means of its own railroad, and each, by the same means, rather shut out from the other groups.

The County Committee therefore thought best, as did the Convention also, to have only one meeting a year for the County, to keep up organization. And to have a committee of ministers in each of these four groups or Districts, who could, better than any other class of men, by their exchanges, their associations, and other means of access to the people, revive and renew temperance efforts in a christian spirit, through all the towns in their several neighborhoods and districts.

The committee for the Portsmouth District have already had a series of temperance lectures in all their towns but one or two, by Mr. Sinclair,—which they could hardly have had without this district organization,—and they can easily, and will shortly, have other meetings.

The town committee, (one man in a town,) is chiefly a committee of arrangement, co-operation, and communication, with the District and County Committees. We have generally written or spoken to them, to provide places for meetings, and aid in various other ways.

The County Committee have appointed Mr. George A. Chase, of Kensington, town committee there, to fill a vacancy.

☞ The Cincinnati (Ohio) Daily Gazette states that a bill has passed the Senate of that State, prohibiting the intermarriage of first cousins. The Gazette says that public sentiment is in favor of that measure.

☞ Coombs, the Polygamist, has been sentenced to five years in the State Prison, it having been proved that he had three wives alive!—Twelve days to be solitary—four for each wife, for reflection on the wrongs done to them.

BOSTON CORN EXCHANGE, held its annual meeting on Tuesday. According to the report, the total receipts of flour and grain at Boston, from March 1, 1857, to March 1, 1858, were as follows:—

Flour, bbls	1,099,942
Corn, bushels	2,615,221
Oats, bushels	708,368
Rye, bushels	43,619
Shorts, bushels	394,556
Wheat, bushels	149,217

UNIVERSAL LOVE.—The love that every one has for his own joke.

THE WAR SONG OF THE MOSLEM.

BY MCDONALD.

Oh! the wine of the vine
Is a feeble thing:
In the rattle of battle
The true grapes spring.

When on force of the horse,
The arm flung abroad
Is sweeping and reaping
The harvest of God.

When the fear of the spear
Makes way for its blow;
And the faithless lie breathless
The horse-hoofs below.

The wave crest, round the breast,
Tosses sabres all red;
But under its thunder
Is dumb to the dead.

They drop from the top
To the scar-heap below;
And deeper, down steeper
The infidels go.

But bright is the light
On the true-hearted breaking;
Rapturous faces bent for embraces
Wait on his waking.

And he hears in his ears
The voice of the river,
Like a maiden, love-laden,
Go wandering ever.

Oh! the wine of the vine
May lead to the gates;
But the rattle of battle
Wakes the angel who waits.

To the lord of the sword
Open it must;
The drinker, the thinker,
Sits in the dust.

He dreams of the gleams
Of their garments of white;
He misses their kisses,
The maidens of light.

They long for the strong,
Who has burst through alarms,
Up, by the labor of stirrup and sabre,
Up to their arms.

Oh! the wine of the grape is a feeble ghost;
But the wine of the fight is the joy of a host.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,
is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1858.

NOT so.—Some days ago we published an item, purporting to be from the New York Tribune's Washington correspondent,—giving the strange intelligence that the Free State men of Kansas now desire admission with the Lecompton constitution.—It turns out, now, that it was from the Herald's correspondent,—which makes quite a difference.—The same news for substance has since purported to come from Kansas, via St. Louis. We suppose one is just as true as the other; and do not believe a syllable of either! It is probable they were made up to influence the election in New Hampshire.

The Baltimore Methodist Conference resolved to establish a newspaper, in part to disabuse the public mind in relation to its views on the question of Slavery, claiming to occupy a conservative position.

A half and half, or non-committal policy, or being on both sides, like going for popular sovereignty and the Lecompton swindle, does not put any man in a very eligible position before the world, though it may sometimes give him office, or put money in his purse.

☞ Hon. Joseph T. Buckingham, formerly editor of the Boston Courier, now well stricken in years, says, in a late letter to that paper:—

"For me, the problem of immortal life or eternal sleep will soon be solved. The great caravansara is in sight. The steps which conduct to its portal will be but few, and, I trust, unfaltering.

"Nightly I pitch my moving tent,
A day's march nearer home."

Immortality seems to him but a problem. How slender then, must be his hold on the hope of that gospel which brings life and immortality to light.

☞ An armed vigilance committee visited a noted drinking resort at Windham Settlement, eight miles from Pimmonsville, N. C., on the 4th inst., for the purpose of breaking it up, when they were fired upon and one of their number was wounded. The fire was returned, killing Caleb Freeman and Abraham Windham, and wounding several others. One of the vigilants is supposed to be mortally wounded.

The Richmond South says that a negro child has recently been born in the neighborhood of Ringgold, in that county, with twenty-six fingers and toes. It has six toes on each foot, and seven fingers on each hand. There are two full sized thumbs on each hand, and two "little" fingers. All these limbs are said to be perfect.

FROM MEXICO.—New York, March, 11. The steamer Tennessee with dates from Vera Cruz to the 7th, and from the city of Mexico to the 5th inst., has arrived here. The papers are filled with the details of civil war in the Sates of Guerrez, Mithoican, and Guanjato, which display the strongest dissatisfaction to the new Government. Generals Doblado, Parodi and Anteaga, are fortified at Celaya, in the State of Guanjaso. Six thousand men and twenty-seven pieces of artillery belonging to the government, were near Celaya, awaiting reinforcements where it was supposed an action would take place. Robbery after robbery was reported. Gen. Alvarez was in the field with three thousand cavalry against the new government.

The downfall of Zuloaga was considered certain. It was rumored that the new government, already pronounced for at Guadalaja and Garrjra, has possession of Tampico, which was in the Federal interest. The whole country was in a lamentable condition.

SHIP STRUCK BY A METEOR.—New York, March, 11.—Ship Caroline Tucker, from Havre, at this port to-day, reports, Feb. 7th, lat. 43 22, lon. 37-30, experienced a harricane for three hours, which shifted in an instant, with a heavy report, from S. S. E to N. N. E., and then blew fearfully with hail and snow. Feb. 21, lat. 47.25, lon. 34.35, during a heavy squall, very dark, ship under close reef sails, were struk by a meteor. No ligtning, but a bot a tremendous report, and our mainmast was enveloped apparently in a shower of rockets. Many of the crew were benumbed from the effects, and the sheet lead on the mast was ripped off complely; and on the deck the copper tacks were brightened but not started.

☞ In Newburyport, some stains and spots of blood on a wharf-post, with hair, supposed to be human, have been discovered, leading some persons to suspect a murder.—No person however, is missed there.

☞ The house of Daniel Clark, Collector of the town of Oakfield, Genesee county, N. Y., was burnt on the 9th inst., together with $2700 in money, $2100 of which belonged to the town.

SPIRITUALISM AND THE CLERGY.

Messrs. Editors:—Some two weeks since I made a call through the columns of your paper, (which practices as well as advocates "Free Speech,") for some members of our clergy to come out and hold a discussion on Spiritualism, with a gentleman who is their peer in every respect. By the ominous silence, which has followed this appeal, we are to infer, I suppose, that they are of the opinion, that the people know enough about it already.

This is a matter of deep moment to every individual,—if not now, surely it must be in future, when called to take the departing hand of those we love. It is the duty of every one, and more especially of every Christian Teacher, to earnestly investigate the subject; not with minds prejudiced against it, but in a fair and rational manner,—seeking for every ray of light that may tend to illumine it. That the people can be kept in ignorance, they surely cannot expect; for in darker ages, who ever relied upon that course, most signally failed.

Why not, then, if they feel sure they are right, come out, as did the Apostles of Old, to meet, discuss, and contend with whoever dare oppose them. Can we imagine Christ or one of the Disciples, refusing to openly discuss before the people, with any candid opponent, their respective doctrines or teachings? On the contrary, do we not find them, on the Sabbath Day, entering the Synagogues of the Jews, preaching Christ, and compelling the Chief Priests to reply to them; and in the market-places and streets, wherever they could gain a hearing, disputing with the Jews and Greeks, confounding both alike?

Now it is claimed by the opponents of Spiritualism, that it is all a delusion and deception,—that there is no Bible-argument in its favor,—in fact, that it is all a mass of illogical error,—that the first rays of reason's light or truth, will penetrate and dissolve, as the rays of the morning sun do the mists of the evening. If they believe this, why keep their light "under a bushel?" why not denounce it, when they can be replied to? They do not tell the people that its advocates have ever demanded earnest and searching investigation. They do not tell the people that they themselves dare not meet it,—that a still small voice is whispering constantly in their souls, (it may be true,) that makes cowards of them all! But they go behind their pulpits, where no one dare question their assertions and interpretations of Scripture, and warn the people not to seek to learn more than they choose to tell them. And if, at any time closely questioned, when they cannot evade, they are forced to acknowledge they know nothing about it.

Their Churches are not as free even as the Synagogues of the Jews in ancient times,—they dare not admit the principles of free discussion within their walls; neither will they meet the advocates of Spiritualism, either in or out of the pulpit, before the people. But they cannot keep it from them.—Clerical denunciation and theological anathemas have lost much of their force, and people are learning to think for themselves.

We learn with pleasure, that Rev. Mr. Hobart is to lecture in Academy Hall next Sabbath; also that he is expected to reply, in the Temple, said evening next week, to Rev. Dr. Peabody's Sermon, published a few weeks since; and hope that all candid minds will come out to hear this Paul, who has been called out from the Methodist Church, to preach a living Gospel.

TRUTH-SEEKER.

NEW YORK, MARCH 11.—A Washington letter in the Post has the following:—"Night before last while the Senate was in Executive Session, two Administration Senators had a personal collision in one of the lobbies. They were parted, however, before any blows were struck. One of them was the President's mouthpiece who had in some manner offended an Arkansas Senator. The latter was about to chastise the Pennsylvanian, when a New England Senator and a Mississippi Senator interfered and parted them."

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The anti-Lecomptonites are in fine spirits to-night, anticipateing a victory to-morrow on the movement of Mr. Harris of Ill., to-day in the House. Messrs. Blair of Missouri, Davis, Harris and Ricaud of Maryland, Gilmer of North Carolina, and Marshall of Kentucky, are the only members from the slave states voting with the majority of fifteen averse to the Speaker's decision against Mr. Harris's question of privilege. These, with the exception of Mr. Blair, represented the Americans. The Lecomptonites claim on a previous vote, by which the cal of the House was refused by nine majority; twenty-two of the friends, and only five of the anti-Lecomptonites were absent.

☞ Rev. T. J. Greenwood of Dover, has accepted the call to be Pastor of the Universalist Society in Malden, Mass. He will remove on the first of May.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, on Thursday, March 11, the Kansas question was debated by Mr. Polk of Missouri and Mr. Benjamin of Louisiana—both urging the admission of the new State under the Lecomoton Constitution. The printing deficiency bill was passed into concurence, and the Senate adjourned. In the House of Representatives, the bill to increase the army by volunteers was taken up, and Stanton of Ohio advocated its passage.

Mr. Harris of Illinois raised a question of privilege—that he and six other members of the Kansas Committee felt it due to themselves to present facts showing the failure of the Committee to execute orders of the House. The Speaker ruled that this was not a "privileged question." An appeal was taken, but the decision by general consent postponed until Friday. In committee of the whole, the diplomatic appropriation bill was agreed to, and the remainder of the session was spent in the discussion of Kansas and Mormon matters.

KANSAS MATTERS.—St. Louis, March 11. Advices from Kansas state that Gov. Denver has issued a proclamation, pronouncing a circular purporting to be instructions for enrolling the Kansas militia, and signed "J. H, Lane" to be illegal and a usurpation of power,

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The report gains ground that Gen. Cass will shortly resign. He is a cypher in the Cabinet, the President being wholly given up to Southern influences. Gen. Cass does not fully share in the Lecompton infatuation of Buchanan, and propably does not wish to be deeply involved in the President's wild and dangerous pro-slavery policy.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—Concord, N. H., March 11.—Returns from 212 towns give Haile 4971 majority. There have been 191 Republican and 80 Democratic representatives elected so far.

EXETER.—The proposition submitted to the voters of Rockingham county, whethe or no it was expedient to establish a county farm, has been answered by a strong negative in this town,—so says a letter to the Boston Journal. The writer also says: we can aver, on the best authority, that Attorney General Sullivan voted the Republican ticket for State officers. In Kingston the vote was quite tight, as in fact was the case with many of the voters. Rum was made the issue, and the Democracy prevailed, we understand, by a small majority.

In Newington, the Sup. School Committee are Thos. G. Furber, Joshua B. Pickering, and James W. Hoyt.

ERYSIPELAS.
This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.
Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advise all the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effots:

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!!
AN OLD NURSE FOR CHILDREN.
DON'T fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on Earth. No mother who has ever tried Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for Children will ever consent to let her child pass through the distressing and critical period of teething without the aid of this invaluable preparation. If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.
Millions of bottles of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.—None genuine unless the fac simile of "Curtis & Perkins" is on the outside wrapper.
PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.
Sold by DAVID KIMBALL, No. 36 Market Street and by Druggists generally. july21d&wly

THERE IS NO REMEDY
Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

THE ELECTION FRAUD IN WARD 1.

Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondent Z. is not content with the exhibition of his own mathematical attainments, but he must have a fling at those who cannot jump with him to his conclusion. He undertakes by an improbable supposition, to account for the admitted discrepancy between the number of voters checked, and the votes declared in Ward One. It he can prove or render it probable that one man voted only for Governor, one other for R. R. Commisioner, and continue that process until he gets rid of six hundred votes, he will very much improve his position. But until then he has nothing but his "astonishment," and an improbable conjecture, with which to meet uncontrovertable facts.

Now 648 persons voted. The highest vote declared on State ticket was 628, the lowest 625, showing a difference of only three votes. Now suppose that 20 whole tickets thrown were omitted in the count, and the result will be as follows:

Governor	626 plus 20	=	646
R. R. Commissioner	627 plus 20	=	647
Councillor	628 plus 20	=	648
Senator	626 plus 20	=	646
Recorder	627 plus 20	=	647
Treasurer	627 plus 20	=	647
County Commisioner	625 plus 20	=	645

That would leave ten names erased, if no person voted without being checked—a quite improbable supposition.

Take the representative ticket, and the same result follows. It was declared as follows:

Goodwin	305	Jenness	318
Hackett	300	Rand	315
Martin	294	Raynes	327
Scattering	4	Total	1863

Total divided by 3 = 621

621 plus 20 = 641, which would leave 21 names to have been erased; and no one inserted in lieu thereof. New one of two propositions appears to be true—either erasions without inserting other names have been made, equal to striking out names in six hundred instances; or twenty whole tickets, 31 (number of names) X by 20, (number of ballots missing = 620, must have been omitted. X.

☞ At the adjourned town meeting in Ward 1, holden on Friday, Charles A. Wiggin was elected Common Councilman, and Joseph B. Adams Selectman. Both these gentleman were on the Republican ticket. The votes stood as follows, per memorandum furnished by the town clerk.

Common Council.

Whole number of ballots	531
Necessary for a choice	266
Charles A. Wiggin had	273
William Cartlidge Jr. had	257
Scattering	1

Selectmen.

Whole number of ballots	535
Necessary for a choice	268
Joseph B. Adams had	275
Andrew J. Fitts	260
J. B. Adams	1

These 536 votes, on such a ticket, indicate the interest taken in that Ward, in the discussion now going on about "the error." Men were brought from the Navy Yard, and drummed up from various quarters.

☞ The Republicans of Ward No. 1 are requested to meet at Rechab hall, this evening, at 7 o,clock.

THE HUTCHINSONS' CONCERT.

This to us was a very pleasant entertainment—though not meriting any higher compliment than that. But to many, probably to most of the audience, it was a great disappointment—the performing on a reputation, which fast wore out as the programme grew shorter. The great charm of the Hutchiosons was always the beauty and finish of their tones, and the almost faultless enunciation of their words—they never attempted much else in the way of "execution." Nor did they need to.

This Trio branch of the Family hardly appears Hutchinsonian—Asa, however, is the same, with additions and improvements to person and performance. The new tenor, Joshua, is a sweet but not powerful singer; and Lizzie is a staunch specimen of good-nature, almost of jollity.—Her voice is a pleasing alto, and she certainly fills Abby's place in a chorus, which is not difficult to do. As song singers, neither excel. Lizzie's "Mrs. Lofty and I" was her best performance, and was good enough. Her "Comin' thro' the Rye" was a great failure.

The chorus singing of the trio was delightful—particularly the "Freeman's Rallying Cry," and "What are the wild waves saying?" which was the closing piece.—The solo performances were tolerable, as a whole—nothing more; and the attempts at the comic, were rather comical.

One element of strength the Hutchinsons have always had—they have boldly sung for liberty and temperance, almost the world over; and deserved and received the commendation of all true freemen therefor. Their "Good Time Coming" can never fail to wake a hearty response in every soul.

The audience was large and highly respectable—with the exception of a few, mostly hall-price boys, whom Asa tried in vain to quiet, but afterwards very properly ejected. He stated that it was a lamentable fact, that one of those little boys had been in the State Prison—which mistake a correspondent, below, has repeated. The boy was sentenced to Prison, but was pardoned. Neither is he so bad a boy, after all, as he might be—and was not half so disorderly at the concert, as several others he was with, if indeed he was blameable at all save in being in such company. Asa stated that they had not been so much disturbed at a concert this winter.

We print below a communication from a valued correspondent, chiefly concerning the disturbance at the Concert. Though we cannot exactly agree with the writer's views, yet we insert the article, as we are apt to do all well-written communications.

The disturbance was certainly vexatious and unpardonable, but we have no doubt it arose in part at least, from the disappointment of the audience, of their reasonable expectations. Perhaps our correspondent, among others, may remember that we censured the interruption of an audience by persons unnecessarily going out, &c., during a concert or lecture—a year ago or so; and that we were replied to rather spicily. Well, the excuse for the incivility of those goers-out, then, will be urged by those who offended good breeding in this case—viz., that they were not interested in the performances.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors.—Probably the most disgraceful audience ever convened in Portsmouth, was gathered at the Temple on Thursday evening. Not that the majority was other than respectable and appreciative; but the indecent minority was sufficiently large to destroy the peace of the refined and cultivated. The half-a-dozen boys who were turned out of the hall—one of whom has already been in the State Prison, and all of whom are, doubtless, State Prison candidates—were not the only ones who ought to have felt the band of Municipal authority; for there were a number of low-bred girls, who, laying greater claims to decency and propriety, sunk themselves to the level of the ignorant and disorderly boys.

In Portland, a few nights since, the Hutchinsons sang to twelve hundred persons; and not alone order, but almost breathless quiet, was maintained throughout the rendering of every piece.

In Newburyport the audience was smaller, but equally respectable and decorous.—Newburyport always goes ahead of Portsmouth in point of respectability, however.

Of the Concert we need not say but a few words. It was good. Ten times better than one could expect with such an audience! yet not one-tenth as good, probably, as it would have been had the performers been undisturbed. We missed the rare voices of John and Judson, but enjoyed exceedingly the rich bass of Asa. "Mrs. Lofty and I," "Come this way, my Father," and the "Farmer's Song," must have afforded perfect satisfaction. **

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the finiest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.
Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 200 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. DR. SWAYNE'S CELEBRATED PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint; see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS, and instantly his blood; they will expel rheumatism, or, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every vestige of flesh from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some hurtful cause, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms, its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, its painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these dispepsies, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sickness, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them persevering, and under the counsel of a good Physician, if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must become healthy and well in the sea.

Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary complaints than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyment of life, by this antidote to the fatal diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him Consumption. He knows it too, alas! but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown, but its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases, Bronchitis, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parents from many a fireside, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three million, and which we distribute gratuitously over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have been furnished with sufficient for distribution gratis, and also for sale, these medicines, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling agencies. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at 50 cents, $1, $2, and upwards, they are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the chance of ever getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—in every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the State, is now under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which report to the contrary are decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

Keep a sharp look to, and that is, if you order from any liceed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for Tickets in Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10 a quarter, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can be misunderstood by them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing published to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published in the city papers, and the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m31ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, are chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which should recommend this Lottery is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are on the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and are simple combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and deserved RELIANCE KNOWN TO PRAISE, to all, whether MAIDS WIVES, or WIDOWS, that DR. CANNAN'S FEMALE PILLS are ALONE the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization, ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing lassitude and languor to the whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines (thrust upon the public, purporting to be the objects already detailed) THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that nothing but the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced upon the premature use of other PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say the PILLS EVER NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, other wise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on receipt of $1. Sole Agent, Dr. CORNELIUS J. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4631, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Massachusetts Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to them Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instruments, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer, to execute the most rapid music without blurring he tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. They are arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by coupling the upper and two bankssof keys may be played at the same time by one of the front set only. This connection with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficient for a very large or a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced workmen. Being all of short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Room at any time and examine for themselves the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give a favorable opinion of them:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co, Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Edward A. Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing, can have the use of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special notice, and those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, can obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly and faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.
THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the finest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.
It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.
It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.
COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.
O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.
Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.
WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.
Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents; R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and successes. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its term or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a pin dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

MUNICIPAL.

In Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, the committee on the petition to widen corner of Penhallow and Bow streets, reported that the same be referred to the next Board.

An ordinance authorizing a temporary loan was sent up from the Common Council and adopted by the Aldermen; whereupon it was voted that the Finance Committee be requested to hire the Fireman's Fund.

In Common Council, the ordinance requiring school committees to send in annually estimates of the money required to conduct the various schools under their charge, was concurred in.

Obituary.—Departed this life on Sunday morning, 7th inst., The Old North Bell, in the city of Portsmouth, aged 94. The long and faithful services of the subject of the present notice, render the duty of the chronicler one of more than ordinary interest and sadness. For nearly a century has the influence of this high-toned member of society, been exerted over the citizens of Portsmouth. It has ever been looked up to. It has been the friend, counsellor and sentinel of generations now no more. It has rejoiced with sweet-voiced melody at the successes of American arms, sounded patriotic pæans at the adoption of the U. S. Constitution, and murmured mournfully in measured moanings at the departure of the good and great. Innocent of crime, its persecutions may be accounted many, for it has existed long enough to be twice hanged.

Its demise was not altogether unexpected. It had been complaining for weeks. Its tones of late, had been those of deep despondency. Approaching insanity was hinted at, in other words, it was believed to be slightly cracked. The doctors made an examination, and discovered an immense fracture of the cers-bell-um. Trepanning was resorted to, with only temporary relief. On Sunday morning last, while engaged in announcing the approaching services, its tongue was suddenly silenced in the stillness of dissolution. It died at its post of duty—it could have wished no higher destiny. We are hourly reminded, however, that it left a few unendorsed notes, all of which thus far, have been protested on reaching maturity.

The Old North Bell is indeed no more, yet in view of its loss, we are not as those without hope. We look forward to a resurrection morn, when purified by fire, it shall rise again without spot or blemish to its high place in the hopes and affections of the people.

New Castle sends no representative. The Republicans selected a most excellent man as their candidate, John P. Cooper, Esq. Mr. C. not regarding it right for a man to aid in electing himself to a post of honor, very modestly cut his own name from his own ticket. The result was, the lack of just that one vote, which would have elected him. A vote was then passed not to send a representative. We appreciate Mr. C.'s views of self-made honors, but yet in a cause like this, if a party express a choice for an individual to serve them, and that individual can in good conscience discharge his trust, he is in duty bound, for the honor of his party, to do all in his power to secure his own election. We have the example of our best statesmen in voting for themselves when in nomination.

We understand the young misses connected with Miss Anne Hall's school, have been busily engaged the past month in preparing useful articles for a Fair, to be held on Wednesday next, in the afternoon, at the school room in Exchange Buildings, corner of State and Pleasant streets—for the benefit of the City Mission. They will be glad to see their friends and the public; and the little folks will be happy to receive that encouragement which their kind efforts merit. Admittance 10 cents—children 5 cents for children.

Literary.—"The course of true love never did run smooth," is the title of a new poem—an Eastern tale, by T. B. Aldrich—announced as "in press" by Messrs. Radd & Carleton, New York.—Mr. Aldrich has hitherto published in the newspapers several very striking poems, of which, perhaps, "Babie Bell" is the most notable. He is a quiet young man, of something more than good promise as an author. His fancy has a fine streak of thought in it, and we look to see a very clever and piquant poem in the forthcoming volume.—Boston Post.

Eclipse of the Sun.—Next Monday morning, March 12th, the sun will rise have very partially, but half an hour later will be nearly two-thirds, obscured. Throughout Great-Britain, France, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, etc. the eclipse will be very large, and in England it will be central. The time of greatest obscuration will be about 46 minutes past 5; it will end at 44 minutes past 7 o'clock.

New Custom House.—We are informed that Josiah H. Sanborn, Roadmaster on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, has executed a contract with Mr. Blaisdell, the Supt. of the new Custom House in this city, for the foundation stone of the building, and for furnishing a large portion of the brick and sand required. The stone is to be obtained from Raymond. The balance of the building stone is to be furnished by Luther Roby of Concord, and will be cut from Rattlesnake Hill in that city.—Gazette.

"Gone a ducking," is a term used for a young "feller" in Arkansas, who goes to "set up" with a young woman.

They have "whiskey" out in Buffalo, one drop of which on the back of an adder, is warranted to kill the reptile in five minutes.

At an Irish ball the following notice was posted on the door-post:—"Tickets fifty cents. No gentleman admitted unless he comes himself."

Sullivan Dorr, father of the late Gov. Dorr, of the Rhode Island revolution, died at Providence on Thursday.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1858.

Choice Extracts.—The Dover Gazette, several weeks before the election, said of the President's special Message, urging the Lecompton constitution upon Congress:—

Nothing has occurred for a long time that has so disconcerted and confused the opposition as this able and patriotic State paper. Like everything else coming from the same source, this Message is a masterly production.

The Concord Patriot of March 10, the day after election, bewailing its defeat, says:—

Before the Lecompton Constitution question was brought before the country, our prospects for success were highly flattering; our triumph seemed to be certain; that matter, with the course of the Administration upon it, fell like a wet blanket upon the rising courage and earnest zeal of our friends, and from that day we were doomed; our defeat was certain, and apparent to all well-informed persons.

The same masterly message,—which so confused the opposition in New Hampshire as to give them 2000 new votes,—fell like a wet blanket on the head of the Patriot and its company, and put out their fire! (?)

Medical Commencement.—The Commencement of the Medical School attached to Harvard University was held on Wednesday last, at the College in North Grove street, Boston. Prior to the exercises, the Board of Overseers of Harvard held a meeting for the transaction of business.

The following Committee connected with the College was announced and accepted:

Examining the Divinity Class.—Rev. R. H. Neale, D. D., Rev. E. S. Gannett, D. D., Rev. Hosea Ballou, 2d, D. D., Rev. Nathaniel Coggswell, Rev. S. K. Lothrop, Rev. T. B. Thayer. Rev. L. R. Thayer, Rev. Irah Chase, D. D., Rev. J. A. Albro, D. D., Rev. Jno. Pryor, D. D., Rev. D. A. White, L. L. D., Joel Hayden, Esq., Rev. H. A. Miles, D. D., Rev. E. B. Wilson, Rev. Wm. Newell, D. D.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board, with the President and Faculty of Harvard, and other invited guests, proceeded to the lecture-room, where the commencement services took place: among them were:—

Dissertations, on Sphilis, by David William Cheever, of Portsmouth, N. H.

On Delirium Tremens, by Samuel William Fletcher, of Hollis, N. H.

Medical degrees were then conferred, in the ancient fashion, on the following members of the graduating class: from N. H.

David William Cheever, of Portsmouth; Samuel William Fletcher, of Hollis; Thomas Hill Gibby, Nashua.

Senator Hammond's Views.—In the U. S. Senate, the other day Mr. Hammond of South Carolina said:—"The greatest strength of the South resides in the harmony of her social system. No other people enjoy a civil freedom so perfect, and secure. Elsewhere there is, in a greater or less degree, a want of harmony between Governments and people. In the South this relation of the two is such as to insure a happy, contented, and harmonious state. In every civilized community there must be a menial class, which requires for its alloted place in society a low order of intellect. Its requisites are physical vigor, docility and fidelity. In connection with these must be found another class, possessing intelligence, culture and refinement. The people of the South have menials whom they call "slaves." The people of the North have the same class who are slaves in fact, if not in name.—Day laborers are everywhere slaves, by whatever name they may pass in the civil community. The slaves of the South are hired for life, and know neither beggary nor starvation. The slaves of the North are hired by the day, with none to care for them or insure them against the approach of want. The slaves of the South are black and are of an inferior race, which has been elevated by slavery, and is insensible to a feeling of degradation. The slaves of the North are white, and as the brethren and natural equals of their masters, feel galled by a sense of dependence. The slaves of the South do not vote. The slaves of the North are the depositaries of political power, and will make themselves felt and feared so soon as they learn the tremendous secret of the ballot-box."

The laborers of New Hampshire seem to be learning.

☞ We see by the New York Court reports that the old police corps have been declared entitled to their pay; and Mr. Develin, the Street Commissioner, who was forcibly removed, has been reinstated in his office by decision of the Supreme Court.—But there is yet another Court, that of Appeals,—and so nobody is out of the woods yet.

☞ According to ancient usage in Prussia, all the Princes of the royal family must learn a trade. The Prince Royal of England, learned the trade of a compositor in the printing-office of Mr. Haud, at Berlin.

Congress.—In the Senate, on Friday, no business was accomplished, but speeches on the Kansas bill were made by Messrs. Chandler of Michigan, Hunter of Va., and Kennedy of Md.

The House passed the Consular and Diplomatic appropriation bill; a bill to pay for the repairs of the Norwegian barque Ellen, which rescued the passengers of the steamer Central America; and the Senate bill authorizing certain officers and men, engaged in the several United States expeditions in search of Sir John Franklin, to receive medals from the British government.

The chair announced the pending question to be for the appeal of Mr. Harris of Ill., (taken on Thursday) from the decision of the chair that it was not a question of privilege to present the doings of the Kansas committee to show their failure to execute the orders of the House.

Mr. Harris defended his position, and Mr. Stephens of Ga. replied. The question was further debated by Messrs. Harris, Grow of Pa., English of Ind., and others several plans being proposed.

A motion to lay the appeal on the table was negatived by a vote of 109 to 111.

After further discussion, Mr. Harris withdrew his appeal, stating that as objection had been made to the report of the minority, the majority might take the chances for the introduction of their report.

The House then adjourned to Monday.

Capt. Marcy.—A letter recei ved from this officer, by his brother, Dr. E. E. Marcy, of New York, and dated "Taos," New Mexico, January 24, says:—

"For two hundred and fifty miles I encountered snow from two to five feet deep, and I thought for two weeks that we should never get through. We only made about three miles a day for about ten days. We exhausted our provisions long before we had crossed the mountains, and had to live exclusively upon starved mules for eleven days. One of my men perished, and many others were badly frozen. I also lost forty-four mules out of sixty-six."

Capt. Marcy is to purchase a thousand mules and four hundred horses for the army in Utah, and intends to return to Camp Scott early in the present month.

Heifer brought to Light.—Mr. David B. Meech, of Brutus, Cayuga county, Ohio, has a two year old heifer which he lately found alive in his straw stack, where she had been buried for two months and fourteen days. At the time of threshing his grain last fall, he made a new straw stack along side of an old one, and soon missed one of his young cattle. Search was made in all directions, but no trace of her could be found, and Mr. M. had given her up as lost, and had almost forgotten the circumstance, when a few days since, his son in getting straw, from the stack, discovered that it moved. The straw was soon taken away, and in a small cavity between the two stacks, completely surrounded by straw several feet in thickness was found the lost animal, alive and in good condition. She had eaten the straw in front of her so that, when found, she could take two or three steps backward

A Wealthy Beggar.—A German woman, at Elizabeth, New Jersey, who has for years subsisted upon the private charity of the public, which she gained by her squalid poverty and apparent necessities, recently died, and on examination into her effects, there was found among them $10,000 or $12,000 in excellent bonds and mortgages upon the best of property. Leaving no heirs, the money will revert to the city in which she lived.

☞ A singular lawsuit has arisen in California. A Chinaman died in San Francisco, leaving property and also two wives (both there) to whom he was legally married, in China, to both at the same time. Under our laws, which inherits the property? or do both? The favorite, or one that pretends to have been, comes forward and claims the homestead.

An Official Joker.—It is said that Gov. Weller of California has perpetrated two jokes since he came into office. One was to recommend the appointment of a night watch to guard the State Treasury while the Legislature is in session; the other was the expression of a hope, in a message announcing to the Assembly the approval of a bill for the change of a woman's name, that as there are a great many more men than women in the State, hereafter the women will be able to have their names changed without assistance.

☞ The Washington Union daily grows more openly abusive of the Douglas Democrats. It attacks Mr. Payne (who only last fall was the democratic opponent of Mr. Chase for Governor of Ohio) in the most virulent terms, and alludes to Mr. Douglas as the "Patriot Arnold." Unconditional submission is the only test of democracy at the White House.

Who are the most wicked people in church on Sunday? The organist and bellows boy; for one plays and the other blows it.

Lablache has left a fortune, it is said of 600,000 ducats.

N. H. Election.—The Concord Statesman has returns from 213 towns which foot up as follows: Haile 35,522; Cate 30,350. Republican majority 5172. There are 16 towns to be heard from, which last year gave a Democratic majority of 350.

So far as heard from 195 Republicans and 103 Democrats have been elected to the House of Representatives. In towns to hear from, if same as last year, Republicans, 4; Democrats, 15. Republican majority, 81.

Washington, Mar 12.—Senator Toombs has received letters signed by one thousand merchants from the Northern and Middle States, urging the early passage of the bankrupt bill. The feeling among the committee is favorable to including all banks, and thus indirectly regulating the currency of the country.

The President has received an autograph letter from Prince Albert, accompanied with a medal containing likenesses of the Princess Royal and Frederick William.—The letter is a friendly one, and contains sentiments of high regard.

☞ It has been determined by the Legislature of Kansas to abolish the Election Precincts of Oxford and Delaware Crossings, and send the bona fide voters to deposit their ballots at Leavenworth.

☞ Marcus Morton, Jr., has been appointed a Judge of the Superior Court of Massachusetts.

RE-APPOINTMENT OF PILOT.

MR. JOSEPH R. PREBLE, we understand, has been re appointed as a Pilot for the river and harbor of the Piscataqua, by the Board of Pilot Commissioners.

Mr. Preble is regarded as one of the most skillful pilots on our river, and we feel assured his re-appointment will give general satisfaction to his friends and ship masters. m15 1*

Erysipelas.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effcts:

Southington, Ct. Dec. 1851.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!!
AN OLD NURSE FOR CHILDREN.

DON'T fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on Earth. No mother who has ever tried Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children will ever consent to let her child pass through the distressing and critical period of teething without the aid of this invaluable preparation. If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.—None genuine unless the fac simile of "Curtis & Perkins" is on the outside wrapper.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Sold by DAVID KIMBALL, No. 36 Market Street and by Druggists generally. july21d&wly

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

General Agents in Boston, BURR, FOSTER & Co., No. 1 Cornhill; and GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston.

THE COMEDY OF ERRORS.

Somebody calling himself Z. wrote an article which appeared in the Daily Morning Chronicle of Friday, in which article he ciphered over a large list of figures, and supposed cases, and argued away all the errors in Ward 1 Town Meeting. At the end of it he "pitches in" to somebody as follows:—

And is there error in the count and declaration! The only astonishment is that any man possessed of the facts, with a competency of arithmetical knowledge, and any acquaintance with the manner of counting votes, should risk his reputation for honesty and intelligence by giving currency to a suspicion of fraud, or even error, in such a case.

Uncle Toby does not feel much astonished, nor greatly exercised any way, about the risk he runs. As to the reputation for honesty, his vision is not clear enough to see the danger in the case. And as to the intelligence, he does not see why any man may not make an error. He does not deem himself infallible—for he has made many mistakes, and is liable to err again. He does not believe in infallible men at all—but laughs at the pretence by whomsoever made, for men, or sects, or parties, or human governments, or churches.

He did not say a word about fraud, but he did make an item about the error of 20 votes, which was town talk. And though Z. works hard to satisfy himself that all is right, by a large number of ingenious suppositions about scratched votes, he does not bring himself down to the level of Uncle Toby's prosaic mind.

The votes might have been wonderfully scratched, mixed, or cut to pieces—but so far as he has heard, they were not, to any great extent.

There were but two kinds of printed votes,—and he has not heard or seen it asserted by any one, that there was any wholesale scratching of names or mutilating of votes. But there is a strong conviction among many in the Ward, that 20 votes, probably Republican, were dropped or lost somehow from the count. Of these lost ballots, the N. H. Gazette says:

It is a misfortune that it has never been the practice in Ward One to preserve the votes, but to distribute them among the boys, as was done this year after the declaration, else the charge of fraud would never have been started.

A great misfortune, truly. A rural friend, however, in the following article, removes much of the misfortune, by his liberal, but correct calculations.

THE MISSING VOTES.

The voters in Ward One, in this city, went to the polls on the 9th of this March and delivered their ballots to the Moderator for—1, Governor; 2, Railroad Commissioner; 3, Councillor; 4, Senator; 5, Register of deeds; 6, Treasurer; 7, County Commissioner; 8, 3 Representatives; 9, Mayor; 10, 3 Aldermen; 11, 9 Common Councilmen; 12, 2 Assessors, 13, Overseer of the Poor; 14, Moderator; 15, 3 Selectmen, and 16, Town Clerk,—in all for 16 different classes of officers,—on one ticket. It appears by the check list kept by the town clerk, that this was done by 647 voters, and when the votes had been counted, only about 627 ballots were declared for any of these 16 different classes of officers,—the difference between the number of the class for which the least and that of the class for which the greatest number of ballots was declared being very inconsiderable. The discrepancy between the number of persons who voted, as shown by the check list, and the number of ballots declared for each class of officers, is about 20.

This shows that about 20 more persons voted than there were ballots declared.—How shall we account for the discrepancy? If, for every name that is erased from a ballot, another name is inserted, such erasure will not increase or diminish the count of the ballots. In that case the count of the ballots will be exactly the same as it would be, if every voter carried a clean ticket, and, if every voter carry a full and clean ticket, the number of the ballots for each class of officers voted for will be exactly equal to the number of persons who voted. This shows that all the tickets which were altered only by erasing the name of one or more candidates and inserting the same number of names as were erased instead of them, have no connexion with the question we are considering.

Suppose 20 ballots, which, for the purpose of illustration, is near enough to the actual facts of the case we are considering, are missing for each of the 16 different classes of officers voted for, how many voters would be required to accomplish this result, if each and every one of them should attempt to accomplish it, by erasing, not one name merely, but by erasing all the names of all the candidates comprising one class only of the 16 voted for, and leaving all the names of the candidates composing the other 15 classes untouched. Multiply the number of the classes, 16, by the number of the missing ballots, 20, and we have 320, which is the number of voters that would be required to accomplish it in the way that I have supposed:—if the same thing is to be done in the same way by each voter's erasing all the names of the candidates in 2 classes, 120 voters are required:—if by erasing all the names in 4 classes, 80 voters are required:—if by erasing all the names in 8 classes, 40 voters are required:—and if by erasing all the names in 15 classes, 20 voters are required.

No honest purpose is to be subserved by the intentional accomplishment of such a result, and it may be accounted for by the unintended loss of tickets, or by a mistake in the count, for the most honest and careful men are liable to error; yet when we consider that the voters at the annual meeting who scratch their tickets do it independently of each other and without any concert whatever, we shall have no great difficulty in coming to the conclusion that in a count of more than 600 ballots, where the number of missing ballots is so large and so nearly the same on each class of officers voted for, as in the case under consideration, that it is about as improbable that it could have happened by the unconcerted erasure of the names of candidates from the tickets by the voters, as it is that the reader of this sentence will be struck by lightning before he gets to the end of it.

GRAVELLY RIDGE.

THE GRANITE STATE BARDS are creating some little furore among the Concert goers "down east." They were well received in Portland, and gave general satisfaction.—They were strongly advised to repeat their concert on Thursday evening, but their arrangements at Saco prevented them from doing so. At Saco, notwithstanding the Perham Troupe and Hutchinsons gave concerts on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, they were greeted with a good house, and applauded in every song. At the urgent request of some of the leading men they sung again Friday night.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING, &c.

There will be a Prayer and Conference meeting at the Vestry in the Temple, this evening at 7 o'clock.

There will be a meeting for Religious Conversation at the study of the Rev. Dr. Lamson, Pastor of the Middle Street Church, at 7 1-2 o'clock this evening.

A Business Meeting of the North Parish will be held this evening.

"SPIRITUALISM AND THE CLERGY."—Messrs. Editors—If I understand your correspondent "Truth Seeker," he is very much offended, because "the clergy" have not, in response to his demand, come out and engaged in a public discussion of "spiritualism." But if I wished to find the truth, on any given subject, I should seek it for myself; if the clery or anybody else would help me, well: if not, get the best light I could without help.

But who are "the clergy" referred to and so blamed because they don't dispute in public on the platform? Some clergymen may believe in the spirits, rappings, &c.;—some doubt; some deny; others still may never have exercised their minds on the subject;—where is the obligation resting on these men, or any others, to investigate a new doctrine, or the revival of an old one?

And why must any one of these, besides investigating—stand up and be bored by a discourse which he does not like, and then be obliged to reply to it?

I ask these questions with all due respect to the spirits, media, rappers and believers,—and if it would be in order to ask a favor, I would request the media to publish in the newspapers or magazines from time to time, all the valuable information they get from the unseen or spiritual world. Then I should be under great obligations for their aid. In the mean time, tables may tip or stand steady, spirits may rap or be silent, write or not, come and go ad libitum, I feel pretty sure they will not disturb me, and I shall not disturb them. There's room enough for all of us.

REVIVALS OF RELIGION.—The New Bedford Standard says that it is a singular fact that almost all our great commercial revulsions have been succeeded by a great revival of religion.

HUMOR IN THE PULPIT.—Old Bishop Aylmer, seeing his congregation, pretty generally asleep, took his Hebrew Bible from his pocket and read a chapter, which roused attention, when the old minister sharply rebuked them for sleeping when they might have understood him and listening, when they knew not a word he said.

Of the witty Dr. South, it is said, that preaching before King Charles, he saw that potentate asleep; he stopped short, and in a loud and altered tone of voice, three times called out, "Lord Lauderal." His lordship stood up and looked at the preacher, who addressed him with great composure, "My lord, I am sorry to interrupt your repose, but I must beg of you not to snore so loud, lest you awake the King."

Andrew Fuller, one Sunday afternoon saw the people during the singing of the hymn before sermon, composing themselves for a comfortable nap; and taking the Bible, he beat it against the side of the pulpit, making a great noise. Attention being excited he said, "I am often afraid that I preach you to sleep, but it can't be my fault to-day, for you are asleep before I have begun.'

"There, now!" cried a little niece of ours, while rummaging a drawer in a bureau, "there now! Gran'pa has gone to heaven without his spectacles. What will he do?"

And shortly afterwards, when another aged relative was supposed to be sick unto death, in the house, she came running to his bedside, with the glasses in her hand, and an errand on her lips;

"You are going to die?"

"They tell me so."

"Goin' to heaven?"

"I hope so."

"Well: here are Granpa's spectacles. Won't you take them to him."

The Emperor of Russia having ordered an investigation to be made into the situation of the schoolmasters throughout the other parts of the empire, and having ascertained that they were very badly off, has just ordered that their salaries shall be increased, and that other measures for improving their condition shall be adopted.

☞ There is a rule in a debating society that we have heard of, which is "that any gentleman wishing to speak more than half an hour, shall have a room to himself."

☞ At a Republican Convention held at Crawfordville, Indiana, on Saturday, one of the speakers, in alluding to the frauds which the Lecompton party are sustaining in the Kansas election, said, 'That the Buchanan men had abandoned the Cincinnati platform to stand upon the Cincinnati Directory.'

☞ Rev. Dr. Bellows of New York, has donated to the Society for the Employment and Relief of the Poor connected with the Unitarian congregations of that city, the sum of five hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty-three cents, being the net proceeds of his recent course of Lowell Lectures delivered at Clinton Hall.

THE SEA.—Cyril Tourneur wrote the following passage in the Atheist's Tragedy:

Whose milder temper doth lament the death
Of him whom in his rage he slew, runs up
The shore, embraces him, kisses his cheek,
Goes back again, and forces up the sand
To bury him.

Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 8½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and M'Clary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 36 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 49 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settees; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do; 36 Looking Glasses; 26 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattrasses; Palm Leaf and Husk do.; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Time Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Pencilled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves; A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware; Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M., ON THE PREMISES, Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased. The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 206 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to JOHN J. PICKERING. GEO. W. TOWLE, Auctr. Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 26, 1858.

Iron Sinks.

SIX dozen of the celebrated Providence Iron Sinks for sale by d18 E. A. STEVENS.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health flows anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no longer. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bowels relentering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has blurred out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and oils; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sallow, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long since ceased to smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the sunken eye, the fire that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to excite the secretions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep those vile worms from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sickness, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Ills, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all vanish before these arrangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which are so many millions of the human race, are cast out like devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to disease of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs, and a dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of the victim who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but hope CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easier; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Among a city or neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have raised the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by preventing than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it stops are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the purest sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets—the country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every one who seems to be held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at one dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. Such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—in every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is offered by decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which pretend to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being fairly dealt with; dealing in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

The thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom off.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to any lottery, and orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number to one ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each number is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Courier, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Sunday Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as with other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m181y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Tyson & Co. are managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is their superintendent and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present. Persons can be certain of such the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to any lottery, and lottery tickets are by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. Tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combinations. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawings of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

John B. Eldridge, Sec.

Having received the Agency of the above good and reliable Company, I am prepared to insure Farm Risks or Dwellings detached 100 feet or more from any other hazards, at the following low rates, for one, three or five years, viz:

For one year, from 1 2 to 5 8 per cent.
For three years, from 1 to 1 1 per cent.
For five years, 1 1-2 to 2 per cent.

This saves the trouble of annual renewals, and is the cheapest and safest insurance to the farmer ever offered.

Also Insurance effected on Ships on the Stocks, Stores, Churches, Goods, Furniture and Merchandise, at low rate in any other Company.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are not fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and knavish are daily taking advantage of the credulous and learned, BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that the CARMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are always the certain panacea for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they correct the painful or suppressed menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to the whole sex; more especially to the married portion, it will be found to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—$2.00 PER BOX. These PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already decided. THEREFORE, as it KNOWS, that nothing but the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, whose unsuspectingly has been experienced under the name of CARMAN'S PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit.—As a warning, I promise that said Proclamation in one case must be considered sufficient, and yet that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an expecting situation, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,231, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal,

C. L. CHEESEMAN, M. D.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Fair of the Ohio Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing quality which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering their tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without injuring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two manual keys may be played at the same time by use of the front pedals. This combined with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 100 to 1,000 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used separately, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from this Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following gentlemen:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. Hall and Son,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Hayes.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent allowed as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is strictly special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, addressed to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these artifices are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHECTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.
O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hutchinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement. As I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.
Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth both of which it has effected completely. In the opinion of many I have used much 3 bottles.
Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

REMOVAL.
UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.

PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent granting countries. Specifications and Drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.

British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.

Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.

He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—

From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office. He has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.

From the Examiner of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

HENRY B. REMICK, L. D. GALE, S. H. LANE.	Principal Examiners.
T. H. TWALE, THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. G. LANGDON.	Assistant Examiners.

From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. D. N. FITZGERALD,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has this control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

PRIME COST, $1, 50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.

A few boxes of this popular and extraordinary medicine for sale by J. H. THACHER, ly13 Cor. of Pleasant and State Sts.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,

is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unusual frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1858.

WHAT WAS THE ISSUE?—We shall answer only on high Democratic authority, showing that a large majority of the people of the State of New Hampshire have voted their approval of the needful expenditures for the insane asylum, reform school, and kindred objects; and that they have voted against the Lecompton swindle, and against squatter sovereignty.

From the N. H. Gazette, March 6:

To vote the Black Republican ticket, is to vote for still further increase of our burdensome taxes, for the creation of additional debts, for the encouragement of schemes of morbid philanthropy and official peculations, for the continuance of an expensive, tedious and partizan system of jurisprudence.

To vote the Black Republican ticket, is to endorse the policy of those who would continue Kansas as a slave Territory, and prevent her adoption of Free State institutions.

To vote the Black Republican ticket, is to vote for the continuance of Federal troops in Kansas, and for the renewal of disgraceful conflicts in that Territory, and for the continuance of agitation throughout the country.

Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, as well as all other Democrats in the country, feels solicitous for the triumph of the Democratic party in this State, and he has manifested his wishes by contributing material aid.—We speak what we know, and can prove by reference to the Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. Why then, should any Democrat, through sympathy with his views upon the Kansas question, abstain from voting the Democratic ticket for the success of which both Buchanan and Douglas are anxious?

The last paragraph yokes up Douglas and Buchanan in droll shape, and makes the Republican vote count against both.

Besides these two issues, the Patriot and its echoes made a poor feeble attempt to do something with the rum plank for a third issue—but it hurt nobody, and did not frighten a great many. We will just look now at a personal attack made in the Patriot of Feb. 3, against Uncle Toby, on this account. It says:

Why did he, as the organ of the Maine Law party, sustain with so much zeal the black republican ticket? He either supported it as a temperance party man or as a black republican. He asked the votes of the temperance party for it as a temperance movement. He now denies that it was such or was so understood. He points out his own double dealing and hypocrisy by that admission.

To all this, and much more of the same sort, Uncle Toby gave a very short answer then—and now adds that he was never the organ of the Maine Law party, nor of any other party—and that he never asked the vote of any man or party, for any measure or purpose whatever.

The Republican party have not made it an issue at all; the American party did, when they passed the law,—and the Democratic party did, two years, when Mr. Wells stumped the State as a repealer, but they failed—and this year they made only a poor show, with such trash as we have quoted above.

The N. H. Patriot of Feb. 17, says:—

Our election involves home questions alone; it can have no effect upon national questions, or upon the affairs of Kansas.

This does not agree very well with what the Gazette said about Messrs. Buchanan and Douglas, who felt a great interest in our election; and about Douglas, who gave material aid. Did Douglas and Buchanan care anything about our Insane Asylum, pro or con? Did they take a great interest in our "Palace for Criminals and prostitutes?"

No sane man believes a word of it. Yet the above are true extracts from these papers before election. Here is another, from the Patriot of Feb. 17:

Every man who votes the black ticket, will vote for extravagance in the State and county expenditures, an increase of the State and county debts, and an increase of the people's taxes; while every one who votes the Democratic ticket, will vote for a reform in all these respects.

Now here is another, of a different kind, from the Patriot of Feb. 10, speaking of a Republican circular on the State Finances:

We warn our friends to be on their guard against these dishonest tricks of the blacks. Their Kansas amunition is mainly used up.

The Democratic Standard of Jan. 30 contains the following:

Is there any difference between the Black Republicans and the State Committe?—If there is, we do not see it. The present phase of the Kansas Question, is the adoption or rejection of the Lecompton Constitution. The Black Republicans go for its rejection. Mr. Douglas, and his friends, including our Democratic State Committee and their organs, go for its rejection.

The same paper of March 6 says:

The redemption of the Granite State is at hand. The wicked Black Republicans fear and tremble. Democrats, don't fail to do justice to these tax-making, profligate, Kansas Screechers.

The Dover Gazette of March 6, says, speaking of the black republicans:

In the public clamor for retrenchment and reform, they read their doom at the next election, as surely as did Belshazzar in the words of the prophet that translated to him the hand-writing upon the wall. They feel that the days of their rule are numbered; they tremble and their knees smite together. They feel the sure prestige of defeat, and this weakens their power.

Now look at the Patriot of the day after election:

The battle is over; the election yesterday resulted in the triumph of black republicanism by an increased majority. * *

This defeat of the Democracy is sufficiently overwhelming to satisfy our most bitter opponents; even the latest renegade must feel content with it. * * * * *

No one can fail to see the cause; all admit it. The Kansas question has again crushed us with its ponderous, blind, unreasoning power.

And now at the Dover Gazette of March 13:

Contrary to our wishes, but in accordance with our expectations, we have to announce to our readers that, through bribery, corruption and fraud, the Republicans have again triumphed in this State.—We have not the whole result, but enough is known, to render it evident that we are badly beaten.

The Dover Gazette of the 6th speaks of doom to the blacks—of the 13th of their triumph.

A CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY.—A writer in De Bow's Southern Review—the financial organ of the slaveholders—has become disgusted with a representative democracy, and thinks we would be a great deal better governed under a constitutional monarchy. The standard of capacity for governing wisely, he says, "is reached and maintained with more difficulty, on the part of a whole people, than on the part of a representative of a line of sovereigns; and that the wisdom of the king is more reasonably to be expected than that of the mob." "Mob" is a very ingenious word for "people," but perhaps it accords quite as well with the tone of this writer's reasoning. It is possible, then, when the often mentioned but still deferred Southern secession takes place, we shall have a "line of sovereigns" ruling over the Gulf region, reaching as far northward as South Carolina.

WHAT A DUELIST PUTS AT STAKE.—Messrs. Cullom and Clay, it will be remembered, recently came near having a duel. While they were absent from Washington making arrangements, the correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post says the following happened: "The wife of Mr. Clay was visited last evening by a friend of her husband, to ascertain whether she was aware of the cause of her husband's absence. She was entirely ignorant on the subject, the matter having been studiously kept from her. She said Mr. Clay was suddenly called from town the evening previous upon important business, and would be back in a day or two. She was watching with a mother's care over several children who were quite low with the scarlet fever, little thinking that her little darlings were liable to be made fatherless, and she a widow, before morning."

To this, let Uncle Toby add, that the two gentlemen, who ran all this risk, did it under the influence of an "old fashioned Kentucky drink all round." They would not have been so sensitive to their honor, if they had been totally abstinent from strong drink—and they lost this high point of honor, the moment the liquor was out of their heads.

SUGAR.—A letter from Barbadoes, dated Feb. 12, states that sugar-making has become general throughout the island, and the article is coming to market in large quantities. The crop is the largest ever made on the island, yielding 60,000 hhds.

It is stated in the New Orleans Crescent that the sugar crop of Louisiana for 1857 will be from 225,000 to 250,000 hogsheads, against about 75,000 hogsheads in 1856. Prices are of course much lower than last year.

VENERABLE PATRIARCH.—There is now living in the town of Woburn, a gentleman by the name of Converse, ninety-three years old, who is in the enjoyment of all his faculties, and who is about daily, more active and smart than many of his juniors, who voted for Washington as President of the United States, and at every national election up to the present time. A citizen of that town (mentions that he appears in the streets without any extraneous support, and is as bright and and cheerful as the youngest of the citizens.

BOGUS.—It was recently reported from Kansas through the St. Louis Republican, border ruffian, that one Isaac Mundle, an election judge, had been shot by the free State men to prevent him from testifying before Gov. Denver. Reliable accounts state that Mundle accidentally shot himself.

REV. DR. BARSTOW of Keene, N. H., celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his ordination in that place, on the twenfieth of February, where 1000 persons gathered in the town Hall.

The exercises of the evening began with the singing of "Jesus, lover of my soul," &c., to the tune of Hotham, which hymn and tune were sung at the ordination of Dr. B. The choir on this occasion was enlarged by the accession of the "old folks," some of whom sung, and one of them, Hon. Mr. Prentiss, led the singing at the ordination forty years before.

Dr. Barstow then followed with an address of great interest. He first introduced the younger members of the audience to Keene as it was when he first opened his eyes upon it, forty years ago. He took them in imagination through the different streets, and pointed out the houses and other buildings then standing, with the grotesque appearance of some of them. He took the assembly into the meeting house, whose paws were then pens and whose seats were lids, hung on hinges, which never fell softly.

He then gave the following statistics of his ministry of forty years. He had married 864 persons, in some cases parents and children and grand-children; he had baptized 719 individuals; had received to the church 562 members, viz.: 350 by profession and 212 by letter; had preached at the ordinations or installations of 36 ministers, and given an address to the pastor or people at 34 ordinations or installations; had offered the ordaining prayer at the ordination of 13 ministers, which taken together makes 83 exercises of this kind; had preached 8 dedication sermons and declaimed 5 dedicatory addresses, and one address at the laying of the corner stone of the church. Putting ordinations, dedications, installations and dedications together, he had performed in 100 instances.

In closing Mr. Barstow said:—"To all the other denominations among us, I beg the privilege of saying that I have sought to live in peace, and have rejoiced in all the good they have done though they followed not us. Nor should it be any ground of offence, that different religionists maintain with earnestness, what they verily believe to be God's revealed truth." Respecting the choir he said they had not only made harmony in music, but had contributed to the harmony of the society.—Tho' he could not join with them in voice, he appreciated their services highly, and hoped to join with them all finally, in the song of Moses and the Lamb.

The next speaker who addressed the audience was Hon. John Prentiss, who gave some additional recollections of the forty years under review, and referred particularly to the formation of the different denominations that had risen during that time. In closing he gave a handsome tribute to the zeal and perseverance with which the guest of the evening had labored in the cause of education, temperance and the general good of the community.

He was followed by Rev. Dr. Rockwood, of Swanzey, who has been in the ministry over 50 years.

☞ The Richmond South, (Democratic) thunders forth as follows:—

"To the greasy psalm singer of the North; the truckling Yankee; the stupid, unpolished, uncouth, Ohioan; to the mongrel population of New York; to the heterogeneous mass of the Northwest; to the German, the Dutchman; to whatever person, from whatever clime—to all save the great, the gifted, the only pure representative of the great Anglo-Saxon family of the South, the whole territory of the Union is free, is open; but to us and our institutions forever, it is to be and remain a terra incognita—a paradise where we dare not tread—a paradise denied to the great Southern family—but to be filled up and polluted with the human vermin, the toad, the unclean beasts, from all parts of the habitable globe but that where man approaches nearest to the form of his Maker."

☞ Lady Falkland, in her work entitled Chow Chow, gives the following letter from a Bombay butcher to his dissatisfied English customer:—

"To Mrs. Collector ——— Sahib, Esq., Honorable Madam—Madam's butler says that madam is much displeased with poor butcher, because mutton too much lean and tough. But sheep no grass got, where gat fat? When come rain, then good mutton. I kiss your honor's pious feet. I have the honor to remain, madam, your affectionate butcher, Mahomed Cassim."

THICK SHOES FOR THE LADIES.—The Washington Star says that the ladies there have been lectured so persistently by their lords and masters in general, and the medical faculty in particular, on the suicidal practice of wearing butterfly soles in sloppy weather, that they have taken to the opposite extreme and to wearing the treble-soled Scotch boots we see in the shop windows.

The best bite we ever had, when we went a fishing, was the bite we took along.

LIBERTY.

O liberty, thou goddess heavenly bright,
Profuse of bliss, and pregnant with delight!
Eternal pleasures in thy presence reign,
And smiling plenty leads thy wanton train;
Eas'd of her load, subjection grows more light,
And poverty looks cheerful in thy sight;
Thou mak'st the gloomy face of nature gay,
Giv'st beauty to the sun, and pleasure to the day.

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects:

There is to be a Prayer Meeting in the vestry of the Methodist Church, this evening, beginning at 7 1-2 o'clock.

☞ A Daily Prayer Meeting is proposed in this city, of one hour each morning, from 8 to 9 o'clock. The first meeting is to be on Wednesday morning, at the Brick Vestry in Fleet street, where the meetings will be held this week. This meeting will not be confined to business men, as in some larger cities, but all are invited, men and women, without distinction of sect.

☞ At last, our long-talked-of Custom House seems to be in a fair way to be built. With two such efficient and capable gentlemen as Uncle Sam and Mr. Blaisdell to do the job,—nobody doubts it will be done in good time in the best manner. The materials are being collected,—a blacksmith's shop has been erected on the premises; and with the opening of the ground, things will be pushed right along.

The old claims of the workmen, &c., we believe have never yet been settled; but we heard last week that a gentleman was buying them up at 75 cts. on the dollar.

☞ A letter to the Concord Democrat from Big Springs, Kansas, Feb. 21, says:

We in Kansas are already in the meshes of the Southern Democracy. The will of the people is not and cannot be made the law; we are almost discouraged, and drag along a miserable existence. Federal gold and federal patronage have their effect everywhere, even in Kansas. We fear that Buchanan with the aid of Satan is throwing disorder into our ranks. Gen. Lane says we are still a unit; I fear the wish was father only to the thought. There is no doubt but on the one idea of a free State we are a unit, but on the details and policy of action, we are now pulling too many ways.

Administration Democrats are secretly trying to get the people to favor the Lecompton Constitution; I fear some will be drawn into the scheme far enough to be willing for the Legislature to elect two U. S. Senators and perhaps enact some laws. I understand one of our pioneer editors is willing to go thus far. Hence you see what influences are at work among us. It is a time of distrust and misgiving. We know not who are true and who are false among us. Money and patronage will work wonders.

BOILER EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIFE.—Bangor, March 14.—The steam boiler connected with Mr. A. Woodward's planing mill, collapsed its flues yesterday and drove the iron covering into the house of Mrs. John A. Rolling, 150 feet distant, demolishing all the furniture in her parlor, breaking in every window in the front part of the house, and otherwise damaging the building. The brick work of the boiler was blown 500 or 600 feet. The engineer, Jeremiah Lyons, was so severely injured that he died last night. The explosion was occasioned by a want of water in the boiler.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Our letters from Nassau, N. P., mention the arrival at that place on the 22d ult. of a boat containing eleven fugitive slaves from Key West, and intelligence had been received of a large sloop being on the west side of the Great Bahamas, having on board thirty fugitives from St. Augustine, Florida. The Bahama Friendly Society had despatched a vessel in search of the sloop, and the Key West negroes had been provided with employment by the inhabitants of Nassau.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, March 13.

SENATE.—Mr. Wade (of Ohio) spoke on the Kansas question, defending the North from the charge of aggression upon the South, and contending that the aggressions were all the other way. He contended that the seizure of Texas, and her admission into the Union, in violation of the Constitution of the United States, was an enormous aggression upon the rights of the North. She was admitted with the purpose of making five slave States, with ten additional Senators to vote down the rights of the North. The fugitive slave bill was another monstrous aggression upon the rights, honor and pride of the North. It is a badge of servitude and subjection that cannot be tolerated by a free man. The next aggression was the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, for which there was no excuse or palliation. There used to be, he said, a something called Southern honor, but it was not exhibited on this occasion. After replying at length to Mr. Hammond, and controverting his charges of Northern aggressions, Mr. Wade asked how was it possible that such aggressions should take place, when the whole government, for sixty years, has lain prostrate at the feet of the South?

Mr. Wade next entered into an elaborate defence of the North from the aspersions of Mr. Hammond and others, pointing to the achievments in the Patent Office and elsewhere as evidence of the Northern genius. It was not, he said, on the prostrate necks of such a class that the Senator from South Carolina could erect his system of society. He might as well attempt to make his bed in hell or erect his edifice over a volcano. Nor was it necessary for the South to send its threatened missionaries to the North to teach such laborers their powers. Their interest in the State and all that concerns good government is the same as that of all others. As to the degraded class alluded to by the Senator, he admitted their existence, but, he contended, they were mostly foreigners,—the sweepings of the old world, ignorant and vicious, but nevertheless "good Democrats," and the principal supporters of slavery in the North. Slaves in their own country, they naturally attach themselves to slaveholders in this.

Mr. Wade next passed to the Supreme Court, commenting on its Dred Scott decision, and asserting that its dicta can bind no one except the suitors in its own court. Addressing himself to Mr. Hammond's boast that slaveholders had ruled the nation for sixty years, he (Wade) admitted the truth, but contended it was only thro' the aid of that set of most despicable men, the Northern doughfaces, a type of men not new in the world, for Moses encountered them in the wilderness, where, turning from the visible glories of the Almighty, they fell prostrate to worship an Egyptian calf. These men hungered after the flesh pots of Egypt. They were not Northern men with Southern principles, but Israelites with Egyptian principles. Our Saviour met with a man of this class in Judas Iscariot, and Washington and his associates had encountered them frequently.

From a remark of Mr. Wade, about Messrs. Toombs and Douglas, on this subject, a personal debate arose, which waxed warm between Bigler of Penn. and Broderick. This debate finished the sitting.

House not in session.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(Tribune correspondence.)—If the six Americans who voted in favor of compelling the Kansas SpecialCom. to investigate fairly, stick, there is no difficulty in still securing the result. The plan is to permit the committee to report, and then to submit a resolution recommitting the whole subject, and adding one South-American and one anti-Lecompton Democrat to the Committee. This evades the necessity for a question of privilege, takes from a partisan Speaker the power to defeat the movement by his ruling, and brings the House to the direct question, with certain success.

(Herald cor.)—Despatches were received by the last mail from Mr. Dallas, our Minister at London. He thinks the new Ministry will be more favorable and conciliatory to the United States than the old one. He is also of opinion that it will not according to present appearances, remain long in power.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Judge Douglas has been confined to his house for several days by severe sickness, but will resume his place in the Senate sometime this week. He pronounces the reports as to his intention to resign his seat as totally without foundation, and assures his friends that he intends to fight the battle in which he is now engaged to the end—that he will not be driven from his position by the threats or frowns of power, nor moved from the purposes to which his life has been devoted, by inducements proffered from any quarter. He says that with him it is a matter of principle, which he will sustain at all hazards.

The receipts of the Treasury Department during the past week were $535,000, exclusive of $200,000 in treasury notes. The drafts issued amounted to $977,000.

There is no perceptible improvement in the physical condition of Senator Davis, and the partial loss of his eyesight is feared by his friends.

JARED SPARKS and Joseph T. Buckingham each have $5000 sunk in the Serbarian bog, as "Thyme" calls it, of Lawrence, Stone & Co., and the former is able and the latter very unable, to lose the investment. The gentleman with the aromatic name says he was offered a share of Bay State mills stock for a dime, (the par value being $1000,) but gratefully declined the transaction.—Manchester American.

Levi J. North, the celebrated equestrian, has been elected an aldermen at Chicago by the democrats.

A VALENTINE.

May joy be thine as long as time
Shall round the circles go,
May grief depart, and may thy heart
Be free from every woe.

Oh may thy life, spent far from strife,
To works of love be given;
And may, at last, when time is past,
Thy spirit rest in Heaven.

May roses bloom around thy tomb,
And birds sing o'er thy grave,
And round it twine the tender vine,
Which evening zephyrs wave.

Oft may the tear from kindred dear,
Fall on the mossy sod,
While thou above, dost dwell in love
With angels and with God!—SARA.

WHAT IS LIFE?

What is Life? 'tis joy—'tis gloom,
'Tis dreaming of heaven—'tis fearing the tomb,
'Tis shadows dark'ning the brightest way,
'Tis gleams of light in the darkest day.
'Tis glorious hopes—'tis darkest fears,
'Tis happy smiles—'tis bitterest tears,
'Tis weary days and nights of pain,
'Tis health and strength come back again.
'Tis happy meetings when toils are o'er,
'Tis bitter partings to meet no more.
'Tis greeting the newborn infant's breath,
'Tis kissing lips that are cold in death.
'Tis memory of hours that flew too fast,
'Tis vain regrets for follies past.

O! mortal man, while he draws his breath,
Is meted with darkness and doomed to death;
But be brave, O soul, in the constant strife,
Thy joys are gleams of the far off life
That hath no shadows, that hath no fears,
No aching hearts, no bitter tears,
But is joy forever, and free from sin,
And pain and care cannot enter in.
Then be brave, O soul, in the constant strife,
Be strong in thy hope of that better life;
Thank God for thy joys, and trust in Him
When darkness and doubt make thy pathway dim.
—Portland Transcript.

MUSICAL LEGISLATURE.—The Maine Legislature has instituted the novel and very pleasant feature of morning concerts in connection with Legislative sessions. The Kennebec Journal says:

"The veteran messenger of the House, Mr. Thomas, has a taste for music, and he has discovered an unusual amount and varity of musical talent among the members. This united talent has been brought out in a series of impromptu morning concerts before the hour for calling the house to order, until at length morning singing has become a regular institution in the Representatives Hall for fifteen minutes before the Speaker takes his seat. At times the spirit of harmony becomes pervading, when the singing is especially marked by simple melody, and grave Senators and members of the House in large numbers gather around the center of the Hall, and join in the singing of familiar tunes in true congregational style, and the music rises high, and floats, and echoes through the Hall with fine effect."

SUPREME COURT, PORTLAND.—Judge Davis presiding. Otis Trafton of Harrison, (indicted at the last term,) for selling intoxicating liquors without a license. He plead nolo contendere, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $60 and costs, amounting to $86.76. He paid and was discharged.

John C. Chapman and J. Henry Norton indicted under the nuisance act, for keeping a disorderly house. The defendants have recently opened a lager beer saloon in Exchange street, in Portland, in which singing, dancing and the drinking of lager are the chief attractions. The defence was that the amusements were conducted in an orderly and quiet manner, and did not therefore, fall within the meaning of the statute upon which the indictment is founded.

A large crowd showed its interest in the trial by filling the court room to its utmost capacity. The Court charged the jury, who retired and soon after brought in a verdict of guilty.

"JESSIE'S" GOLD RING.—In Mr. Beecher's Church, Brooklyn, at the close of the morning service on Sunday, a collection was taken for the benefit of the poor of the congregation. Among the audience was Mrs. Fremont ("our Jessie") who, happening to have no money in her pocket, as the plate was passed, took from her finger a heavy gold ring and threw it in as the only contribution which she was able at that moment to make. The ring contains on the outside an engraved "bee" (in allusion to a beautiful incident in Col. Fremont's passage of the Rocky Mountains), and on the inside the inscription, "March 4, '57." It will be sold for a charitable purpose, and will, no doubt, bring a high price.—New York Tribune.

The Detroit Tribune says, a loving couple were married at Albion, a few days since, and having no money, they paid the minister with two bushels of black walnuts!

No postponement on account of weather.

Sagamore House and Farm,

SITUATED on Odiorne's Point, at the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, by water 2 miles, from Portsmouth.

This is one of the pleasantest summer resorts on the coast. The House, which commands a view of the city of Portsmouth, the towns of Newcastle and Kittery, the Navy Yard, Fort Constitution and McClary, and the Isles of Shoals, has 26 rooms, has recently been thoroughly renovated, and is now in complete repair.

There are 49 Acres of excellent LAND,—well stocked with Fruit Trees, and suitably divided into Mowing, Tillage and Pasturage.

Terms made known at sale.

Also all the FURNITURE in said house, Consisting in part of the following:

4 Mahogany and Black Walnut Sofas; 1 Desk; 20 Mahogany Chairs; 24 Office Chairs; Bureaus; Chamber and Common Chairs; Hat Stand; 1 set Mahogany Dining Tables; Settee; Mahogany Card, Pembroke, and Centre Tables; Hard Wood and Pine Tables; 3 large Dining do.; 36 Looking Glasses; 26 Cottage and French Bedsteads; 10 Hair Mattresses; Palm Leaf and Husk do; Feather Beds; Under Beds; Bedding; Table Linen; Toilet Stands and Dress Tables; Dry Sinks; 17 All-Wool Carpets; Stair Carpets; Time Pieces; Spy-Glasses; Show Cases; Pencilled, Painted, Muslin and Damask Window Curtains; Curtain Fixtures; Entry and Centre Lamps; Basins and Ewers; Table Cutlery; Silver Plated Ware; Ice Chest; Stoves;

A large variety of Crockery and Glass Ware; Together with a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Also, 20 tons prime HAY; 1000 bottles CIDER.

GEORGE W. TOWLE.

Rye, Feb. 20, 1858.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M., ON THE PREMISES,

Seven Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased. The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

THE N. H. PATRIOT AFTER ELECTION.

The Concord Patriot, in a long article upon the result of the election, says:

"The battle is over; the election yesterday resulted in the triumph of black Republicanism by an increased majority in the popular vote, and by nearly as large a majority in the Legislature as they had last year. This result was not unexpected by well informed men, although many of our friends hoped for one more favorable to their cause. From the returns we give, it appears that the black Republican majority will be about 5000, being nearly 2000 more than it was last year. This increase in their majority has been made by a like increase of their vote, the Democrats having cast full as many votes as last year, and we think a few more. In the Legislature it appears that parties will stand relatively about the same as last year. It is possible that we have lost a Senator; if so, the Senate will stand nine blacks to three Democrats. In the House we think we have made a slight gain on last year, when the blacks had about 70 majority. It is probable that all the Councillors are blacks.

This defeat of the Democracy is sufficiently overwhelming to satisfy our most bitter opponents; even the latest renegade must feel content with it. At the same time, when the palpable cause of it is considered, it presents no occasion for despondency on the part of true and intelligent Democrats. No one can fail to see the cause; all admit it. The Kansas question has again crushed us with its ponderous, blind, unreasoning power. Before the Lecompton Constitution question was brought before the country, our prospects for success were highly flattering; our triumph seemed to be certain: that matter, with the course of the administration upon it, fell like a wet blanket upon the rising courage and earnest zeal of our friends, and from that day we were doomed; our defeat was certain, and apparent to all well informed persons."

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they remove the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint, or who has been tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been doctoring with mercury and other mineral poisons, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them until for use service.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $100,000 are their schemes with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is as much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets.—In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which pretend to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates. If he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, by allowing parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons living have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme each ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one ticket in each decile, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $700; the entire prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount of prize they are entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m181y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. France & Co are the managers, are chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana lottery) without combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 '90. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Sippio, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned; BE IT KNOWN TO ALL WHOMSOEVER, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that DR CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing the female to be happiness to male sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, be it known, that these PILLS and PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered true, and vice versa; that is to say the Pills must not be taken when any female is in an interesting situation, other wise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing the $1 to Dr. Cheeseman L. Cheeseman, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer, or to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that contains 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together with the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Building

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to call and examine our Pianos, and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have purchased our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	Albert Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to try Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it shows that we have full faith in all of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and the instruments carefully packed, if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

VINTON AND KING—ADAMS AND MINER.—Our readers are aware that in Boston—a highly respectable petition, headed by the Rev. Dr. Vinton, Rev. T. Starr King, and 5800 other men, and 1817 women, has been presented to the Aldermen, asking that the Drunkard Shops may be closed, and the jury lists revised so as to exclude all violators of the law. This petition was read in the churches on the Sabbath, and signatures solicited. The Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Adams, however, refused to read or sign it; assigning as a reason, that quite an interest was felt in religious matters, and he did not want the attention of his people drawn away from the subject of religion.

The Aldermen gave them a hearing on Thursday. Hon. Chas. T. Russell, A. H. Twombly, Esq., and Rev. Messrs. Fuller and Miner, spoke in favor of the petition. There are said to be 3,000 dram shops, doing immense mischief.

Mr. Miner laid great stress on the point that the last two city governments had undertaken to execute the liquor law, thereby admitting that it ought to be executed; but had failed. Then it was the duty of the present government to follow up the work. He suggested the importance of the fact that in all liquor cases, liquor dealers, and therefore criminals in the eyes of the law, had been found on the jury, and it was clear that no convictions could ensue under such circumstances. Then the question must arise, "Should violators of the law be permitted to act on juries?"—When counterfeiters are tried, other counterfeiters are not permitted to enter the jury box; and why should a corresponding state of things be permitted in liquor cases, which are no less offences against the law? Suppose a criminal should be on trial on a charge of stealing, and Abijah Jenkins should be put into the jury box; it would certainly be a severe trial to his conscience to be called upon to judge of the guilt or innocence of the party accused.—

Mr. Miner proceeded, in a manner highly amusing to the auditory, to adduce suggestions for the fuller execution of the law.—At the close of his remarks the meeting adjourned,—as there was no one to speak for the groggery.—We believe that the groggery, in Boston, has money, troops of friends and suckers,—and is a great institution, filling the State Prison, jail, alms house, &c.—Temperance has the argument—all of it.

A SAD EVENT.—On Saturday afternoon, Miss Sarah Barnard, only daughter of Mr. George M. Barnard, of No. 109 Beacon street, Boston, lost her life in consequence of her clothes taking fire. Her mother, who was one of the managers of the "Fair for the Poor," was at the Music Hall at the time of the occurrence, and Mr. Barnard was absent. The only persons at the house were Miss Barnard's grand-mother and two servant girls. At four o'clock, Miss Barnard was sitting in the drawing-room, before a coal fire, awaiting the arrival of a friend, who was to accompany her to the fair. A few moments before, her grand-mother had left her reading, and gone into another room to sit, when she was startled by the screams of her grand-daughter, and rushing in, found her standing on the floor with her dress in flames. Her outer dress was of woolen texture, and the fire had taken hold of the linen composing her under garments. The old lady endeavored to smother the flames with a rug which she threw over them, but being very much alarmed, Miss Barnard broke from her and rushed from the room, and down the stairway to the kitchen, which was immediately below. Her hurried passage through the air quickened the flames, and on opening the kitchen door she was entirely enveloped in them. The servants ran from the house screaming for help. The first person who reached the spot was the coachman of Mr. G. B. Boardman, who found her lifeless body lying upon the floor, and her clothes still burning. Dr. R. W. Hooper, who resides next door but one, was sent for, but his aid was unavailing, she having probably died where she fell. She was an accomplished young lady, and greatly beloved by a large circle of friends. The precise manner of the accidental firing of Miss Barnard's clothes is not known; nor is it quite certain that she was burned to death. It is surmised that upon reaching the kitchen she lost all hope, and becoming bewildered died of fright.—Courier.

A COURAGEOUS RAT.—An English paper relates the following anecdote:—

"A gentleman, worthy of all credit, and who may be the more readily trusted as his story acknowledges his own defeat, was aroused one night by a heavy bumping noise on the stairs. Unable to account for it, he rose, donned his dressing gown, and with his candle in his hand proceeded to investigate the cause. Half way down stairs he perceived a large rat employed in facilitating the descent of a half-loaf by pushing it down from one step to another. Anxious to redeem his property, the owner descended after it. The rat at first continued his exertions, but as the enemy gained upon him, he changed his tactics, and turning his front upward, began to climb toward his opponent. This was just such an intruder as might with all justice have been kicked down stairs; but so stern was his air, and so menacing his aspect, that the gentleman hesitated, and hesitation ended in retreat. His feet being armed only with slippers, he lost heart, and began slowly to ascend backward; while the rat deliberately mounted after him, and thus steadily drove him back to his bedroom, the door of which he shut in the face of his foe, and terminated the adventure by retiring to bed, while the rat returned to his well earned booty."

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 70 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions.—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

Utile Agency is not only the largest in New England but throughout [illegible] or ascertaining the patentability [illegible] ions, unsurpassed by, if not more than, any other agency which can be offered the [illegible] store. The testimonials below given prove [illegible] one is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE [illegible] OFFICE [illegible] the subscriber and [illegible] S THE PROOF OF ADVAN[illegible] D ABIL[illegible] he would add that he has [illegible] reason to believe, and can prove, that [illegible] or offices of the kind are the charges for [illegible] are as moderate.—The immense p[illegible] of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able to, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R.H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUPPORT INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

EXECUTIVE PATRONAGE.

The federal Constitution was framed by the wisest American patriots and statesmen. It was well adapted to the then existing state of things. But our Solons and Lycurguses could not foresee the state of things in the distant future. The public good may now require several amendments of the Constititution—perhaps the most important, to limit the patronage of the executive department. So fearful were its framers, of the concentration of power in one individual, as in the European governments, that it was among their last doings to establish a supreme executive. Under our first administrations, when there were but a few millions of people, and but few appointments by the executive in comparison to those of the present day, there was no cause for alarm. Our Presidents could make proper enquiries into the qualifications of candidates for office. And party-devotion was not then deemed to be a qualification for office, nor were faithful public servants removed from office on account of their political sentiments, with a very few exceptions.

Some twelve or fifteen years ago, Mr. Benton made an able speech in the U. S. Senate, in favor of limiting the patronage of the President, showing the corrupting influence it had over the nation. At this time, a more extensive field would be presented to his view. There are now, it is believed, more than fifty thousand officers in the Union deriving their appointments, directly or indirectly, from the executive. They are required to be supporters of the administration. This army of office-holders influence at least fifty thousand of their friends and relatives. Perhaps a hundred thousand more of office-aspirants will support any existing administration, under the expectation of executive patronage. It is perhaps a still more alarming fact that not a few of the members of Congress can be influenced by the same patronage—either by a promise of appointments for themselves, or their relatives or friends.

There are twenty thousand post-masters in the Union, nearly all exercising an influence in favor of the powers that be.—Our President exercises a far greater power and influence than the British monarch on his or her throne—whatever difference between the two governments there may be in theory. With our growing population, the executive power will be on the rapid increase. The tendency is to a concentration of power in the federal hands, which the framers of the Constitution intended to guard against. Without some new constitutional provisions, State rights will soon be submerged under the executive supremacy. The fact of the vast political influence which the federal government now exercises over all the States, cannot be disguised for a moment. The influence of 200,000 office-holders and their friends and office-aspirants, scattered over the Union, is brought to bear upon every party question in which the administration, for the time being, feels an interest. And the power of money has also an influence upon State elections.

The increasing party-virulence manifested in the Presidential elections, results partly from the vast executive patronage, and partly from the new and dangerous doctrine of rotation in office upon a change of administration. Party-devotion, more than qualification, is the passport to office. The principles of our government are lost sight of in the scramble for the loaves and fishes. The office-holder sometimes suppresses the honest convictions of his heart, rather than lose his daily bread. Although a biped, he may be compared, in a certain respect, to a dog with a collar properly labelled. It is indeed deeply to be deplored, that independence in political sentiments in the army of office-incumbents is not tolerated.

The framers of the Constitution, as may be inferred from the debates in the convention, never would have rested with the executive with such unlimited power of appointments to office, could they have foreseen the future dangerous operation of the theory. The only remedy against the annually increasing evils to which we have alluded only in part, is in an amendment of the Constitution, limiting the executive patronage; and vesting the appointing power partly in other independent departments, and reinvesting the sovereign people with the natural right to fill some of the most responsible stations with men of their own choice.

Our remarks will be understood as applicable to all the parties and administrations, since the doctrine of rotation from partizan motives has been enforced. But many more reasons may be assigned for an amendment of the Constitution. In respect to the twenty thousand deputy postmasters, Congress may pass an act authorizing their election by the citizens of towns or cities. But should that mode be liable to valid objections, their appointment by the Governors of the several States would be preferable to the present mode.

DEMOCRITUS.

FORNEY, DOUGLAS, &c.—Col. Forney declares his intention to support the State nominations made by the Harrisburg Convention, which endorsed the Lecompton policy five to one. And yet he denounces the recent Democratic State Convention in Pennsylvania, which resolved in favor of Lecompton by a vote of five to one, as having shamefully misrepresented the Democratic masses of that State. Various Mr. Snookses and Mr. Smiths, who, in their respective chimney corners, had sworn most lustily by Judge Douglas, voted for the President upon the roll call. Even the delegates from Philadelphia, elected, as the report was, by the friends of Col. Forney, left him in the lurch, with but a single exception.

The Washington Republic remarks:

"We sympathize with the Colonel, but could have advised him better, if he had really entertained any hope of carrying the Democratic party against Lecompton. We are only astonished that he carried one-sixth of the Harrisburg Convention. It is quite as large a proportion as he will carry, in the end, of the rank and file. A less proportion will revolutionize the politics of the State."

In connection with his own complaints, Col. Forney publishes an indignant remonstrance from Mr. Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Dougherty says:

But because Mr. Price, of Chicago, and Mr. Miller, of Columbus, faithful to the organization of party, honestly differ with the President, on this one important subject, they are turned out of office, and their places filled by those who swear the King can do no wrong. Let us stand firm. Let us not be seduced from the organization by the flatteries of the Republicans, or goaded into opposition by the slurs and jeers of courtiers and camp-followers.

We are the national Democrats of Pennsylvania. We laughed to scorn the shrieks of the enemies of the Constitution in the North in 1854. We can defy the threats of its enemies in the South in 1858.

Here again the Republic remarks:

Mr. Dougherty is mistaken. He can be "a national Democrat of Pennsylvania," only upon condition of supporting Lecompton. In fact, if he remains "true to the party," and adheres to its "organization," he does support Lecompton, whatever he may say, or think about it, because the "party" and the "organization," are pledged to Lecompton. If Mr. Dougherty wishes to oppose Lecompton, he must oppose the party which upholds Lecompton. Mr. Dougherty will find that that party receives his support to which he gives his vote; and that opinions, not represented by votes, are of very little consequence to anybody.

WEARING THE BEST CLOTHES.—An American correspondent of the Home Journal, who was present at the late royal wedding, thus quietly describes one of her very natural mistakes:—

"There we sat, a wall of human bricks, until twelve o'clock. Owing to an obese dowager on one side, and Fred on the other, I didn't breathe easily for two interminable hours. In the meantime my eyes were industrious enough, and my tongue, too, for that matter; but I made so many ludicrous mistakes with the latter felicitous article, that I gave up in despair, gazed, and said nothing. Like Dame Partington, I couldn't open my mouth but I put my foot into it. Twice only my rebel tongue was too much for me.

'Fred,' said I, after a prolonged silence, 'who is that distinguished nobleman, just opposite—the one all gold lace and silk stockings?'

'That,' replied Fred, trying to hush down a malicious laugh; 'that is Lord B——'s footman!'

'Well, then, Fred, I venture again—whose footman is that?' and I pointed with my bouquet to a modestly-dressed man who was leaning against a pillar beneath us, and looking at everything with a pair of cold grey eyes. 'Whose footman is that?'

'That,' said Fred, 'is Lord B—himself!'

After that I kept still, but I thought to myself, 'What a land is this, where the footman wear all the good clothes!'"

FROM CALIFORNIA.—By the arrival at New York of the Star of the West, we have fifteen days later news from California.

She brings the mails of Feb. 20th, $1,279,134 in treasure on freight, and 199 passengers.

The California Legislature has transacted no business of interest.

The Sacramento Slave case was decided on the 11th, and the slave was handed over to his claimant. The decision is generally condemned by the press.

Via Panama, information has been received that the government of Nicaragua has denationalized Walker and his followers.

Gen. Lamar, our Minister to Nicaragua, had arrived out, but it appears had left his credentials behind, and though the government offered to receive him unofficially, he declined accepting the offer until he received the documents from home.

CONGRESS.—The news is of little general interest. In the Senate, on Monday, March 15, Mr. Wade resumed his speech and concluded. He was followed by Messrs. Mason, Clark, and others.

Various reports memorials, etc., were presented, relative to the Kansas bill.

In reply to Mr. Bigler, of Penn., Mr. Wade said, the Senator from Pennsylvania was mistaken in supposing that he (Wade) had attempted to make out that there were differences between the Senator and the democratic party. It was not so. On the contrary he thought that he (Bigler) and the President were as politically alike as the Siamese twins; and so with the whole democratic party—if the President takes snuff, all good democrats are bound to sneeze. Mr. Wade now recapitulated the circumstances attending the formation of the Topeka Constitution, contending for its legality. The President, he said, had denounced the framers of this Constitution as rebels—if so, there were many more such in Kansas. He stood as their champion. If they were rebels, so were a majority of the House of Representatives—so was he. Gen. Cass was a traitor for presenting that Constitution to the Senate. It seemed that everybody who would not submit to be trampled on by border-ruffianism, are to be denounced as traitors.

Mr. Clark, of N. H., spoke at great length in opposition to the bill, citing numerous cases and law reports to disprove that the common law of England ever recognized the right of property in man. At 5 o'clock, Mr. Clark said he felt much fatigued, having had neither bread nor water since 8 o'clock in the morning, and moved he be allowed to finish his remarks to-morrow.

Motion lost by 13 yeas to 22 nays. Absentees 27.

Mr. Clark resumed, and addressing himself to the remark of Mr. Hammond that Northern laborers are slaves, pronounced a glowing eulogy on New Hampshire, saying he painted in no exaggerated colors the state of her society.

Mr. Hammond, of S. C., said he would not reply now to the gentleman who had taken exceptions to his remarks, but would reply generally at some future time. He would only now say, that the Senator (Clark) knows that he is depicting a state of things which does not exist. Many of his constituents, he knows, cannot get a dinner.

Mr. Hammond is the distinguished national democrat who dignifies all laborers here with the term slaves!

Mr. Clark—With all due respect to the Senator, I say they can not only get a dinner, but can give one to the Senator if he wants it. But he would advise the Senator not to talk of mud sills there, otherwise five feet ten inches of ground, if that is the gentleman's length, might be his portion. In the revolutionary war, a blacksmith of New Hampshire gave his services to the State. His father said to him—"The State is poor; don't ask for your money now." Aye!—the sum due him stands on the record in the capital of New Hampshire, so many pounds, so many shillings,—and his descendants are proud of that record of his patriotism.—Little did the son of that man, (Clark himself,) think he would come into this Senate and hear the Senator from South Carolina call that father slave. (Applause.)

The Senate continued in session when the report closed, with no prospect of adjourning before daylight, the friends of the bill desiring a vote on the subject without further discussion.

☞ The Senate of the U.S. made a night of it, on Monday night.

Senator Clark of N. H. said the Senator from Georgia would find it hard work to crush out twenty Northern Senators. A different class of men now come from the North—men who will not bow down and yield. They are sent not to bow down, but to stand; and the more you crush, the more they will stand. After further remarks, he turned to his own State, New Hampshire—once, he said, the Gibraltar of the Democracy, but now turned squarely round on the subject of slavery. Referring to to the recent election there, he added, she has now fixed her position as a Republican State, and there she will remain. She changes only once in a generation. He closed by warning the Senate that, as they failed in 1852 and 1856, so they would fail by the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution.

Senators Green and Cameron got excited, and were called to order. Perley's special dispatch to the Boston Journal, dated Washington, March 16, 10 A. M., says:

A caucus of Republican Senators is to be held at 11 o'clock, to decide whether they can secure to each other the right of speech.

A duel between Messrs. Cameron and Green will be the probable result of this morning's squabble.

Judge Harris has left the Union, which will be published by Cornelius Wendell, and made a two-cent paper.

In the House, Mr. English of Ind. offered a resolution, which was passed, in relation to the Louisville and Portland Canal.

A bill was introduced to prevent any unnecessary surplus in the Treasury, and to equalize grants of land among the several States.

Mr. Gilmer also asked consent to introduce a bill for the admission of Kansas. Not granted.

Mr. Wright of Ga., introduced a Homestead bill.

Mr. Leiter of O., introduced a bill providing for the election of Postmasters by the people. Refered.

Mr. Leiter also introduced a resolution calling on the President to inform the House what members of the thirty third Congress, who voted for the Kansas-Nebraska bill, were subsequently appointed to office under the late or present administration, etc.

Mr. Hughes of Ind., introduced a resolution for the discharge of Mr. Wolcott from custody.

THE TRUE STANDARD.—Messrs. Editors: Are your readers aware that the African slave trade has been re-opened, and that freshly imported cargoes of Africans are landed and sold into slavery on the banks of the Mississippi, without any to molest? This announcement comes to us in an editorial, by telegraph, from the New Orleans Delta. Have we any reason to expect any thing less infamous as the result of the Dred Scott decision, and from the slaveocracy which is now ruling this nation? Will such facts as these open the eyes of the people of the North? Will they see that they have a common interest in this subject, and no longer make it a party question? Where is our honor as a nation? Where our rights as a free people?

When iniquity thus comes in like a flood, is there no standard to be lifted against it? We hear of glorious revivals of religion all around us. Is is not a question of solemn and fearful interest, whether these thousands of converts are, by the churches and their ministers, to be educated to the standard of the blessed gospel of Christ, or to the present low standard in the churches, which we fear rises no higher than the slave-power and the rum-influence of the community would have it? Is not the language with which the prophet Jeremiah addressed the inhabitants of Judah and Israel for their iniquities, as applicable to the professed church of our times as to his?—"Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

☞ Godey's Lady's Book, April number, contains another beautiful plate, both in design and execution. The expression of the girl's face is a perfect study. The patience and resignation there expressed are a triumph of the engraver's skill.—"Margaret's Home" continues to increase in interest. Mrs. Daffodil again appears. Virginia F. Townsend's "Two Gifts" is continued. "Elder's Biography of Dr. Kane" will be read with interest. L. A. Godey, publisher, Philadelphia.

SENTENCES FROM SPURGEON.—We too often flog the church, when the whip should be laid on our own shoulders.

If we were more like Christ, we should be more ready to hope for the hopeless, to value the worthless, and to love the depraved.

He incurs a fearful amount of guilt, who in the least promotes the aim of the evil one, by trampling upon the tender conscience of a child.

He has softened thee in the furnace; he is now welding thee with a hammer.

To feel is an evidence of life; and spiritual sorrow is a clear proof of life in the soul.

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effcts:

THERE IS NO REMEDY

Creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or general debility.

VOTES DECLARED, IN WARD 1.—To afford authentic data for the answer of questions proposed by Z, or any other letter of the alphabet, we have copied the following statements from the record in the hands of Mr. Hanscom, the town clerk of Ward 1:

Governor, whole number,	626
Railroad Commissioner,	627
Councillor,	628
Senator,	627
Treasurer,	627
County Commissioner,	625
Register of Deeds,	627

On all the above, there were no scattering votes.

It will be seen that the whole State ticket varies but 3 votes, and that there was not one scattering.

The highest declared votes are Assesors 632, Selectmen and Aldermen 633 each, and Common Council 634.

There were but 14 scattering votes, all told, on the city ticket.

TOWN ELECTION IN KITTERY.

At the town meeting on Monday, March 15, the following nominations were sustained by the Navy Yard Administration Democratic party,—each receiving the number of votes set against his name—180 being necessary for a choice.

Messrs. Bray, Lydston and others, not being satisfied with the nominations made by the administration Caucus—Mr. Bray started an opposition Democratic Ticket.

—and the whole "Opposition" ticket was elected.

Mr. Phillips declined serving as Town Clerk, and the "opposition" voted for G. M. Payne against the administration candidate, J. T. Lewis. Mr. Payne was elected by a vote of more than two to one.

It being quite late, the meeting then adjourned until Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

The Republicans made no nominations, and took but little part in the meeting, preferring to stand one side and see the strength of the two parties, headed on one side by Bellamy and on the other by Bray.

DEMOCRAT.

FROM UTAH.—St. Louis, March 15.—John Hartnett, Secretary of Utah, arrived on Saturday night. He left Camp Scott January 26, and reports that the troops were in a comfortable condition and excellent health, only four deaths having occured since the arrival of the command.

In view of a serious, if not insurmountable obstacle in the fortifications on the canons, by the Mormons, it was thought that the entrance into the Salt Lake Valley could be made by another route a hundred miles longer, but offering no obstructions of any magnitude.

VALENTINE CORRESPONDENCE.

The following correspondence actually passed between a couple of young people in Portsmouth—the writers being old acquaintances, but at the time unknown to each other; or rather, "Val." couldn't discover who Miss "L. X." was.

NO. I—FROM "L. X." TO "VAL."

With the beauty of Venus, by the Graces adorned;
And Aurora's gay charms when dim night has waned;
As Juno's self stately; like Minerva discreet;
Youth and health such as only in Hebe is met;
Like Ceres, and Flora, and gentle Pomona;
Far excelling the Muses; as chaste as Diana;—
Such am I, dearest boy, (so they tell me who know)—
Shall such charms be suffered unnoticed to go?
What! a Vastal of forty shall I e'er become?
Shall my beauty and wisdom ne'er find me a home?
I honor young Cupid, though his sharp sting I feel,—
And you are his shrine where devoutly I kneel.
Take pity, I pray you—to you all I resign—
Do but grant me your love—I'm your true Valentine.
L. X.

This bringing no reply, the lady tried again, as follows:

Why will you, ——, poor me perplex?
I wait,—I tire—sigh to be thine:
I pray you do not longer vex
Your true, neglected Valentine!

Direct, if you will, to Miss "L. X," through the P. O.

ANSWER TO MISS "L. X."

Oh, what a puzzle, (and you meant 't should be)
To guess from whence those loving rhymes to me!
Full oft' I've tried—perhaps no wiser am,
My fair incog., than when I first began.

"Perplexed!" indeed!—and who so more than I?
And all for this: to find who heaves a "sigh"—
Who "tires," because I can't be blindly "thine"—
Who "waits" for me to be their Valentine?

No clue have I to thee, but this "L. X."—
Say, now, is not that quite enough to "vex?"—
"Take pity, pray",—"to you all I'll resign?"—
Make thy self known, and I'm your Valentine.

"Address, if you will," as before—"through the P. O."

NO. II—FROM "L. X." TO "VAL."

My name—indeed, sir,—very fine, no doubt!
Give you my name!—ha, ha!—let pussy out,
And spoil the fun!—no, no, it will not do
Until I choose.—Let this then silence you
From vain research and query's useless toil.
Have patience.—E'er remember that I'll foil
All vigilance! And would you know who brings
Safe to my hand your missive!—he who sings—
Your list'ning warbler—ask—perhaps he'll tell.
If you can bribe his tuneful voice, 'tis well.

Do not, I pray you, any more demand
Of one, who gives you freely heart and hand.
And are not these enough, without the name?
Will you that I my burning heart shall tame—
Tell who I am—and all my promise leave?—
Then truly will your doting L. X. grieve.
Write still, I pray you—still the flame will glow.
Unhappy me—my poor heart flutters so!
But I will "tell my love," nor as a worm
Shall cold "concealment" finish life's dull term!
L. X.

REPLY NO. II—TO "L. X."

"Have patience!" bid the moon to light by day—
The stars to wander backward in their track—
But ask me not to leave enquiry's way:
No, never can I cease my brain to rack.
Wait till you choose divulge this strange "L. X"!
Oh! how these wayward girls my soul do "vex"!
I've tried "yon list'ning warbler's" voice to gain,
By threat-I've coaxed and teased-but all in vain!
'Tis "useless toil"—so mote I content be Without thy name, were I but sure of thee.

Caligraphy and I could ne'er agree—
I hope 'twill not be so with you and me.
But then you spoke of "fun"—have you in jest
Thus cruelly been putting me to test?
I'll not believe that woman could write so
Without e'er feeling aught of true love's glow.
Answer me true—then on my "damaged cheek"
No cold "congealment" can "L. X." bespeak,
Which "like a worm in mud"—as I now go—
I can no more—I wad na serve you so.

NO. 3—FROM "L. X."

When next again a lady dares perplex
Imagination, and your soul to vex;
Think then, I pray you, of your false "L. X."

Gratis this moral take—observe it well;
E'er closely count the costs of woman's spell,
Before you trust her specious words or sigh.
Be not entrapped, my friend,—"No fear," you cry.
Yes, but there is: step cautiousty, I pray.
Thus much for you—now woman I'll essay.

Friend, all are not alike; this you'll allow;
And woman's heart is sometimes—"you know how!"
Your kind attentions often deeper move
Than you suspect—aye, e'en perhaps to—love!
Whene'er she fondly, blushingly inclines
Her cheek—and to the kiss thoughtless resigns;
Or naively roams in happy walk with thee,
To forest grove, or to the wide blue sea—
Use her young heart with care—nor wake a flame
Which may consume without her power to tame
Its wild and mad'ning course,—unless in you
The pure intent has aid from passion, too:
She's not of such as "wish pure love to rouse
In other's bosom, which she'd not espouse!"
Thus could I write, perhaps, till morning sun;
But let this "word" "suffice"—my task I've done.

Accompanying this last note was another in prose, containing the card of the writer—from which it appeared that "Miss L. X." was the most intimate gentleman friend and correspondent of "Val.;" and that he had been obliged to "turn off" the subject of discussion several times, to get clear of guessing who "L. X." could be.—This must have been rather a damper on the young man's poetical aspirations; but we believe he survived the shock pretty well, tho' we never have heard of his writing verses since.

More than 500,000 Bottles
SOLD IN THE
NEW ENGLAND STATES
IN ONE YEAR.
THE RESTORATIVE of Prof. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being last dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hockinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.
Youre truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, MASS., Feb. 5, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.
Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

AUCTIONS.

By virtue of a License from the Hon. Judge of Probate.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,
On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,
ON THE PREMISES,
Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known
Jacob Sheafe Farm,
Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased.

The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING(?), probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to
JOHN J. PICKERING.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive organs, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large portion of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of those organs, and cures have been effected in cases of the most distressing character, which have resisted all other treatment. They are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice:

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Carswelle, of New Orleans.

"Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as a family cathartic, but I find the great effect upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy in the materia medica. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry S. Knorr, of St. Louis.

"The Pills you sent me some time since, I have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the disease of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have tried them in dyspepsia, jaundice, and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies in gentlemen's practice. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be adapted to almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the valuable medicines I have found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious disorders, and dysentery. Their superior coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mrs. E. Sweet, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Rochester, N. Y.

"I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretions when sluggish or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and bowels. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other in my practice."

COSTIVENESS — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Pease, Hartford, Conn.

"Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of those who suffer from that complaint, which, although not enough in itself to be the proximate cause of their pain, yet it is productive of originates in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease."

INPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Gardner Smith, Pittsburgh.

"You were right, Doctor, in telling me that your Pills purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and agree with your statements of their efficacy. They should be recommended to the public as the purest blood purifier, for they do purify the blood, and eradicate all those humors that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system."

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PILES—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS—FITS—&c.

From Dr. Edward Ford, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer your kind complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treed with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily practice, and believe your Pills are all that we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although it may be remedy to skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences which frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and they consider it one of the best of all preparations for accuracy and cure. It is select and protected by its uniform effects, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, and WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. Although this medicine has not been long known, this medicine has gradually become the best substance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American forests to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every city and village, and almost every hamlet it contains, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any doubt in your mind as to the virtues of this medicine, we would ask you to ask your neighbor what he thinks of it. We can safely rest the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures so numerous and recognizable to be forgotten.

MOSES & DOWNIE,

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large stock of the same, suitable for shore and sea wear

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities requisite to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call.

They are supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them unfit for sea service.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificate of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to forward money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $30,000 are the theme, and with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 capital prizes are offered, tickets $5. All seem in every instance, anxious to have money sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away with the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries offering the Capital Prize is usually large in comparison to the price of tickets.—In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which pu port to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send out individual certificates. If he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well guarded as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are sent out at quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that any child can understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize is drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after each drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected therewith is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties not resident at a distance are as well protected as if they were present at the drawing. Another fact which should induce one to send for tickets, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and a simple combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, truth and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profession and learned: BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether married or widows, that Dr. CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are a safe and sure remedy for the troubles incident to female disorders, they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, arresting the flowing of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married women, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period, with regularity—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations, and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, we caution that nothing but the said PILLS of Dr. CHESEMAN be purchased, or desired, object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced with the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will find Dr. CHESEMAN'S Pills spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in no case must be considered null and void; that is to say the PILLS SHOULD EVER be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing the Dr. Cheseman's Celebrated Pills, No. 4 Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full and mellow like the Flute. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the upper, and they may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats three thousand persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any in the market, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at the lowest figures.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallet & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. H. Stimpson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited on the payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy the attention, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instrument before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

TEMPERANCE IN (———.)

Some fifteen years ago, in an annual report of our Temperance Society, it was stated that public opinion in this town was in favor of Temperance, and that there were no ardent spirits sold in the town. If the above statement was true there has been a retrograde movement since, for it is believed that there is fifty majority against our excellent Temperance law, and we have evidence to believe that spirits are sold at two or three places; besides, our "respectable landlord" deals it out to "respectable drinkers" without much restraint. It is true he may occasionally sell to some who will abuse their families, but it will not do to prosecute him, as it will hurt "our society," or "our party," and then our "good citizens" will have to go to the low groggeries to get their drams, and what a shame that would be.—So we must suffer it at present, but we hope for a brighter day. TEMPERANCE.

———, March, 1858.

We have the name of the town, but think it best only to draw the picture. The likeness will be correct enough to be perceived.

THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.—The New Orleans Picayune and Bulletin, both denounce in strong terms the act which has passed the house of the Louisiana Legislature, authorizing the importation of 2500 negroes from the coast of Africa into that State, to be indentured for a term not less than fifteen years. The Picayune says:

"We believe that if it had been supposed that there was any danger of the State's embarking in a scheme to revive the Slave trade, by indirection, and bringing into Louisiana gangs of pagan laborers, fresh from the bloody and barbaric wars of the African coast, there would have gone up from this city a protest, speaking the utter repugnance of five-sixths of the population."

The Bulletin declares that the act is "from begining to end, a sheer, unmitigated, transparent fraud. It is an effort to revive the slave trade under the hypocritical and flimsy disguise of a word."—And further, "the Legislature owes it to the dignity, peace and welfare of the State, if not to its own dignity, to put a stop to this thing at once. It can do no good, and certainly must result in harm."

☞ The steamer North American, at Portland, brings Liverpool dates to March 3, being four days the latest. Cotton advanced 1-8 of a penny, and was firm, on a small stock. Breadstuffs cheap, dull and declining—provisions very dull.

The ship Donald McKay arrived at Liverpool on the 1st from Melbourne, with £100,000 in gold.

The American ship Avondale, from Liverpool for New York, got ashore on the north end of Arklow Bank, Ireland, on the 26th ult., and went to pieces. The crew were saved.

Parliament is in session, but the proceedings are not very interesting.

India news is a week later, but no new movements of magnitude have occurred.

In France, the penal law for public security was adopted by a vote of 185 to 1. The single dissentient is said to be Gen. MacNanon. He grounded his opposition on the unconstitutional character of the law, and is stated to have expressed his regret that a measure he considered fatal, should ever be brought forward.

Italy.—Arrests continue to be made in Genoa, through fear of a Republican plot. The troops were confined to the barracks, and held ready for immediate action.

A man-of-war had taken up a position opposite the Republican suburb of the town, with shotted guns.

Turkey.—Fethi Ahmed Pasha, Grand Master of Artillery, and brother-in-law of the Sultan, had died suddenly.

☞ The Washington Republic says:—"The question of the Lecompton Constitution is inextricably combined with that of the election under it, of January 4. The two things cannot be separated. To admit Kansas under the the Lecompton programe, is to instal in power, so far as Congress can do it, the Pro-slavery State Government which Calhoun has the power to declare, and means to declare, to have been elected on the 4th of January. This is one of the inevitable results of the Lecompton policy of Mr. Buchanan, and for its consequences, he, and those who advise him, will be held responsible by the country."

☞ The Rev. Mr. Butler, of the American Mission in India, had arrived safe at Delhi, as we learn from a letter received from him, dated "King's Palace, Delhi, Dec. 20."

A Revolution in the Hunting World!
Hunters, Trappers, Backwoodsmen and Farmers,
Arouse to your Interests!
VIGILANCE SUPERCEDED & DANGER AVOIDED, WITH
BUETHE'S PATENT ANIMAL TRAP!
MORE certain of its prey than the most perfect rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is usually the case with shooting. It effects the capture of the animal, either alive or dead, if preferred, the Barrels discharging themselves simultaneously with the hooks embedding themselves in the mouth. It is simple, yet perfect and strong in its construction, neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange, suitable for Foxes, Bears, Wolves, Deer, Minx, or any animal which in any shape repays hunting after.

REMOVAL.
UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, or applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undesigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
HENRY B. RENWICK, L. D. GALE, S. H. LANE, } Principal Examiners.
T. R. PEALE, THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. C. LANGDON, } Assistant Examiners.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. P. N. FITZGERALD,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUE INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1858.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

STATE ELECTION.—The N. H. Patriot of Wednesday, thus sums up the vote for Governor:—Hails 36,301; Cate 31,530; scattering 57. In the same towns in 1857, Haile had 34,706; Wells 31,169; scattering 436.

The above embraces all the towns in the State, except three small places in Coos, viz: Cambridge, Dummer, and Wentworth's Location, which last year gave 50 votes for Wells and 10 for Haile. Reckoning these the same as last year, the general result will be as follows:—

Whole vote of the State,	67,948
Increase over last year,	2,073
Increase of Democratic vote,	361
Increase of Republican vote,	1,652
Increase of maj. against Dems,	1,291
Haile's majority over all,	4,714
Majority against Cate,	4,788

[A majority of the votes reckoned as scattering last year were cast for Haile, but were returned wrong.]

The Representative list foots up 118 Democrats and 194 Republicans. Three towns only remain to be heard from, viz: Middleton, New Durham, and the classed towns of Ellsworth and Waterville. It is probable that Democrats have been chosen in all of these; and if so, the Democrats will number 121, and the Republicans 194; Republican majority 73.

TRAGEDY IN A PENITENTIARY.—A terrible affair occurred in the Illinois penitentiary at Alton, last week. Lindsey, alias Hall, from Chicago, feigned sickness, and was allowed to keep his cell. Watching his opportunity, he knocked down the guard, a Mr. Crabb, with a slung shot, and binding his hands behind him, dragged him to the cell and placed him before the grating, and, armed with a long knife, threatened him with death if he made any attempt to escape. When the situation of things was discovered, an attempt was made to shoot the convict, which he averted by keeping the body of Crabb between him and the officers. During the day the convict stated his terms of submission to be, a revolver loaded by himself, a full suit of citizens' dress, $100 in money, and to be driven out of town in a close carriage, accompanied by Crabb, to such place as he should designate; but it was declined.—One attempt of Crabb to open the cell door resulted in a stab from Hall. This was on Monday. On Tuesday morning the convict's breakfast was set outside, and supposing the guards to be away, he cautiously opened the cell door to get it, when a crow-bar was inserted, and Crabb was rescued, but not till after he had received nine stabs, two of which perforated the left lung. It was thought that he will recover. The ruffian Hall still refused to yield, and was shot through the skull and died in a short time.

INDIGNED BEQUEST.—The American Missionary Association—a body that repudiates all fellowship with the slaveholder—has received the large legacy of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, by the will of the late Charles Avery of Pittsburg.—Mr. Avery left an equal amount for the education of the colored people of the United States and Canada—we presume in charge of the Association which was to be formed for that purpose. He was also the founder of "Avery College," to which he left $25,000.

☞ A correspondent at New London, N. H., March 15, informs us that Peter Sinclair, Esq., gave two very interesting temperance lectures, at the Baptist Church in that town, Thursday, the 11th inst. In the evening the house was crowded; the audience listened attentively, and were well repaid. The choir discoursed sweet music, and the occasion was one which will long be remembered and incite the community to more active duty in the cause of suffering humanity."

PROCRASTINATION.—Rev. Dr. Reed, of England, estimated from the report of several denominations for fifty years, that about four-fifths of all who ever become truly religious among the churches in England were converted before the age of twenty-five, and that not more than one in forty was converted after the age of 40.

Very probable: and the same thing is true of contracting marriage, or going into business, or make any decisive step in life.

☞ It is mentioned in the English papers that Queen Victoria bore personally all the expenses of her daughter's wedding, and presented to the young couple intact the £40,000 voted by Parliament for the expenses.

SPIRITUALISM AND THE CLERGY.

Messrs. Editors.—"Truth" asks, in substance, what obligation rests on the clergy to investigate Spiritualism? Are they not religious Teachers, and do not the people look up to them for spiritual light and direction? Much that is taught by them in the name of Christ, is repulsive to all the better feelings of our natures; should not they seek for every ray of light that may illuminate these dark places, and show that they are only parasites, sapping and deforming "the true vine," and eclipsing the pure light of His Word? "Prove all things—hold fast that which is good," says the Bible. If they do not this, may they not be "blind leaders of the blind?" Infidelity has made inroads upon Christendom, and captivated some of the most talented minds. If Spiritualism is true, a future life is proved beyond cavil, and the infidel is silenced forever.

When any man or body of men is attacked by another, such attack is a virtual challenge; and any attempt to evade the responsibility, is simply cowardice. Now it is well known that Spiritualism and Spiritualists have within the last three months been attacked from every pulpit in the city, with one exception; and such Christian epithets as infidel, heathen, reprobates, deceivers, &c., have been liberally applied to their neighbors, by men claiming for themselves freedom of thought and action. To such an extent has this been carried, that a gentleman (a stranger) of unimpeachable character, was but last Sabbath held up as a "vile reprobate," in the church of a denomination for which he has labored as a minister for fifteen of the best years of his life—for the simple reason that he deemed it his duty to withdraw from their connection, because they would not allow him to speak the honest convictions of his soul!

It were well for the people of New England to look at home as well as to the South, for slavery; and see if the galling chains of theological despotism are not clanking in the hearts of their children. An old man in his dotage, and a young lady on her death-bed, dragged out and belied before the people, in order to frighten them into Heaven! Is there not love in such a gospel as that? I claim that if they were true men, and believed those things, that they would not hesitate to come out before the people, and repeat them when they could be replied to. This is all Spiritualists ask,—if they are wrong, they certainly have nothing to hope from popular feeling or prejudice, as it is against them, and made and kept so by a thorough system of misrepresentation and abuse.

This is my view of the matter. I regard the clergy as the aggressors, in a matter of which they are confessedly ignorant—they have neither been sparing in their denunciations, nor merciful in their judgement; and when asked to substantiate their charges, silently refuse.

If the readers of the Chronicle have inferred that I was angry, because the clergy do not come out, I would beg their pardon for having given ground for the suspicion; and while I am really in earnest, I cannot see how a person could get offended at such a matter. I only want to know the truth, and if the clergy can prove that this thing is a delusion, I want them to do it,—it is a duty they owe to humanity. Their uninformed opinions are worth no more to me than those of any other persons of equal culture and intellect, either for or against it.

There are now about twenty weekly papers, and six or eight semi-monthly, monthly, and quarterly Magazines and Reviews published in the United States, devoted to the publication of communications and facts bearing upon the subject. Surely "Truth," if he would inform himself, can get sufficient variety and matter in these, without calling for more,—as some of these are probably to be obtained in any news office in the land.

TRUTH SEEKER.

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.—The Boston police arrested a young man named Destin Marshal on Tuesday evening, on the charge of breaking and entering the jewelry store of Mr. F. H. Ellsworth, in Manchester, N.H., a few nights since, and stealing some $800 worth of jewelry and silver ware. Marshal was committed to the Tombs. He confesses his guilt. About $600 worth of the stolen property was recovered.

FIRE.—Auburn, N. Y., March 15.—A fire broke out in the northern wing of the Auburn prison on Saturday evening, and destroyed property belonging to the State to the amount of $5000. Barber & Sons, carpet manufacturers, are also sufferers to a large amount, which is partially covered by insurance. There was considerable excitement among the convicts, but no escapes were made. The fire was increasing,

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, March 16.

SENATE.—The Senate reassembled at noon to-day, and after the transaction of some parliamentary, unimportant business, Mr. Hale made a statement of the agreement entered into by his friends, and acquiesced in by many gentlemen on the other side. The agreement was read, and was as follows:

"We agree that the debate shall close, and the question be taken on Monday next. But, if it appears necessary that the sessions be protracted to allow free discussion, they shall be extended to such hour as we may indicate."

Mr. Bigler considered the agreement in accordance with the views of his friends.

Mr. Fessenden thought the main debate might probably be determined by Saturday.

Mr. Green and Mr. Cameron then apologized to the Senate. Mr. Green after consultation with a number of his friends, desired to make a personal explanation.—He was said to have used language last night which was understood as personal. If so, he now withdrew it.

Mr. Cameron said he might have gone into the Senate last night under a wrong impression. He had no disrespectful feelings towards the Senator from Missouri. He could have none. In common with all Senators, he respected the gentleman, and did not intend anything disrespectful towards him.

Mr. King of N. Y., after discussing the bearings of the Kansas-Nebraska act, referred to Mr. Walker and his instructions. Referring to the prevalent excitement, he said that the Democratic party is responsible for it. All that party is swayed by men who never had a drop of Democratic blood in their veins. He hailed the dawn of the day of emancipation from the influence of such a party. In the day of its purer organization it achieved great triumphs; but the day is at hand when the tainted name "Democrat," will be buried in the same grave where was deposited the old name "Federal." He closed with a complimentary allusion to the Senators from Illinois, Michigan, and California.

Mr. Mallory of Florida spoke next, and and made a pro-slavery speech.

HOUSE.—Mr. Blair of Mo. asked leave to introduce a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill providing for the punishment of those engaged in the importation of Africans under the pretence of apprenticeship. Not granted.

Mr. Greenwood of Arkansas introduced a bill to punish free negro stealing in the Indian country.

Mr. Phelps of Missouri introduced a bill for the admission of Kansas. It provides for a new Convention, to which the Lecompton Constitution shall be referred. He moved the reference of the bill to a Select Committee.

Mr. Stephens of Ga. moved to refer it to the committee on Territories. Lost, 94 yeas to 105 nays.

The Speaker laid before the House a memorial from the Legislature of Utah, addressed to the President and Congress. It was read, but before it was finally disposed of, the House adjourned.

THE NIGHT SESSION of the Senate at Washington, resulted in a complete victory by the Republican Senators. The slave driver's whip was cracked over their heads,—but they did not cowerr before it, any more than the freemen of New Hampshire do. The slave drivers were brayed, resisted, tired out, beaten and humiliated.—There was a little relenting among the slaveocracy about daylight.

Mr. Iverson, of Georgia, thought the majority had not acted magnanimously in refusing the opportunity asked by the minority for the purpose of consulting.

Mr. Broderick was unalterably opposed to the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution. He was prepared to accept his share of the responsibility and endurance.

Mr. Iverson moved an adjournment—yeas 17, nays 17—the President voting nay, it was lost.

Mr. Broderick moved an adjournment—yeas 15, nays 18.

Mr. Wilson moved an adjournment.

Carried by acclamation.

The Senate then adjourned, at 6 30 o'clock, A. M., till 12 M.

The Speaker of the House received the Mormon memorial direct from Salt Lake. Its tone being considered offensive by many members, he said he did not feel at liberty to decline laying it before the House, it coming from the Territorial Legislature.

Mr. Douglas has been confined to his room for four days by sickness. The Republicans want him to speak, but his physicians say that he must not for some days. Last night, when an unexpected attempt was made to force a vote, he came into the Senate ante-room, to engineer his forces, but did not take his seat. We learn that the excitement he was under has occasioned a relapse, but that he is determined to speak this week.

The correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer writes:

"The anti-Lecompton Democrats remain firm, are secure in their ability to defeat the pro-Slavery outrage, which is intended to Africanize the party throughout the Union—and in their power, to dictate terms to the Administration afterwards. Of this latter contingency there can be no doubt whatever. If Lecompton be defeated, the combined opposition of Republicans and liberal Democrats with the honest portion of the South Americans, will take immediate possession of Congress, and obtain perfect control of the country. Mr. Buchanan knows that."

☞ "Tau," the racy correspondent of the Newark Evening Journal, writing from Brunswick, Me., has the following amusing illustrations of the trials to which teachers of "deestric" schools, in the pine tree state, are occasionally subjected:

"If a teacher felt at liberty to laugh aloud whenever anything occurred to tempt him so to do, perhaps he might have an easier time of it. One morning a teacher suddenly heard a loud whistle, but on looking up, every one was busily attending to his back. Being a little provoked, after vainly looking for the culprit, he said:—"Let the one who whistled hold up his hand." Not a hand was raised. "Let every one who did not do so, hold up his hand." In an instant every hand was raised. He began to despair, but presently some one cried out, "'Twas John who whistled. Here was an opportunity for an example. "John, did you whistle?" said he, as harshly as he was able. "Yes, sir." "What did you whistle for?" "'Cause my teeth itched," was the ready answer.

Another teacher was vainly striving to teach a little chap his letters, but he would persist in saying B was A, and A was B. Finally, he asked him why he did not pay better attention, when the little fellow said, "Oh! I can't talk to-day. I've got a darned great apple in my pocket."

☞ The Commissioners appointed to investigate the affairs of the Hartford County Savings Association estimate the value of the property at $261,646.08. The liabilities of the Association, are stated at $389,806.10. John W. Seymour owes the concern between $24,000 and $25,000, which is called worthless, although a small dividend may be realized from his estate.

SLAVERY IN MISSOURI.—Old Murphy, as he calls himself, a wealthy planter of Platte county, said that he had always done his work by slave-labor until the last year, and that slavery was all right; but it cost more than free labor, and therefore he had sold his slaves, and many of his neighbors were doing the same. He also said that every week two or three runaways were arrested in his neighborhood.

U. S. TREASURY NOTES.—The bids at Washington, on Tuesday, for the new Treasury Notes, reached $7,000,000. All the bids below 5 and part of those at 5 per cent. have been accepted.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette says that there are in the 3d ward in that city a very large number of families, many of the heads of whom are mechanics, who subsist upon meal one per day.

☞ The large pail factory of Jonathan Wheeler, in Athol, was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning, and the loss is roughly estimated at $8000, with an insurance of only $2000.

☞ Out of thirty-five scholars in a school in Cuyahoga county, Ohio, nine of the boys are regular chewers of tobacco, and five of the girls are smokers.

☞ In Massachusetts, Gov. Banks has nominated Hon. Charles Allen, of Worcester, as Chief Justice of the Superior Court, vice Nelson, resigned.

ERYSIPELAS.
This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.
Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING, &c.

Union Prayer Meeting in the Fleet street Vestry, from 8 to 9 o'clock this morning, to which all are invited.

Preaching in the Methodist Church this afternoon and evening.

Rev. J. Hobart will review a discourse recently delivered by Rev. Dr. Peabody, of this city, against Spiritualism,—this evening, at the Temple. Admittance free.

E. Whitney preaches in the Advent Chapel this evening.

There will be a Prayer and Conference meeting at the Vestry in the Temple, this evening at half past 7 o'clock.

THE MISSING BALLOTS.—Messrs. Editors. The record of the town clerk shows that 634 ballots were declared by the Moderator of the Annual Meeting in Ward One for Common Councilmen. Was this result an accurate count of the ballots? Let us deal with the subject as if Common Councilmen only were voted for that day. Each unscratched ballot contained the names of 9 candidates. Of the two highest candidates, C. A. Wiggin received 305, and George Rogers 324 ballots,—some Republican voter probably scratching out some other name than Wiggin and inserting the name of Rogers, and some Democrat scratching out some other name than that of Rogers and inserting the name of Wiggin, by means of which each of them received one more vote than the whole number of ballots which were probably thrown.

Deduct, therefore, 2 from 629, the amount of their united vote, and we have 627, which probably does not vary more than 1 ballot from the number actually thrown; for it is, with but little discrepancy, the number declared for the other 16 opposite candidates,—it is exactly 20 less than the number of voters checked by the town clerk, and 7 less than 634, the number for Common Councilmen.

It requires something more than 7 voters to produce only this result, by each one's scratching out all but one of the names on his ballot,—each of the 7 scratching different names from those of the other 6. Nine voters in that way way get rid of exactly 8 ballots—neither more nor less,—and if only one name on each ballot is scratched, 63 such erasures, at least, are required. The erasure of one name and the insertion of another, does not diminish the number of the ballots.

When we have got thus far, we have gone only far enough to see clearly, the difficulty we should have in reconciling this little discrepancy, even if this was the only one in the day's work.

The same discrepancy exists in the ballot for Aldermen, Assessor and Selectmen. We still have thirteen ballots missing on the other 15 classes of officers voted for. What solution have we for these discrepancies, except that there was a mistake or mistakes in the count, or that some tickets were accidentally lost from the pile?

GRAVELLY RIDGE.

AN UNFOUNDED EXPECTATION.—We are authorized and requested to state that Rev. Dr. Peabody will not be present at the Temple this evening to reply to Mr. Hobart's review—nor will any one else reply for him at his request. Dr. P. does not object to Mr. H.'s lecturing as he may see fit—but he does object to having the false expectation raised, by advertisement, that he will reply, when he distinctly told the lecturer that he could not and would not be present.

☞ Father Kemp's Old Folks' Concert Troupe, of about forty performers, from Reading, Mass., we learn will probably give one of their popular Concerts, at the Temple, on Wednesday evening of next week. This celebrated company have given nearly three hundred concerts, in various parts of the country; and always with the greatest success. They have just returned from a two months' trip to Washington, &c.; during which they sang twenty-nine times in Philadelphia. They are all clad in the costume of a hundred years ago, and assisted by a fine orchestra of eleven instruments. We don't like the "old clothes" part of the performance; but most everybody does,—and they will have a full house,—as their performances undoubtedly merit. The programme always commences with Albert Laighton's Song of the Old Folks—a whole concert in itself, when sung and played by such a glorious choir.

PRAYERS FOR FREEDOM.—A believer in the efficacy of prayer sends the following for publication:

Say to the three thousand clergymen who signed and sent to Congress a remonstrance against the repeal of so much of the Missouri compromise as prohibited slavery forever above the line of 36.30, that if they will set apart but one evening each week, and petition our God, the God of the whole world, in prayer,—joined and united as they will be, by the tens of thousands more of the strong men, in prayer and in faith—and ask God to set not only Kansas, but the whole nation free; this will be the result, as certain as the Bible is true. God's word for it.

June 12. MELCHISDEC.

N B. Let some one on some evening in each week, fixing on a certain minute, to commence offering prayer for the above named purpose, and should they not continue more than fifteen minutes in prayer each evening, God will assuredly answer such a prayer. May it be speedily attended to by some one.

Messrs. Editors:—Please give the above thoughts of M. a place in your paper.

After a lapse of time sufficient for action from the pastors of the American Churches with the evils pending, and the judgment of God gathering thick over us, as a nation, and with all those things clearly manifest from the signs of the times, including all past history from the commencement of time up to the present, it is not known that God does not deal with nations according to their sins. If our watchmen, who should stand on Zion's wall, neglect to humble themselves, with the people under their charge, return to God from whom we have revolted, with repentance, humiliation and prayer, what have we to expect? While God is shaking the nation with unknown judgments in our history as a nation, not merely in business affairs, but politically, we ask is there not a cause? Will God be worked? Will he receive prayers and return answers of peace, when such come only from the lips, not accompanied with the fervent desire of the heart?

Permit me to recommend to every family where an altar of prayer is erected, to offer prayer every morning and evening, is especially that God would purge and purify our Government and its rulers so that the judgments of God may be turned aside, and our nation be saved from the calamities that otherwise awaits it. There are many worthy exceptions among our clergy to whom this will not, or is not intended to be applied. M.

KITTERY TOWN ELECTION.—The adjourned meeting, on Tuesday, resulted in choosing two Republicans to fill vacancies.

G. M. Payne (Democrat) resigned, and John Wentworth (Republican) was chosen Town Clerk, by 204 votes, without opposition.

A. E. Parsons, (Democrat) Selectman, resigned, and Joshua H. Sanborn (Republican) was elected by 156 votes, against 44 for Daniel Peirce, Democrat.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Times correspondence.)—The vote in the House today, on sending Montgomery's bill to a select committee, is considered the most significant yet of the inherent weakness of Lecompton, and greatly encourages its opponents.

Mohammed Pasha arrived to-night. I understand that he had not been at Willard's Hotel twenty minutes before his room was broken open, his trunks were ransacked, their contents strewn about, and his carpet bag was cut fairly in halves.—Two thousand dollars in gold and a crown set with gems, worth as much more, were undiscovered by the thieves.

(Cor. N. Y. Post.)—Since the defeat of the administration in New Hampshire, sundry and divers citizens of that State have hastened to this city, and are urging the passage of the Lecompton constitution. Among them are Judge Upham and Edmund Burke. It is said that the latter gentleman knows something about the renting of Paran Stevens' new store-house by the Secretary of the Treasury, in Boston. Mr. Marshall is here. He labored to convince the people of New Hampshire that Lecompton was "all straight," and now asks to be appointed United States Attorney for the district of New Hampshire.

The War department has concluded a contract to the extent of three millions of dollars for transportation alone to the Utah army, without advertising or other public notice!

The House passed a resolution to adjourn on the first Monday in June; and the Senate might concur if willing to do its work up.

More than 500,000 Bottles

SOLD IN THE

NEW ENGLAND STATES

IN ONE YEAR.

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being last dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is covered completely with the finest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

COCHOCTON, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Huckins,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some state in the west, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.

WAYLAND, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gent: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly 3 bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

AUCTIONS.

By virtue of a License from the Hon. Judge of Probate.

Will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION,

On SATURDAY, Mar. 27, 12 o'clk, M.,

ON THE PREMISES,

Seven-Twelfths, in common and undivided, of the well-known

Jacob Sheafe Farm,

Formerly owned by JACOB SHEAFE, Esq., deceased. The other portions can probably be obtained, if desired.

Said Farm lies on both sides of the new Sagamore Road, contains about 296 ACRES, well divided into Mowing Fields, Tillage and Pasture Land, and Salt Marsh, &c., together with a large and valuable growth of Wood and Timber.

It possesses advantages for obtaining large and inexhaustible supplies of SEA-DRESSING, probably unequalled by any other Farm in this vicinity.

The extensive OCEAN VIEW which it commands, with its fine sites on Sagamore Creek, and easy access to the City, make this a rare opportunity for a safe investment.

The quality of the Land, heavy growth of WOOD, and facilities for obtaining Sea-Dressing, offer inducements in this sale to the Farmer, seldom to be found.

Terms made known at time and place of Sale.—For further particulars, apply to

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these PILLS are found to cure many variety of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"YOUR PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and efficacious in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Pomeline Gaillard, of New Orleans.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice given more relief to me and my patients of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — CONSTIPATION.

From Dr. Henry J. Evans, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly a extraordinary medicine. So powerfully are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies to no purpose. Indeed I have never experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"YOUR PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent agent in the treatment of bilious fevers, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Rev. E. Bickel, late operative as a Physician and Minister in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper commencement of the disease, will prevent suppuration when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Temple, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should be as free as I am in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prolifer of others that are worse. I believe cutaneous eruptions to originate in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Rudolph Bell, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and agree with your statements of their efficacy. They stimulate the excretories, and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system.

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—FEVER—DYSPEPSIA—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS—FIRE—&c.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say all that we read and write of in our medical books. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we know, I of course use them freely."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It is recommended by many thought the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in the advanced stage of the disease. As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the American people, and is now used by the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them; if we can trust our own senses when we see the disease, gaunt and ghastly, fastening upon the lungs yield to it; if we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, whose business it is to know; in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then is it beyond question or doubt that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unbroken chain of benefits conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

Maryland State Lotteries.

R. FRANCE & CO.....MANAGERS.

CAUTION NOTICE.

PERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets.—The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at Dime, Quarter, Half, and Dollar prices are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is sent down a way without the shadow of a chance of getting it back. Nearly all of Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets—is every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland Drawings; all other Lotteries which are drawn are decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering in the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of fair and honest drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the numbers printed, and have the lithographic signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates. If he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected if they were present. The Manager would respectfully solicit attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the Lottery Office of Samuel Swan & Co. are located in the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being placed in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing published in the newspapers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Dog Book. LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, are chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which should weigh with persons is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day by the wheel. The numbers drawn are named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan,) and vary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away; and WHEREAS, the unprincipled and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BEIT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether married, single, or widows, that Dr. CHRESMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are a safe certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruations, strengthening the system, preventing disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity. AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their application, and unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect, the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, be it resolved, that scruple but the said PILLS of Dr. CHRESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the ladies will remember, that they are spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one mouth be considered FULL AND TRUE; that is to say the PILLS WILL NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHRESEMAN, Box No. 4571, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ-like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of a coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufactory, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in music, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., W. H. Lyon,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited on the payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instrument before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, will receive the same attention as if given in person, cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.

Much is said and written now-a-days of women's rights. What, then, (asks the Baltimore Sun,) are her rights? She has a right to a good education. This it is not only just, but expedient to give her.—Man defrauds himself when he withholds it. For is not woman to be his constant companion? Would he choose that his companion should be destitute of ideas?—Surely not. The conversation of an educated woman is a perpetual feast. If the first pleasure of life is action, the second certainly is talk. And there is almost as much pleasure in talking about things as in doing them. A man wants in a wife not only a companion but a counsellor.—No one mind ever saw all sides of all subjects, nor even all sides of one subject.—And the wisest suggestions not unfrequently come from the least informed. The Pythones, the Sybils of old, were women, because women were always supposed to enjoy a nearer access to the fountain of wisdom than man.

Women have a right to good husbands, because most of them mean to do the thing that is nearly right. When they marry they have a right that their husbands shall be men, and not mere wrecks of debauchery and dissipation. Oh, it is one of the cruelest of wrongs, for a pure and innocent girl to throw herself away upon a broken down victim of licentiousness, who is more fit for a hospital than to preside over a family, the candidate for premature decay and early death. The mind and moral nature generally in such cases, is quite as much a wreck as the body. The freshness of life is all worn off, the gayety of innocence is forever gone. The life of such a man is cold and hard, destitute of sentiment and enthusiasm. Woman is cruelly wronged when she has accepted such a companion.

Woman has a right to the society of her husband. Home should be his sanctuary, and he ought to find his happiness there. If he does not there is something wrong. He has promised to be the husband—that is the house-band—the band that keeps the household together. His presence there is necessary to keep all right. If he wanders away heedlessly, something is apt to go wrong. His authority is often wanted to maintain order, to arrange business, to superintend labor. His absences ought to be as few and infrequent as possible. Woman has a right to this, and her rights are grossly violated when her husband is often unnecessarily away.

Lastly, women have a right to the earnings of their husbands for the support of their families. We never pass a drinking saloon, from the low grogery to the preponderous hotel, without saying to ourselves, here, after all, is the most outrageous violation of woman's rights. We sometimes get a glimpse of the interior of those apartments, and whom do we see there? Husbands and fathers who subsist upon their daily wages, spending one half or perhaps all their earning in liquid poison, to ruin their health, spoil their temper, corrupt their morals, and make themselves odious and loathsome vagabonds; while their wives are at home, earning by the slender gains of their needle, the pittance which rescues their mutual offspring from starvation. Oh! this is to bad to be seen and suffered in a Christian country.

This outrage upon woman's rights cries loudest of all to Heaven, and if there were a particle of the chivalry in these degenerate days, this is the first abuse in our social economy which would be abated. Tell me not of the barbarism of the Malays or the Feejee Islanders, who roast their enemies and pick their bones. Their enemies expect it, and would do the like in return. But here the black-hearted cruelty is inflicted by a friend—the one who ought to be the nearest and tenderest of all! Our boasted civilization and Christianity of the nineteenth century—what are they?

ARREST OF A CLERGYMAN.—The Rev. Robert D. Dwyer, an Irish Protestant Congregational Minister, who has officiated some months at Holmes's Hole, Edgartown, and other places on Cape Cod, was arrested at the State House, Boston, on Tuesday afternoon, on a charge of obtaining $100 from Wm W. Hubbard, pattern maker, at 13 Haverhill street, by means of false pretenses. The accused was brought before the Police Court and held in $500 for examination on the 24th inst. In default of bail he was committed.

CHINESE CHARACTER.—Rev. J. C. Beecher, seaman's chaplain at Hong Kong, a son of Rev. Dr. Lyman Beecher, in a letter to the Sailor's Magazine, writes as follows:—

"I am more and more disgusted with Chinese character every day. China is a moral Golgotha for sailors; and physical too. It is heart-sickening to see and hear from day to day the effects of vice and immorality, and mournful to walk over grave-yards where row after row of stoneless graves tell how many friendless wanderers have fallen by the way; and laid their bones in a strange land. The Chinese are a lying, thieving, licentious race, defiling everything which comes in contact with them, deceiving from a natural instinct to deceive. It aggravates me beyond measure to see so much expended here to Christianize the Chinese, while in the whole of India and China, so far as I know, (Shanghai excepted) sailors, our own people, are all adrift, robbed, diseased, plundered, murdered by these miserable heathen."

"DUTCH SWILL."—The Boston Temperance Visitor remarks:

"The liquor-sellers are evidently working their cards to make something out of the lager beer question. They may as well give it up, however. It will intoxicate, and the law gives them no chance for evasion, by specifying particularly the articles to be proscribed in sale as intoxicating. Our liquor law specifies lager beer in connection with rum, etc."

☞ A Mrs. Cram, wife of Hiram Cram, who resides on a farm situated about a mile and a half from the South Village in Peterborough, on the old road leading from thence to Jaffrey Center, committed suicide on Tuesday morning last, by shooting herself with a double-barrelled gun.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Pennsylvanian says that Hon. Jefferson Davis, Senator from Mississippi, is in a very critical condition, and it is doubtful whether he can recover.

☞ Crawford's "Peri" has arrived at Philadelphia, consigned to the purchaser, Arthur A. Burt, Esq., of that city.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 70 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

MATTERS IN WORCESTER.

WORCESTER, MASS., March 17.

Dear Chronicle:—Worcester being a progressive and enterprising city, and likewise so pleasantly situated, with the very many railroads that center herein, has always attracted many visitors; more particularly during the summer season. To accommodate the transient travel, two new first-class hotels have been erected within a few years—the Bay State and Lincoln.—Both are conducted on the most liberal principles, and the stranger has never had occasion to speak aught to the disparagement of either. But this winter there has been a great decrease in their transient patronage, and they have experienced the deteriorating effects of the "pressure" in a great degree. The minor hotels have also suffered greatly, on account of the general stagnation, many of them being scarce able to sustain themselves. We look for a better state of things soon, otherwise there will be a crash somewhere.

The County Jail and Alms House have been filled with vagrants, who, on the borders of destitution, have fled to these institutions to escape the accumulating miseries of poverty. There are, besides, a great number of outsiders dependant on the charitable associations and private beneficence. We have remarked but little of that ostentatious charity, which manifests itself only when its virtues will be publicly acknowledged, and its praises heralded abroad.—It requires discrimination and judgment to bestow alms properly at any time; but much more so at this period, when so many applications are made to the charitably disposed for old, and so much deceit and hypocrisy is practiced by professional begging imposters.

One very gratifying feature in these connection, is the fact that many of the bowling-alleys, billiard and gambling-saloons, which infest this, as every other city, have been obliged to suspend—permanently we hope—from want of support.

It is in such places as this, that the young receive their lessons of depravity and crime; here they throw off the shackles of moral and mental integrity, and appear in the character of incipient rowdies and bullies. Herein all the good instilled in the youthful mind is eradicated: here every sense of purity, modesty or delicacy is obliterated; and here they sow the seed of infamy which shall mature a speedy harvest of misery. A young man who is a frequent habitue of these places, is surely on the direct road to ruin, and will ultimately reap the reward of his folly.

Our city possesses educational advantages of the highest order, as the following statistics will show. Within the boundaries of the city there are now fifteen primary schools, seven secondary, two large grammar schools, with nine teachers, three adult or evening schools, fourteen suburban schools, and the classical and English High School. These are supported at a cost of upward of $25,000 per year, and are fully equal to any system of public schools in the country.

Aside from the public schools, there is a large number of private academies, seminaries, and institutions of learning, prominent among which are the Ladies' Collegiate Institute, Oread Institute, College of the Cross (catholic), Highland, and Salisbury Mansion schools, Worcester Academy, Commercial College, and the School of Design. Many of the pupils attached to these institutions are from abroad, while the home element is generously intermingled therewith.

Notwithstanding the activity and go-aheadiveness of Young America, its morals are sadly degenerating. Anent of this is an illustration.—A young school-girl just entering her teens, whose proclivities for street education have enabled her to prosecute her studies more zealously out of school than in, turned up one day, a week or two ago, missing.

As it was also found that a rather 'fast' friend of the male species was likewise 'out,' it was concluded that the precocious pair had taken themselves off without leave or license, for reasons best known to themselves. A considerable amount of money took its departure from the young lady's domicil about the same time, and it is feared she did not strictly confine herself to the commandment 'thou shalt not steal.' Efforts have been made to bring back the runaways, but without success. It is apprehended that after the funds have become exhausted, and they have had a good time generally, they will return humble and penitent—the usual way.

The religious spirit in this city does not as yet show signs of abatement. Union morning prayer-meetings are held daily, and all denominations unite in concord and harmony for the conversion of sinners.—There is no excitement, such as is usually attendant on great revivals, but everything is conducted in a quiet and sincere manner.

A Festival of Beauty is announced to take place to-night at one of our halls.—Anything that has a tendency to dispel care and gloom is hailed with pleasure, and the little warblers, among the evergreen bowers and emblems of summer, will have a warm greeting. D. E. F.

CONGRESS.—The vote on the bill for the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, will be taken in the United States Senate on Monday next. It is reported that the "South Americans" of the two houses will combine with the Douglas Democrats and the Republicans against the measure. Such a combination would avail nothing in the Senate, because the administration has a clear majority in that body; but in the House it might overthrow the measure.

Mr. Crittenden, of Kentucky, made an elaborate speech in the Senate, on Wednesday, against Mr. Green's bill for the admission of Kansas with the bogus constitution.

Mr. Crittenden's speech admits the justice of the praises bestowed upon the North, by Mr. Fessenden of Maine, and upon the South by Mr. Hammond of South Carolina; but he prefers the whole Union to either section. Mr. Critteaden was honored by a large and distinguished audience.

In conclusion, he said he should vote on the question as a Senator of the United States of America—not as a sectional man. He owed allegiance to no section. The course he would approve would be to pass a law by which the Constitution shall be submitted to the vote of the people, and if ratified, he would admit Kansas into the Union.

Mr. Trumbull (of Illinois) then rose, and after complimenting Mr. Crittenden's speech, proceeded to state his objections to the Lecompton Constitution.

In the House of Representatives the army bill was debated.

FROM WASHINGTON.—Washington, March 17.—The House Select Committee of Investigation on Printing, discloses the fact that the printing of the last two Congresses cost about $4,700,000. While some of the members of the Committee will report in favor of establishing a government office for printing and binding, to be under the Secretary of the Interior, others will propose amendments to the present laws on the subject, and recommend a reduction of thirty-five per cent. from present prices; also that no book exceeding two hundred and fifty pages shall be printed, except by the joint resolution of Congress, nor any book commenced unless the executive officer from whom it emanates certifies that the document is complete; and that the binding be given to the lowest bidder, under such guards as will prevent further abuse.

In view of the fact that many thousand dollars are paid annually to three newspapers in Washington for publishing proposals for carrying the mails, the Committee will recommend that one paper only be selected for that purpose, and to have greater publicity in the States and Territories where that service is performed. Also that the executive control over the post office blanks be removed, and the work let to the lowest bidder.

All the vacant Cadetships in the Military Academy have been filled.

Mr. Crittenden's speech in the Senate attracted the largest audience of any Kansas speech. Mr. Stockal, Lord Napier, and many members of the House of Representatives were on the floor; Mrs. Crittenden and several of the ladies of the Senators in the galleries; and his friends crowded around him shortly after he had concluded and congratulated him.

The Republican members of the House are in full caucus to-night. They want reasonable time for discussion, say from one to two weeks after the Kansas bill comes from the Senate, when they will be willing that the question be taken.

Recent information from Kansas removes all doubts as to the election of the free State ticket, and therefore Mr. Calhoun has declared his intention to give certificates accordingly.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

It was a remark of the President, Mr. Pierce, in whose time speculation was so rampant here, that all the corruptions of the State Legislatures have centred in Congress. This was the most remarkable speech that President ever made during his Administration; and perhaps it was one of the most frank and sincere.

☞ The Sound steamer Empire State, from Fall River for New York, got on some rocks, 35 miles from New York city, in the fog, at 10 minutes past 5 o'clock on Wednesday morning—and lays there, hard and fast. People and freight all safe.

"I must live," says the rumseller, in palliation of his crime of selling rum. The reply of old Dr. Johnson is always apt—"I don't see the necessity of that."

THE NEW YORK CANALS.—There have been expended in completing the New York canals the nine millions of dollars authorised to be borrowed in 1854, in addition to a mill tax of about $1,350,000, and there are outstanding protested drafts of Canal Commissioners for work done, interest to come due within the year on the debt, &c., amounting in the aggregate to one million two hundred thousand dollars; and there is no power to borrow money for the purpose of meeting these claims. The work of enlargement is suspended, and the further cost is estimated by the State Engineer at about four millions of dollars. This is the statement of the Albany Argus. It is rather an unpleasant one for the citizens of the Empire State.

The people of New York have been silly enough to tie up their own hands, as to borrowing. Her De Witt Clinton is dead.

☞ Mr. Henley, an English gentleman who was in this country in 1855-6, has written an account of what he saw in Washington while the contest for the Speakership was going on. He says of Governor Banks:—

"Mr. Banks is a tall, fine-looking man, now (1856) in his fortieth year. He has a deep-toned and rotund voice, and a fluent, impressive delivery, and happiness in the choice of language, that secure instant attention when he rises to address the House. The present Speaker is undoubtedly an able, rising man, and if I may venture on a prophecy, I nominate him for the Presidency next but one."

Mr. Henley means the election of 1860, and we shall see how much of a prophet he is, two years hence.

A SECOND LONDON EXHIBITION.—We see by the last London Atheneum, that the project of a second Crystal Palace Exhibition of all nations, to take place in 1861, is on foot. The proposals thus far considered contemplate a collection of the fine arts; but the Atheneum advocates an extension of this idea so as to provide for an exhibition of industrial art—"of every article," it says, "fashioned by man's fingers, from the transfiguration to a tin kettle." We hope the grand design will meet with general favor.

☞ The Washington Democratic correspondent of the Journal of Commerce is not so hopeful as he has been of the passage of Lecompton through the House.—He says:—

"In the estimates that have been made as to the strength of the Administration in the House, on the Kansas question, it has been taken for granted that nearly all the Southern members of the American party in that body would, from sectional influences, be inclined to go with the administration.

They would have done so, perhaps, could a vote have been got early in the session. But they now feel safe, at home, and can see their way clear to strike a blow at the Administration and the Southern Democratic party.

With the accession of six Southern Americans, Mr. Harris of Illinois, is now strong enough to dictate such an investigation into the matter of election frauds in Kansas, as will meet the views of the anti-Lecompton men."

☞ The New York Tribune says: "We have private and confidential advices from Washington which fully justify our conviction that the Lecompton fraud cannot pass the House of Representatives. Mr. Crittenden's declaration is more important than it appears on the surface. In their recent conferences the South Americans had failed to agree upon any basis for a future policy, and the Tennessee members of the House withdrew, declining any participation in opposition to Lecompton.—Six who voted in favor of Mr. Harris's movement on Friday, are now likely to be confirmed in their opposition; and if they stand resolute, Lecompton cannot pass without additional recruits, though it is still claimed that it can by the administration. In any event, the bill must be so modified as to remove the sting and destroy the purposes of its contrivers. Mr. Bell will follow up the attack to-morrow with a speech worthy of his fame and the occasion."

☞ A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Journal says that the decision of the question of the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton constitution "rests with the American members from the South, and they are not disposed to sustain Mr. Buchanan at the expense of their consciences. They rather prefer to take the high conservative ground occupied by Gov. Wise."

☞ Miss Tyrrell, the only daughter of the admiral of that name, recently gave her heart, hand and fortune, which consisted of no less than £160,000, to her preceptor. Mr. Hughes, the fortunate possessor, has only just attained his majority, while the lady is his senior by ten years.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT AT MEREDITH VILLAGE.—Tuesday as the Conway stage, driven by Peter Hines was ascending the steep hill at Meredith Village, a loaded "pung" sleigh from which the horses had been taken to "bait," started and came pell-mell toward the stage with the rapidity of an arrow, and before Peter could get out of the way, it took the stage corner wise and capsized it, and went on its way rejoicing as if it had accomplished wonders. Several passengers got badly bruised; one lady from East Concord was injured so much, that she had to be left there; Stanton, the travelling jeweller, from New York, came to Manchester, and Dr. Buck dressed his wounds and he was able to go on next morning; a gentleman from Lawrence and another from Boston, were some hurt, but were able to go home last night.

We don't hear that the "pung" was hurt!—Manchester Mirror.

☞ Parts 45 and 46 Spencer's splendid History of the United States, just received from the publishers, Johnson, Fry & Co., of New York. Five more numbers finish the work, which is very valuable. The engravings in these are "The Battle of Chippewa," and "De Soto's Discovery of the Mississippi."

VALUABLE FACTORY AND STEAM POWER FOR SALE.—The property of the Boston Brick Manufacturing Company, consisting of steam engine, machines, buildings, and every facility for the extensive manufacture of bricks, and for the prosecution of many other branches of the manufacturing business. It is finely located, and offers unusual inducements to purchasers. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

☞ Why suffer from a protracted cough when relief may be so easily obtained.—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is undoubtedly the most reliable of all preparations offered for the cure of throat and lung complaints. Try it.

Bigotry murders religion, to frighten fools with her ghost.

ERYSIPELAS.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was finally induced by my friends to attend the Medical Clinique, of New Haven. Dr. Knight prescribed the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover.

Having experienced such an unaccountable cure myself, I advised the same medicine for my sister, who was similarly afflicted. She also used it with the same beneficial effects:

Meeting for Prayer and Conference in the brick Vestry on Fleet street, at half past 7 o'clock this evening.

☞ During the late visit of Mr. Sinclair to this city, a large number of persons, both men and women, signed the Washingtonian pledge, among whom were many Scotch and English, his own people.—It is a sort of common talk in the newspapers, that almost every body would bid this work God speed. But how is the fact? These people, some of them in particular, have been constantly beset with invitations to drink that from which they have promised to abstain. Why? why must they be dragged back? In many cases we know not why; but in one case we do. A rumseller, from Newburyport, offered one of these pledged men $5 if he would take a single drink. He wished to seduce one of the firmest and most manly, that he might break the force of his good example, and so fill his own coffers with the dirty gain which he might wring from the folly and misery of the tipplers and their families.

GARDINER HIGH SCHOOL.—We are indebted to our friend Edward A. Rand, for a copy of a neat "Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Gardiner High School, Maine." The school consists of 110 members—46 males, 64 females. Of these, 12 are put down as preparing for College.—The Principal is Edward A. Rand, A. B.; having for Assistant Miss Susan Adams.

Mr. Rand was one of the first carriers of the Daily Chronicle; and the fidelity with which he attended to that duty has marked his course towards others and himself, ever since. Hence his success. Though very young to assume so responsible a position, he has given the most complete satisfaction. The school gave a public Exhibition, at the close of the late term; and with the proceeds presented their teacher a fine gold watch, as a testimonial of their regard.

We have no doubt that Mr. R. would refuse us this public mention of himself, did he know of it in advance; but as a townsman, an old and valued acquaintance, and especially one of our first employees, we can't refrain from chronicling his success, while we rejoice in it.

☞ The following obituary notice is cut from the Salina Co. Herald, Benicia, Cal.

Died, at Martinez, February 8th, of Consumption, Capt. George Langdon, formerly of Portsmouth, N. H., aged 56 years.

In life, he was useful and respected; in his death, happy and resigned. He was, to his enemies, fearless; to his friends, a brother. It will be long before the native Californians forget the services he has rendered them.

New Hampshire papers please copy.

☞ The Rockingham Co. Temperance Committee would respectfully suggest to ministers of all denominations, the propriety of temperance meetings on Fast Day afternoon, with the special design of addressing youth, and getting youth and children on the temperance pledge, in Bands of Hope, Cold Water Armies, etc.

☞ It will be seen that that Old Folks' Concert is announced for next Wednesday evening.

A PREDICTION.—The Philadelphia Press predicts that the revival of the slave trade will be, at the end of another year, the test of Democracy.—The Philadelphia Press, which utters the prediction, is edited by Mr. J. W. Forney, who was chief engineer in electing Mr. Buchanan to the Presidency.

Rev. Lemuel Willis has accepted a call to be pastor of the Universalist church in West Haverhill, Mass., to which place he will remove on the 1st of April.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher declines to give a lecture for which he had made an engagement in Springfield, on Thursday evening next, on account of the present religious interest in the community.—Boston Transcript.

There are some people in this world just fools enough to be pleased when you step on other people's corns; but when you step on theirs, what a howl!

DESPERATE ROBBERY.—The Providence Journal states that on Monday evening some one knocked at the door of the late William Randall, in North Providence, near the North Burying Ground. Mr. Caleb Williams, who is employed by Miss Mary Randall, the occupant of the house, went to the door, when five men rushed in, tied his hands behind his back, and his feet together, and then threw him on the floor. His wife and three children were made to lie on the floor beside him, while one villian stood by with a pistol and a dirk knife, threatening them with instant death if they moved. Miss Randall's shawl was tied tight about her neck, and she was then made to go about the house, showing them where the keys of the drawers and the rooms were kept. The robbers carried away about fifty cents in money, a dozen tea spoons, half a dozen large spoons and a ladle, all of silver, of the value of fifty dollars. When they left, the inmates of the house were told that the first one who came to the door within half an hour would be shot. They then went away, fastening the door on the outside.

DR. CHARLES JEWETT.—This worthy veteran in the temperance cause arrived in Boston on Tuesday. He appeared in fine health and spirits, and manifested the same as ever, a deep interest and lively energy in the great cause to which he has devoted so much of his life.

BUFFALO LIQUOR.—The Advertiser gives the following description of it:

The brandy is poison; the whiskey of that variety known as "hardware"—strychnine would improve it—and the gin is kept in glass bottles simply because it would eat through the staves of a barrel in fifteen minutes!

HARVARD COLLEGE.—Officers of the class of 1858 were recently elected:—Orator—Henry B. Adams of Quincy, Mass.; Poet—George W. C. Noble of Somersworth, N. H.; Odist—Wm. G. Gordon of New Bedford.

☞ John Curry, an Englishman, employed in the Wamsutta Mills, New Bedford, was drowned in Rodman's Pond on Monday night.
